County and municipal forest ownerships in the 125 Valley counties number 47 and total 57,820 acres, 0.3 percent of all forest land. County and municipal lands are widely scattered and well suited for demonstrating forest management practices. All but one of the 29 municipal tracts serve as city watersheds. Eight of these are now being systematically managed for timber as well as water production; the others are protected from fire but no timber cutting is permitted. The 18 county tracts totaling 5,530 acres are included in county farms or school properties for the most part; only three have management plans; five are given fire protection only: 10

562 Motorists Lose Licenses For Drunken Driving

RALEIGH-During July. 562 motorists in North Carolina were shorn of their driving licenses because of drunken driving, bringing to 5.065 total drunken driving convictions for 1948, the Motor Vehicle Department announced today victions were 160 less than for the same month last year, when driving conviction means manda-722 persons were convicted.

A total of 894 drivers lost their driving privileges during July because of traffic law offenses and practices detrimental to highway safety. Revocations totaled 736, and suspensions 158.

These included 64 persons caught driving drunk outside the State: 53 driving drunk and miscellaneous; 24 driving after license had been revoked; 29 speeding over 75 miles per hour; 21 for transporting liquor; and 12 for two offenses of speeding over 55 miles per hour.

Twenty-one persons lost their ing drunk. A second drunken tory revocation of license for a period of three years. Eight persons lost their licenses for failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility, and 11 others lost their driving privileges for being habitual violators of the traffic

During July, 368 persons were convicted of reckless driving, bringing to 2,588 the total reckless driving convictions for 1948. Reckless driving, however, requires no revocation or suspension on first offense.

The July drunken driving con- licenses for two offenses of drivtion and suspension there were 8,540 other violators who were convicted, but not deprived of their driving licenses.

Speeding took the greatest toll. with 3,414 convictions, bringing total speeding convictions for the year to 18,365.

Other offenses: failing to have driver's license, 1,883; faulty equipment, 724; improper lights, 415; running through red light, 385; driving on wrong side of road, 91; and failure to stop at intersection

Of the total violators for July, 7,501 were North Carolinians, and In addition to the major viola- 1,039 were out-of-state drivers.
