Andrews Lions Get Their Charter

Andrews Lions Club was officially launched Thursday night with a gala charter night banquet at Junaluska Terrace Hotel, Andrews.

Lion H. Bueck introduced Lion Hugh Monteth, international counselor of Sylva, who was speaker of the evening. Mr. Monteth gave the subject of his address "Why A Lions Club?". His opening remarks were "We have a Lions Club in order that we may have an opportunity to make a united effort to render service to the community represented. Fun and fellowship are necessary to make a club, but they cannot replace service. There is a need for men willing to step out and join hands with other men and give the best that is within them". He further stated that men who do not feel a pulse of sympathy for the less fortunate in their community do not deserve the title of citizen. To be a good Lion, a man must first be a good citizen and a good man. He referred to the title of Lions code of ethics and asked that each member read and study it carefully to be worthy of being a Lion. "A Club will never raise a standard higher than the standards of its individual members", he said.

He closed his address with the prediction that if the Lions Club of Andrews will get a vision of the opportunities of service and are willing to work and share a full part of responsibility, the club will be one that Lions International will be proud of.

The dining room was resplendent with the Lion colors and insignia with Hallowe'en characters about the walls and bowls of fall flowers centering the table. Decorations were under the direction of Mrs. Hermann Brauer assisted by other Lions.

Dr. Charles O. Van Gorder, president of the Andrews Club, presided. Lion C. R. Freed of Murphy led group singing, followed by the invocation by the Rev. E. L. Kirk.

From the beginning of the meal, Tall Twisters Bob Bault and Joe Ray of Murphy and Burke Wood of Andrews were busy collecting fines for such offenses as being too large, speaking to one's wife, wearing a bow tie, and failing to wear the Lion pin. Toastmaster for the evening was J. Ward Long of Franklin.

Lion Bueck of Murphy presented a trio of girls, Misses Glenda Ivie, Sally Morris and Rosalind Stalcup of Murphy, who entertained with several songs.

President of Lions Clubs of Sylva, Murphy, Robbinsville, Fontana, Bryson City, Franklin and Hayesville introduced members and guests and Dr. Van Gorder offered a welcome to a number of guests present.

District Governor Roy A. Taylor of Black Mountain presented the charter to Dr. Charles O. Van Gorder, and Mike Brown of Robbinsville zone chairman, presented the gavel and bell to the new club.

Lion Freed led the group in singing "America", and the Rev. E. L. Kirk gave the benediction.

The Andrews club was sponsored by the Robbinsville club. It will meet the second and fourth Thursday evening of each month at Junaluska Terrace Hotel.

Officer Requests All Children To Be Immunized

Dr. J. W. R. Norton, state Health Officer, has announced that North Carolina leads the nation in diphtheria in the proportion of cases per 100,000 population.

Norton's report reveals that the case rate in North Carolina was 12.4 per 100,000 as against a national rate of 3.9 per 100,000.

In 1950 there were 500 diphtheria cases in North Carolina, with 27 deaths, even though state law requires that every child be immunized.

Dr. Norton said, "These figures should shock our people into action."

While there were 60 whooping cough deaths in 1950, there were 23 polio deaths. Yet a greater emphasis is placed on polio. Children can be immunized against whooping cough, though no such prevention has been found for polio.

"Cherokee County citizens should cooperate with their health department in complying with the law and having their children immunized against diphtheria and whooping cough," says Dr. Joseph E. Donlan, health officer.
