

Rev. Clayton Lime Is Finals Speaker

The commencement exercises for 60 members of the graduating class in Andrews High School will be conducted in the school auditorium on Sunday evening, May 20, by Rev. J. Clayton Lime, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Canton. Mr. Lime is a former teacher in the Andrews Schools.

The school's final graduating exercises will be held on Friday, May 25, at which time diplomas will be granted, and the announcement of prizes and awards will be made. The speaker for the luncheon address has not yet been announced.

At 10:30 o'clock on May 25 the graduating exercises for the grammar grades will be held, according to Ernest N. Jenkins, principal of the elementary school. At this time 91 pupils are scheduled to be promoted to the high school.

May 21 has been set as the date for the annual junior-senior banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Day, Sr., of Winston-Salem spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Davis, and family.
