The Regal Club Guest In Home of Mrs. Evans

at the home of Mrs. T. S. Evans Friday evening, by Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Bessie Dixon, Mrs. Pauline Brendle and Mrs. Marjorie Witherspoon. Those present were Mrs. J. H. McCall, president; Miss Estelle Bennett, Miss Josephine Heighway, Miss Marvie Walker,

Food Expert To Demonstrate Frozen Foods

Mrs. Myrom Clinard Luttrell, Home Economist for International Harvester Company of Charlotte, will demonstrate the preparation of frozen foods for the freezer and for the table at Murphy High School, June 22, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Luttrell's background in Home Economics is varied and interesting. She majored in Home Economics at Middle Tennessee State Teachers College, Murfreesboro, Tenn., was for 10 years employed by Ball Brothers Jar Co. of Muncie, Indiana, as Home Economist, covering 14 states teaching food preservation to extension, farm security, college and utility groups. For two years she served as Sales Promotion Representative for Foley Manufacturing Co. working with large department stores throughout the east and midwest and exhibiting for Foley at National Home Economics conventions, dietetic, medical and nurses' annual meetings, as well as houseware shows.

"Frozen Food Facts" is being presented daily by Mrs. Luttrell in various sections of the Carolinas. A recent survey given in McCall's Magazine reveals that 50% of the Nation's farm families are now freezing their own fruits, vegetables and meats either at home or in local lockers. This meeting should be of great interest to local housewives.

Door prizes and refreshments are being planned. The demonstration is being arranged by Dickey & Davis of Murphy.

Mrs. R. E. Kintz, Mrs. Bessie Dewese, Mrs. Bessie Dixon, Mrs. Ruby Hill, Miss Hattie Palmer, Mrs. S. D. Akin, Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Mrs. Dixie Palmer, Mrs. Pauline Brendle, Mrs. Marjorie Witherspoon, Mrs. F. W. Hubbell, Miss Hattie Axley, and Miss Mildred Looney, of Raleigh, the guest of Miss Josephine Heighway.

The president, and members of the committee of the clean-up drive for the town, reported the hearty cooperation of the Mayor, the town officials and the civic clubs in their efforts to accomplish their purposes, and all members present expressed their thanks and appreciation for the assistance given by the Mayor, the town officials, and the civic clubs.

The living-room was decorated with roses and garden flowers, and after the business of the club was finished, the hostesses served a delicious salad course and coffee.

The Regal Club will have its next meeting on Friday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock P. M. on the lawn of Mrs. Dixie Palmer, where a picnic supper will be served.

Etowah Man Injured In Wreck

Johnny McJunkin of Etowah, Tenn., was critically injured when his automobile overturned on the Hiwassee Dam highway Friday night. He is receiving treatment at Whitfield Clinic where he was unconscious for 24 hours. According to Patrolman Jack Lunsford information concerning the cause of the accident is incomplete.
