Edgar Darnell Weds Miss Ruby Arnold

Miss Ruby White Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Dennis Richard Arnold of Fuquay Springs and the late Mr. Arnold, and Edgar Monroe Darnell son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson Darnell of Murphy, were married Thursday afternoon in a candlelight ceremony in the Fuquay Springs Baptist Church, Dr. Broadus Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Sarah Aiken, Fuquay Springs, organist, and Miss Naomi Smith Benson, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle James Hannis White of Louisburg, wore an original gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and a yoke of silk marquisette edged with an off-shoulder bertha of Chantilly lace. A bouffant skirt, which fell over hoops into a long circular train, was caught up in front with clusters of orange blossoms, and ruffles of Chantilly lace extended to the floor. Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion fell from a tara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses centered with a white orchid, and showered with satin ribbons. Her only ornament was a cameo brooch which belonged to her maternal grandmother.

Miss Emily Stevens of Fuquay Springs was maid of honor. She wore an aqua organdy gown over matching taffeta, mits and a semi-crown made from material which matched the gown. She carried a colonial nosegay of mixed flowers with contrasting ribbon streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Rachel Kearney of Franklinton, Miss Janet Blalock of Winston-Salem, Miss Roxie Ann Walters of Fuquay Springs and Miss Mary Ann Daniel of Weldon. Their dresses of pastel organdy were identical to that of the maid of honor. They wore matching mits and headdress and each carried a colonial nosegay of mixed flowers with matching ribbons.

Charles Darnell, Macon, Georgia, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were: Theodore R. Wall of Greensboro, Carey Walter Allen of Asheville, Mahlan Day Kenney, Chapel Hill and James Earl Williams of Burlington, all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a gown of black crepe trimmed with pink lace and a sariand of matching flowers. Her corsage was pink roses. Mrs. Darnell, mother of the bridegroom wore a gown of black crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of tallisman roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity of the University of North Carolina entertained at a reception at the Sunset Lake Club House for members of the bridal party, out of town guests and friends.

Mrs. Darnell is a graduate of Mars Hill College, and is at present a member of the senior class at the University of North Carolina where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Darnell is a student in the School of Commerce at U. N. C. He is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He served in the Marine Corps during World War II and was stationed in the Pacific for two years.

Out of town guests attending the wedding ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson Darnell, and Mrs. W. M. Fain Jr., Murphy; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Darnell, Macon; Dr. and Mrs. F. W. M. White, and Miss Ann Griffin White, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. James H. White, Mr. James H. White Jr., and Miss Frances White, Louisburg; Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Duncan and Stacy Duncan Jr., Benson, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Curtis and Kenneth Jr., Raleigh.
