Miss Waldroup Loyal E. Jones Berea Students

Miss Elizabeth Waldroup of Andrews and Loyal E. Jones of Brass-town are among the 1449 students enrolled in Berea College, Berea, Ky., for the fall term. They are registered in the college department.

Berea College is a non-sectarian, co-educational institution that maintains three schools—a college department, a high school unit, and a nurses' training school. The college was established in 1855 primarily for the purpose of serving worthy youth from the mountain areas of eight Southern states. More than ninety per cent of the enrollment comes from this designated territory.

A labor schedule is provided for all students. This enables them to work all or a part of their school expenses. Both the college and high school are accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Dr. F. S. Hutchins is president of the college.
