District Governor Is Rotary Speaker

ANDREWS—Last Thursday was a gala day in Andrews Rotary club. It was first honored by a visit from district Rotary Governor Everett Bierman of Charlotte. The local high school glee club was on hand and gave two numbers, one by the girls' glee club and one by the boys' glee club. And then capping off the musical offering was the Western Carolina Teachers College octet, under the direction of Prof. W. H. Cupp. The college visitors were accompanied by Dean W. B. Harrill.

Rotary Governor Bierman talked shop to the club, using as his subject Rotary's fourth object: "International Service". He began by saying that "international service is the big job for the 1949 district this year, and for the Andrews Rotary club". He told of

New 13-Weeks Baptist Hour Starts Sunday

Dr. J. D. Grey opens The Baptist Hour series, "Consider Jesus," Sunday, April 3. He is the first man chosen to preach an entire series of thirteen weeks since the program's inauguration in 1941, according to S. F. Lowe, Director of the Radio Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, Atlanta.

In May, Dr. Grey begins his thirteenth year as pastor of the First Baptist Church of New Orleans, La. For ten years he has conducted "The Gospel Hour" over WSMB, New Orleans, and now has three regular services broadcast over local stations each Sunday.

A graduate of Union University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Dr. Grey has for ten years been a member of the Home Mission Board; is now President of the Louisiana Baptist Convention; and also president of the Southwestern Alumni Association of Southwestern Seminary. He is much in demand as a revival preacher, accepting five to seven meetings each year; and in July will fill his third week's engagement at the Southwest Training Union Assembly at Ridgecrest. In 1946 and 1947 he preached sermons at the Southern Convention.

A native of Kentucky, Dr. Grey claims the same home town as Vice President Alben W. Barkley Paducah.

The Baptist Hour series, with Dr. Grey as preacher, will be heard over a 70-station independent network Sunday mornings April through June at 8:30 EST, and can be heard here over WSB.

Subjects for the series will be: April 3—Consider Jesus April 10—Jesus Only April 17—Alive for Evermore April 24—Jesus our Advocate May 1—Christ, the Sin Cure May 8—Mary, the Mother of Jesus May 15—Jesus Knocks at Your Door May 22—Our Sufficient Saviour May 29—Jesus and Repentance June 5—Jesus and the New Birth June 12—Listen to Jesus June 19—The Wounds of Jesus June 26—What Will You Do With Jesus

41 Farmers In Pasture Contest

An increasing interest is being shown by the farmers of the county in the recently announced pasture contest. To date 41 farmers of Cherokee county have signed entry applications. Many others have expressed their intentions of participating and have started work on the pastures to be entered in the contest. As announced by the County Agent's office and Coble Dairy Products, Inc., valuable prizes will be given to the contest winners.

The producers of milk, meat and wool and better pastures are necessary for the economy of production. In order to increase profits, it is necessary for the acreage of ladino clover pastures to be increased and for the level of fertility to be raised.

This year the farmer has a real opportunity to improve his pastures at a low cost. Through the local P. M. A. or A. A. A. office farmers can obtain seeds and other assistance at a fraction of their usual cost.
