

School Teacher Visits the Infantry

A high school counselor learns at first hand about one of the things high school youths do when they get in the Army. Mrs. Hazel R. Fochet of the Bottin High School in New Jersey, tries her hand with the M1 rifle on the range of the 9th Infantry Division, Fort Dix, N. J., when a group of high school principals accepted the Army's invitation to witness the recruit training program.

435,518 Motor Vehicle Drivers In The State

A total of 435,518 driver's licenses were issued to motorists of North Carolina during 1947, the Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

July was the month of largest issuance with 67,819, while June ran a close second with 58,340.

Of the total issued, 360,103 were operator's licenses issued on new application; 16,699 were duplicate operator's licenses issued on old applications; and 16,230 were duplicate operator's licenses issued on new applications. Chauffeur's licenses numbered 41,763, of which 705 were duplicates.

During December, 38,815 operator's licenses were issued, along with 764 duplicates on old applications and 1,104 duplicates on new applications. Nine hundred and seventeen chauffeur's licenses were issued and 61 duplicate licenses.

Revenue from issuance of licenses amounted to $83,433.22, with $79,889 being from original operator's licenses; $1,391.72 from duplicate operator's licenses; $2,107.50 from original chauffeur's licenses; and $45 from duplicate chauffeur's licenses.

Tree Seedlings Are Available

Landowners who still plan to plant tree seedlings for reforestation purposes are urged by District Forester Pettit to place their orders as soon as possible with the Department of Conservation and Development. Mr. Pettit says there are plenty of loblolly, slash, shortleaf and longleaf pine left at the Clayton Forest Nursery, but new orders are arriving daily for them.

The Forestry Division expects to sell nearly 10 million seedlings this year to more than 2,000 landowners throughout the State. The District Forester says order blanks for trees may be had by writing to him or to the State Forester's Office, Department of Conservation and Development, Raleigh, N. C. County Forest Warden E. S. Burnett, will also take orders and forward the applications to the proper authorities.

Mrs. N. A. Quinn will be hostess to the club in February, and Mrs. G. M. Young will be in charge of the devotional. The demonstration will be on "Orcharding and Poultry."

N, O, P, and Q Drivers Must Renew Their Licenses By June 30

Motorists whose last names begin with N, O, P and Q now are being examined for renewal of their licenses to drive, Jeff B. Wilson, director of the Highway Safety Division of the Department of Motor Vehicles, reminds drivers in this category.

Although N, O, P and Q drivers have until June 30 to obtain their renewals, they will save time if they report for examination early in the period while driver's license examiners are not rushed, Wilson said. Long lines as the L and M period closed December 31 should indicate to N through Q motorists the advisability of getting their licenses renewed at their earliest convenience.
