Helping the Nation get things done for 75 years

This year is the telephone's seventy-fifth and busiest birthday. What began as a line between two rooms in a Boston attic in 1876 has developed, in one lifetime, into a Long Distance network that covers the Nation—and extends to most of the world's telephones. This great system has grown in answer to the needs of a people. And it's a good thing it has. In these threatening times, the Long Distance lines that bind this country together are more vital than ever. For today they are helping to speed production and guard the Nation's security—jobs that call for nothing less than the best telephone service in the world.—Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number. Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

75 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE NATION

Going... Going...

GONE? No...not yet! But the familiar water tank is fast disappearing along the Southern Railway System. Why? Because Diesel locomotives don't "drink" from water tanks...and Diesels now move about 80 percent of our traffic.

*Since 1940, the Southern Railway has spent more than $125 million on Dieselization. A like amount has been spent for thousands of new freight and passenger cars and for all sorts of modern improvements and additions.

Because the Southern has kept pace with expanding civilian transportation needs of the growing Southland, it is better prepared than ever before to serve the South...better prepared to shoulder its full share of growing transportation demands of national defense.
