Board Raises Cost On Water, Sewer Taps

Philharmonic To Give Free Youth Concert

The Chattanooga Philharmonic will give a youth concert in Chattanooga Memorial Auditorium at 2 p. m. Saturday, January 26. All teachers and students are invited to the admission-free program.

Accommodations for large groups may be arranged through Miss Colleen Cosgrove, manager of the Chattanooga Philharmonic, 928 James Building, Chattanooga, Tenn. Reservations are not necessary.

The concert is being sponsored by Miller Brothers Company, who are sponsoring a contest in connection with the concert. All students are invited to write and enter a short theme entitled "Why I Like the Youth Concert". Entries are to be mailed not later than January 19. Three winning papers will be chosen and awards made at the concert.

Rules are: neatness, legibility and originality. All papers must be limited to one page, one side only. Entries must be mailed to Youth Concert Contest, Miller Bros. Company, Advertising Department, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Girls Have Special Study

The young girls of the Andrews Free Methodist Church have their Junior Missionary Society at the church each Tuesday after school at 3 p. m. The first part of the meeting is spent studying the Bible and memorizing scripture verses, then missions and songs. Now they are studying the events of Easter and suitable verses.

The latter part of the hour the children are taught to sew, and make useful things for their mothers. Their teacher is Miss C. B. Lane, who has spent most of her life teaching in public schools and raising children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane are from the state of Washington.

Landowners Must Pay Own Costs

Claude Watson, Andrews town clerk, has announced that the town Board of Aldermen, at a recent meeting, passed an Ordinance to raise charges for water taps to $35 and for sewer to $25. The Ordinance states that when water or sewer connections are relocated, the owner of the property must pay to the town the cost of materials and labor involved.

Landowners will be charged for the care and protection of water lines and meters upon their property and must pay for damages to them unless they can produce evidence showing that damage was caused by an act of God, or can prove the culprit.

Mr. Watson further stated that, "Any person willfully tampering with any part of the town water system, or cutting water on or off at the meter or elsewhere, shall be liable to a fine of $25 or ten days in jail or both."

At the meeting the collection of delinquent water rental was discussed and pursuant to the discussion, the clerk was instructed to disconnect water if rental is not paid on or before the 10th of the month, and not to reconnect water until a fee for this service and the rental is paid.

Attorney Hobart McKeever sat in at the board meeting as advisor.

Church To Have Singing Concert

There will be a singing concert at Pisgah Baptist Church, Andrews, on Saturday at 7 p. m. until 12 p. m. This church is located on Pisgah Road three miles from Andrews.

The singing concert will consist of the following quartets: A quartet of Canton, the Cherokee Indian quartet, Peachtree quartet, the Freeman Sisters of Wesser Creek and other quartets. Everyone is welcome.

Fire Destroys Baptist Church

The Mountain View Baptist Church, located six miles east of Andrews on U. S. Highway 19, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The origin of the fire was undetermined.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ferguson of Peachtree visited J. M. McGuire Sunday afternoon.

The cost of complete fire coverage on private homes is surprisingly low—and vitally important! Call us now and your policy will be in effect within minutes. Papers will be forwarded in the mail.
