COMPARID WITH OTHER THINGS YOU BUY....

TELEPHONE SERVICE is still a Big Bargain!

During the past ten years, the price of telephone service in North Carolina has gone up, in the overall, less than half as much as prices in general.

Meanwhile, throughout most of North Carolina, the number of local telephones you can call has nearly tripled. And the service is faster and better.

Consider, too, the fact that North Carolina telephone rates have increased less than one-fourth as much as industrial wages. Then you realize that telephone service is today an even better buy than it was ten years ago-and a relatively smaller item in the family budget.
