Revival At Andrews Methodist Church Will Begin On April 24

ANDREWS—A series of revival services will begin in Andrews Methodist church Sunday, April 24, with the 11 o'clock service and will continue through May 4.

The guest minister for these services is Dr. John R. Church, general evangelist of the Methodist church. Dr. Church is a former pastor of the church in Andrews. He came to Andrews in the fall of 1925 and served for three years. Dr. Church joined the Western N. C. conference of the Methodist church in 1922 and served as a pastor until 1934 when he entered upon general and conference evangelistic work. He is called upon for evangelistic work in all parts of the United States and has been successful in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Derreberry and Mr. and Mrs. Loster Love visited in Asheville Sunday. Mrs. Olen Stratton and Mrs. Wade Reece were visitors in Murphy Tuesday.

Howard Holder Is Selected For ROTC Candidate

ANDREWS—Howard E. Holder, Andrews high school senior, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holder of Andrews, has just been advised that he has been selected as the Principal candidate for enrollment in the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps for the term beginning in the fall of 1949. Under the above plan Holder will be appointed by the secretary of the Navy to the rank of Midshipman, United States Naval Reserve. Holder has made application to receive his four-year training at Duke university.

The Andrews high school senior is the third Andrews youth to receive such an appointment in as many years. I. B. Hudson Jr. was appointed in 1947 and is now in his sophomore year at Duke university. Daniel Whitaker Davis was appointed a year ago, and is now a freshman at the University of North Carolina.
