Luther League Elects Officers

ANDREWS—The Luther League of St. Andrews Lutheran Church elected officers for the year at the regular weekly meeting Sunday evening. Those elected were as follows: Fannie Buckner, president; Martha Jane Rogers, vice-president; Mary Nell Ledford, secretary; and Eugene Barton, treasurer. Mrs. Glenn Love has been appointed organist. Following her election, Miss Buckner appointed the following committees: Program Committee, Patsy Holland and Aileen Head; Hallowe'en Party, Mrs. Glenn Love and Martha Jane Rogers. Twenty members were present. Miss Frances Cover is serving as Advisor to the Luther League.

Miss Buckner spoke to the group concerning the high standards upon which the Luther League must work to meet the requirements set up by the United Lutheran Church of America. The Sixteen Point program of the Luther League includes such items as daily Bible reading, reading the required study course books, a special program on Life Service, at least one public meeting a year, the use of the prepared Luther League program guides and each member giving some definite service in the community. A Luther League which meets these and the remainder of the sixteen points becomes an Honor League and receives a certificate at the State Convention. For a number of years in the past the Luther League of St. Andrews attracted statewide attention with its constant winning of the honor certificates, honor plaques and other awards for fine accomplishments.

Wildcats Bow To Hayesville

ANDREWS—The Andrews Wildcats met the Hayesville Yellowjackets at Andrews Friday. The kick-off at 3 P. M. gave Hayesville the ball. After the ball had changed hands several times, with neither team making a serious scoring threat, Andrews kicked and the kick was blocked. However, Andrews recovered on the 11-yard line. Hayesville received the second kick on the 35-yard line. After a fourth down pass fell incomplete the Wildcats took over on the 35 and drove quickly for four successive first downs. The half time whistle stopped them on the 18-yard line.

Early in the third quarter, Capt. Bob Mulkey of the Andrews team, intercepted a Hayesville pass carrying the ball to the nine-yard line. This set up the initial touchdown of the game which was made by Marks Hudson, fullback. The Wildcats were unable to tally the extra point.

The Yellowjackets received and drove for four first downs when the quarter ended. The fourth quarter found a determined Hayesville team plowing through the
