Arthur Jordan Is On USS Suisun

Arthur G. Jordan RMS is spending a thirty-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake A. Jordan of Murphy.

He has served three years in the U. S. Navy, of which time 15 months were served over seas in the Southwest Pacific. His first tour of duty was off the coast of the Aleutian Islands. The next trip across, which was prior to the Korean War, his ship, the USS Suisun, was stationed near Formosa. Then his third time to cross the Pacific, he was stationed near Japan.

He attended radio school in San Diego, where he received his "boot" training also. After this he was transferred to the USS Suisun for active duty. At present his time aboard this ship is surpassed only by one man.

Jordan is a graduate of Murphy High School and attended Carolina Teachers College. Before entering service he was employed by Parker Drug Company.

Jack E. Ritch Made Sergeant

Ladd Air Force Base, Alaska—Jack E. Ritch of Murphy North Carolina, has been promoted by the United States Air Force from the rank of Corporal to Sergeant.

He is now on duty with the 5001st Research & Development Group as a clerk-typist at Ladd Air Force Base, Alaska—America's farthest north major military installation. Sgt. Ritch has been in the service since August, 1949 and has been in Alaska since November, 1950.

Sgt. Ritch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ritch live in Murphy.

Brothers Have Same Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan entertained with a party August 7, honoring their sons, James Richard, who was five years old, and Robert Allan, who was one. Both birthdays fall on the same date.

Children's games were played. Mrs. Roy Wilson assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Guests were: Billy Wagner, Helen, Francis, and Patty Hamilton, Steve and John Bradley, Ronnie Rhodes, Shirley Wilson, Virginia and Patty Guffey, and brother "Mike".

Special guests included Mrs. J. H. McCall and Mrs. Virginia Cobb.

David T. Day Visits Turkey

David T. Day, gunner's mate, second class, USN, husband of Mrs. Charlene Day of Marble, visited Izmir, Turkey, recently when the radar picket destroyer USS Vesole anchored at the Asia Minor port for a five-day call.

The most important town in Asia Minor, and a principal port of the Turkish Republic, Izmir is one of the earliest homes of the Christian Church. Many churches in the United States now bear its ancient name of Smyrna. Tours of the city enabled the crew of the ship to see many Roman ruins that dot Izmir.

The Vesole is attached to the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Wm. V. Hogsed Is On USS Eldorado

While world-wide interest centers on peace talks in Kaesong, Korea, William V. Hogsed, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hogsed of Route 3, Murphy, is serving aboard the amphibious force flagship USS Eldorado, command ship for Naval forces supporting the UN delegation in Korea.

The Eldorado's crew had a ring-side seat watching war correspondents in action when the first pictures of the peace meeting were dropped on the after deck of the Eldorado and radio-photoed direct from the ship to San Francisco.

During the peace talks, the elaborate radio and radio-photo facilities aboard have beamed to the world news stories and pictures of the conference in progress.

AT RANDOLPH

Sgt. Venson Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of Andrews, is with the United States Air Force at Randolph, Air Force Base, Texas.

Sgt. Adams is expecting to be transferred to Fort Bragg where he will be joined by his wife and daughter, Angela.
