BIG SNOW STORM HITS COUNTY Is One Of Two Winners Achievement Program

Business, Industry Are Slowed Down

The snow storm that struck practically all of the eastern states during the week-end, started blasting its fury of snow and low temperatures upon Cherokee County Friday morning. The county experienced its coldest weather since the winter of 1941-42, according to official information from the TVA Hydraulics Data office. Business and industry here were slowed down considerably, many of business remaining closed all day Saturday. People generally sat by their firesides trying to keep warm.

Snow began falling Thursday night, and by noon Friday had laid a blanket over the whole area. Friday night and Saturday were severely cold. The TVA thermometer registered two degrees above zero Saturday morning, and there were two inches of snow It continued to snow intermittently piling up about three inches at the most through Tuesday. On Wednesday warmer weather came. ard much of the snow and ice

During the week-end the streets and highways were slick, and there was very little travel. Mail service by the Highway Post Office was disrupted, as it was unable to run after making its return trip to Asheville Friday, until Tuesday. Valley and Hiwassee Rivers were frozen over. Schools opened Monday as usual, but attendance was low,

Wednesday about noon the hom of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Baugh caught on fire, around a flue, but Mrs. Baugh and a guest and the fire department soon extinguished it, and very little damage was done. Mrs Candace Brendle, who lives in Factorytown, suffered a broken arm when she slipped on the ice and fell Saturday.

Evans Auto Co. reports furnishing wrecker service for the following accidents:

R. M. Atkins had a head-on collision with a power pole on Highway 19, near the ball park in East Murphy, Friday afternoon. Mr. Atkins was driving a 1949 Chevrolet. The pole was split into, and power in Murphy and vicinity was off approximately an hour because of the accident.

Hobert M. Coleman of Charleslown, Ind., who was visiting relatives in Unaka, wrecked on the side of Texana Mountain. He was uriving a 1947 Chevrolet, which was a total loss. Mr. Coleman was uninjured.

Four vehicles were in collision at the deep cut on Highway 64. near Murphy. Two were damag ed: Miss Maggie Belle Kisselburg s 1948 Chevrolet to the extent of about $200, and an Oldsmobile comewhat. The other two vehicles involved in the wreck were Ivie Funeral Home's ambulance and a 1941 Plymouth belonging to a Mr. Hartley of Letitin,

A 1947 pick-up and a 1949 Hudson had to be pulled out of ditches on Texana Mountain, and several other cars were pulled out of ditches on the Grape Creek Road; none
