Mrs. F. W. Hubbell Heads Regal Club

Mrs. F. W. Hubbell was elected president of the Regal Club at a meeting held Friday evening in the home of Miss Addie Mae Cooke. Other officers were elected as follows: Mrs. T. S. Evans was elected vice-president; Miss Josephine Heighway, second vice-president; Mrs. Ruby Hill, secretary; Mrs. Pauline Brendle, corresponding secretary; and Miss Hattie Palmer, treasurer.

These officers will be installed at the February meeting to be held with Miss Josephine Heighway on February 10 at 6:30, when a pot luck supper will be served.

Ushers were James Covington of Lake City, S. C., and Robert Stovdmire of Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Dunn is a graduate of Mars Hill College and will receive her degree from the University of South Carolina in Columbia this month.

Lt. Dunn attended Pennington Preparatory School, N. J., and graduated from U. S. M. M. A. Kingspoint, Long Island, N. Y.

During the recent war he served aboard a transport in the Pacific which participated in the invasion of Iwo Jima and Okinawa. He is at present a naval officer at the University of South Carolina Naval School.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a two weeks' wedding trip to New York.

For traveling Mrs. Dunn wore a purple wool suit with pale pink accessories, and her corsage was the orchid from her prayer book.

Lt. and Mrs. Dunn are now residing in Columbia but will leave in February for a permanent residence in Monterey, Calif.

Before the wedding the bride was entertained at a personal shower given by Miss Marvis Keels and Miss Ann Cooke. She was given a bridal shower by Miss Lucy Rashed and Miss Nancy Clark.

A wedding rehearsal party was given by Lt. Commander and Mrs. William Heyer.

Ushers were James Covington of Lake City, S. C., and Robert Stovdmire of Columbia, S. C.

Fifth Grade Gives Program

Miss Kate Hayes' Fifth Grade presented the following chapel program last Friday: "New Year"; Harry Killian, New Year; Clyde Fowler, "Old Year; Winter songs, 100th Psalm entire grade; prayer; Months and special events and birthdays:

Laura Bailey - Washington; Charla Ballew, August; Roger Baught, Lincoln; Sonny Bishop, reading "New Year"; Harold Coleman, Woodrow Wilson; John Collins, June; Lee Dockery, "Stone-wall" Jackson; Bobby Easley, Theodore Roosevelt; Ed Gibbs, Paul Revere—Columbus; Mozelle Graves, Longfellow; Mary K. Hamby - February; Lavins Hinton, Lindburgh; Mary Sue Hyatt, May Day; Nadine Hubbard, St. Valentine; Gordon Jones, Thomas Jefferson; Paul Jones, Buffalo Bill

The credulity of the average man or woman is evident in the ease with which they swallow accidental praise.

Have you ever talked to a loquacious brother who thinks it necessary to repeat his remarks three or four times?

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

JANUARY 16-31

How many Americans would contain communism in China by sending a half million American fighting men to give battle to the Reds?

The British go to the polls next month to pass judgment upon the Labor government; it will surprise some Americans if the result is approval of what has been done.

Maureen Lovingood Bride Of Lt. G. G. Dunn

Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Lovingood of Murphy announce the marriage of their daughter, Maureen Lovingood, to Lt. George Gardner Dunn, son of the late William E. Dunn and Mrs. L. L. Emerson of Demarest, N. J.

The marriage took place December 20, 1949, at First Methodist Church, Columbia, S. C.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Gleaton, the pastor, before an improvised altar banked with palms and lighted tapers.

The bride, escorted by professor Hubert Spigner of the University of South Carolina, wore a champagne color nylon net, ankle length dress embellished with lace. She wore a satin color headdress with matching gloves, and carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid.

Miss Kathleen Ward of Edenton, was maid of honor. Other attendants were Misses Marvis Kells of Timmonsville, S. C., and Ann Cooke of Wadesboro, who wore brown dresses and carried nosegays of yellow roses.

The bride's mother wore a brown ensemble with a corsage of pink roses.

Lt. Commander William Heyer of Hackensack, N. J., was best man. Groomsmen were Lt. Commander William Judge of Boston, Mass., and Lt. Jack Walker of Norfolk, Va.

Ushers were James Covington of Lake City, S. C., and Robert Stovdmire of Columbia, S. C.
