Pigs Delivered To Young Pig Raisers

Cherokee County 4-H boys now have received their pigs under the chain plan financed partly by the Murphy branch of Citizens Bank and Trust Company. Eighteen registered Yorkshire pigs were delivered by truck to the several boys, and they signed contracts with the County Farm Agents to care for the pigs according to Extension recommendations and to pay back the sum of $20 one year from the time they got the pigs.

Meanwhile, the boys get free breeding service and get prize money at a county wide show this fall.

Boys receiving pigs under the chain plan this year are: Mack Clark and William Franklin, Andrews; Donald Palmer and Clinton Lovingood, Marble; William Bradshaw and L. C. Newton, Tomola; Pearl Johnson, Ernie Millsaps and J. C. Kilpatrick, Jr., Peachtree; Harry Arrowood, Jack Coleman and Billy and Jimmy Stiles, Martins Creek; Bobby Carroway and Cecil Hughes, Bellview; Wendell Patterson, Suit; and Carl Radford, Hangingdog.
