

SOCIETY

Mary Lou Gordon Hostess To YWA

The Y. W. A. of First Baptist Church met at the home of Miss Mary Lou Gordon Monday. It was decided that the group would get a gift for a friend, who has been ill. Miss Barbara Arnold had charge of the program, "Do We Have What It Takes?" Miss Nancy Wells read the Scripture, and Miss Arnold led the group in prayer.

Those present were: Misses Barbara Reid, Betty Swain, Peggy Baugh, Sally Barton, Nancy Wells, Barbara Arnold, Peggy Savage, Eulane Dockery, Moeselle Moore, Jane Brendle, Mary Lou Gordon and Mrs. Phyllis Arrowood.

Club Hears Talk By Miss Smith

The Murphy Woman's Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. H. G. Elkins and Mrs. Duke Whitley as hostesses.

Susie Miller sang two numbers, "One Alone," and "Desert Song". Miss Carolyn Smith of Andrews, who was an exchange 4-H club girl in Norway last summer, spoke to the group on "Women's Activities in Norway."

Refreshments were served prior to the meeting.

Res. 96-R Office 446
Dr. George L. Dyer
 Chiropractic Physician
 Rooms 9, 10, 11
 Mauney Building
 Hours—9-1 2-5
 Evenings by Appointment X-RAY

Huckleberry Officials Are Club Speakers

Miss Evelyn G. Haynes, executive director, and Mrs. Florence W. Brewer, public relations director for the Huckleberry Mountain Workshop-camp, Huckleberry, a non-profit educational institution for the creative arts, located near Hendersonville were guest speakers at the meeting of the Murphy Junior Woman's Club held in the Educational assembly room of the Presbyterian Church, Thursday night, January 19, with Mrs. Bob White, president, presiding. Mrs. H. Bueck presented the speakers.

Miss Haynes and Mrs. Brewer gave a very interesting and enlightening picture of the way the school came into being, its struggles for a start, the growth and development of the school and adjoining colony and its influence on the lives of the local people and the artists who become connected with Huckleberry.

A brief business session was held at which time reports by Mrs. Boyd Davis, chairman of the tonsillotomy committee; Mrs. Hobart McKeever, treasurer, and Mrs. White who commended the group for their cooperation with Mrs. Howard Moody in making the rummage sale a success. Each member was given two boxes of gift wrappings and made responsible for selling or buying them to aid the ways and means committee. Mrs. White read a letter from Mrs. Brownlee at the Veterans' Hospital at Oteen, thanking the club for the 18 boxes of "Thank You" notes that were sent to the hospital for Christmas.

A display of craft work by the students of Huckleberry was on exhibit in the club room.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed by the members. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Marie Davis, Mrs. Boyd Davis, Mrs. Charles Shytle and Mrs. Clair Olson.

Mrs. Douthit, 59 Taken By Death

Mrs. Hassie Loucendia Douthit, 59, died at her home at Flats Tuesday night, after an extended illness. She had lived in that community most of her life.

Funeral services were held at Bryertown Baptist Church of which she had been a member for a number of years. The Rev. T. D. Denny officiated and burial was in the church cemetery with Ivie

Tomotla Club Is Headed By Mrs. Johnson

The Tomotla Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, January 19, at Tomotla School. The County Program of Work as adopted by the County Council was presented by the home agent, Miss Edna Bishop. This program was unanimously accepted by the club.

Officers for 1950 are: President, Mrs. Sheridan Johnson; vice-president, Mrs. Jack Lemons; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Wells. The following were appointed to serve as project leaders: Foods and Nutrition, Mrs. J. C. Wells; Home Gardens, Mrs. John Rogers; Home Poultry, Mrs. J. S. Keener; Home Dairy, Mrs. C. C. Roberts; Food Preservation, Mrs. Fred Scroggs; House Furnishings, Mrs. Jack Lemons; Family Life, Mrs. Floyd Anderson; Clothing, Mrs. Sheridan Johnson; Arts and Crafts, Mrs. Fred Keener; Community Service, Mrs. C. C. Roberts; Health, Mrs. J. S. Keener; Education, Mrs. Earl Millsaps; Citizenship, Mrs. J. C. Wells; Recreation, Mrs. Fred Keener; Markets, Mrs. J. C. Wells; 4-H Club Leaders, Mrs. J. B. Shields and Miss Lella Hayes; Music, Mrs. Jack Lemons.

The club voted to award a prize to each member with perfect attendance from February through December. A prize will also be awarded to each member completing requirements for a book certificate.

The next regular club meeting will be at the Tomotla School, February 16.

Committee On Missions Elected

The following Mission Committee was elected at a supper meeting at the Church of the Messiah Saturday night: Mrs. Myron Jensen, Mrs. B. W. Whitfield, Mrs. F. C. Bourne, Clair (Ike) Olson, R. W. Easley, Rufus Vick.

According to canon law the Mission Committee chose its own officers who are: Ike Olson, warden; Mrs. Myron Jensen, clerk; Mrs. B. W. Whitfield, treasurer.

A report was given of the work of the local Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. R. W. Easley, president.

A budget for the Church of the Messiah for 1950 was discussed and adopted.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan presided at the business session.

Funeral home in charge Surviving are one son, Emory Houston Douthit; two daughters, Versie, and Mrs. Christine Day; two brothers, C. B. and David L. Owenby all of Flats.

PERSONALS

A supper will be held in the Marble School lunchroom Saturday, January 26, beginning at 7 P. M., sponsored by the ladies of Marble Baptist Church. The proceeds will be given to the March of Dimes Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Whitaker of Asheville and Mrs. Hill were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Williams.

Lt. and Mrs. George Dunn of Columbia, S. C., spent last weekend here with Mrs. Dunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Lovin-good.

Mrs. A. B. Owen and baby, Porter, left Thursday for their home in Dallas, Texas, after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fain.

J. E. Hogsett and family of Murphy visited their son, J. E. Jr., Sunday, at Western North Carolina Sanatorium, Black Mountain, where he has been a patient for some time.

Miss Mildred Looney, chief library assistant from the North Carolina Library Commission, is spending some time in Murphy assisting in the Regional Library work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hyde and Rosalie spent Wednesday in Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davidson, Mrs. F. V. Taylor and Mrs. John W. Davidson made a trip to Knoxville, Tenn., last Thursday and visited Mrs. Christopher Bus-sort.

Glenda Ivie Is G. A. President

The Intermediate G. A.'s of the Baptist W. M. U. met with Mrs. J. B. Hall Tuesday at 3:15. Glenda Ivie, president, presided. Mrs. Clyde Wilson offered the opening prayer and the group sang the G. A. hymn and repeated the allegiance, watchword and star ideals. Business was discussed, and hostesses for the year named.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Glenda Ivie, president; Sally Morris, secretary and treasurer; Ann Shields, program chairman; Judy Nichols and Doris Palmer, Community Mission chairmen; Jane Sneed, Stewardship chairman and Joan Adams and Shirley Bates social chairmen.

Doris Palmer presented the program on, "How Christian Is America". Jimmie Davis had the devotional and Billy Jane Rush offered the prayer. The program was presented in the form of a playlet. Joan Adams closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were served to eight members and two visitors present.

P. T. A. Studies Education For Citizenship

The January meeting of the Murphy Parent-Teacher Association was held Monday at 7:30 P. M. in the primary assembly room with Mrs. Robert Weaver, president, presiding.

The Rev. James R. Crook, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, conducted the devotional service.

The high school band, under the direction of Miss Moeselle Moore, supervisor of music in the school, played three numbers.

Mrs. Margaret Mauney presented the program on the topic, "Education For Citizenship". A report was given on the efforts being made by the federal, state and county agencies to assist children and youth.

C. E. Hyde spoke on "Local Laws for Protection of Children", giving a number of local laws, and pointed out that many state laws are similar and have a local application.

Mrs. Harry Carringer, assistant case worker of the county welfare department, gave a report on financial aid given by the federal, state and county agencies to dependent children.

Mack Patton, assistant county agent, spoke on "Local Resources for Recreation."

Mrs. Delbert Byrum spoke on "What the Churches are Doing For Youth". She pointed out the importance of the church in developing good citizens, and said that "Our Future World Marches by on the Feet of Our Children".

Reports from various committees were given. Miss Addie Leatherwood reported that membership cards would be given members following the meeting.

Mrs. H. Bueck, Ways and Means committee chairman, reported on additional "Family Night" programs, and on her suggestion that the PTA purchase a "Bell Lyre" for the band, it was voted to do so.

In the absence of H. Bueck, Mrs. Mauney, school attendance officer, reported that the attendance was satisfactory.

Mission Study

On Tuesday morning, January 31, at 10 o'clock the Woman's Society of First Methodist Church will have its mission study on "We The Peoples Of The Ecumenical Church. Pot-luck lunch will be served, and the study will be concluded in the early afternoon. Mrs. Merle Davis is program chairman, and several persons will participate on the mission study program.

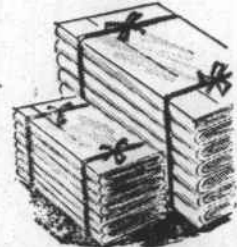

PULLETS

Orders for New Hampshire "Reds" Pullets will be taken through Gainesville Hatchery, Inc. For financing of pullets and feed, contact

R. B. HAMILTON

Phone 505-M

Andrews, N. C.

YOU'LL TAKE PRIDE IN SNOWY LINENS

There's no substitute for the care, skill and thoroughness of a professional laundry. What's more—this service is available at little cost in money, and no cost in time. We'll be glad to tell you all about our family finish bundle.

OUR DRY CLEANING SERVICE IS FAST AND EFFICIENT.

Your garments will be sweet and fresh when you use our quality cleaning.

IMPERIAL LAUNDRY and DRY CLEANERS

PHONE 13

MURPHY, N. C.

SUITS for the Well Groomed Air

Tailor-Made

For the first time since the war we are able to get Ladies' beautiful tailor-made suits in lovely fashionable spring colors. Come in and see these fine materials, and let us fit you expertly with one.

MEN'S SUITS

Tailored or Ready-Made

For the man who wants to be well-dressed, we have suits that are just the thing to give him that well-groomed look.

SHOES

REAL BARGAINS!

We are clearing our shelves for spring SHOES and have some real bargains! Come in and see these shoes. Select your pair and save the difference.

CARRINGER'S

Phone 166

Murphy, N. C.

SECURITY'S AIM...

WEIGH YOUR FEED! GET THIS GREAT VALUE!

DOLLYDALE SCOOP-SCALE

Regular Value $7.50 only $4.50

with Security Dairy Feed tag

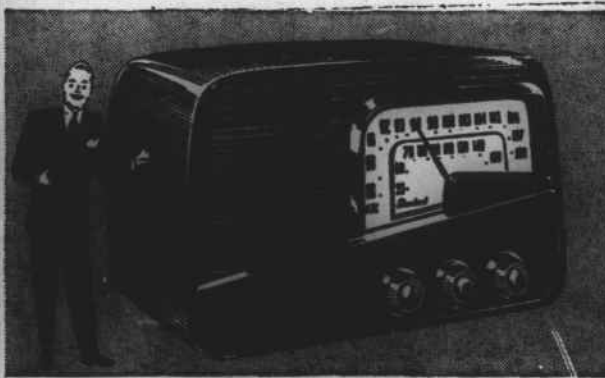

Dollydale Scoop-Scale weighs feed as you scoop it up. You just scoop up the feed, glance at the dial, and you know instantly when you have the right amount of feed by weight. Each cow should be fed according to production. No guess work... handy... rugged. Weighs 5 pounds of feed. Delivered to you for only $4.50 and a Security Dairy Feed tag. See your dealer for Security Dairy Feed today. To get your scoop send $4.50 and tag to Security Mill, Inc., Knoxville 5, Tennessee.

MT. VALLEY COOP.
 MURPHY and BRASSTOWN, N. C.

Now You Can Afford

Quality FM

GE FM-AM RADIO
 $49.95

- Think of it! Both FM and AM at a price lower than many ordinary radios!
- General Electric FM is genuine Armstrong FM—virtually eliminates static, fading, station interference!
- Beautiful, crystal-clear reception you've never heard before!
- Plus powerful AM reception!
- Handsome, modern mahogany plastic cabinet! Model 218.

$1.25 Weekly

GIBBS HARDWARE AND AUTO SUPPLY

PHONE 100

MURPHY, N. C.

HENN Theatre

MURPHY, N. C.
 Thur. - Fri., January 26-27
 John Wayne - Joanne Dru
 —In—
"She Wore A Yellow Ribbon" in Technicolor

Saturday, January 28
 ALLEN LANE, In—
"Renegades Of Sonora"
 ALSO
 Gloria Henry - Ross Ford
 —In—
"Air Hostess"

LATE SHOW SAT. NIGHT
 John Calvert as The Falcon
 —In—
"Appointment With Murder"
 Also Added Color Cartoon

Sunday, January 29
 John Cummings - Ann Blyth
 —In—
"Free For All"
 Also Color Cartoon

Mon. - Tues., Jan. 30-31
 Cary Grant - Ann Sheridan
 —In—
"I Was A Male War Bride"
 Also selected Short Subjects

Wednesday, February 1
 Leo Gorcey - Hunts Hall
 —In—
"Angels In Disguise"
 Also Added Serial: "James Brothers of Missouri" No. 1