

Andrews Flyers Sponsor Air Show

With an array of the best talent yet to appear at the local airport, the International Air Show will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Andrews-Murphy Airpark.

Sponsored by the Andrews Flyers Club, the show will feature top-notch aerial acrobatics by two of the nation's outstanding performers, a midget airplane race, the first to be held here, and the announcing of Haskell Deaton of Charlotte.

Participants in the seven acts of precision air work will include winners in the recent Chattanooga-Nashville, Tenn., air races. The Louisville the past two week-ends.

Don Edwards of Miami, Fla., reported to be the only active exhibitionist air jumper with a Civil Aeronautics Authority license to perform exhibition jumps, will also take part in the show, opening with a flag jump.

Ben Huntley of Charlotte and Frank M. "Buddy" Rogers of Florence, S. C., will high-light the aerobatics events with precision maneuvers in their specially-built stunting planes. Huntley, the International High Speed Aerobatics champion, will fly his 450 h. p. Wasp Pitts, and Rogers, a trophy winner in the Miami air show this year, will fly a 450 a. p. Boing Special.

Others participating in the event will include Luther Johnson of Greenville, S. C., Garland Pack of Nashville, Tenn., and Haskell Deaton of Charlotte.

Richard Parker and Bob Heaton are co-chairmen for the event. A special display of the midget planes will be held just prior to the airshow. Parking facilities for the public will be available along the east end of the runway.

Rosalind Stalcup Breaks Left Arm

Miss Rosalind Stalcup, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. Roy Stalcup of Murphy, broke her left arm at the elbow when skating Monday evening at the rink on Murphy Fairgrounds.

She was taken to Murphy General Hospital where her arm was x-rayed and set. Miss Stalcup was then taken home. She says her arm is healing nicely.

SINGING

The regular first Sunday singing at the old Martins Creek Church will be held July 6 at 2 p. m., announces Sunday School Superintendent Bryan Chastain.

John Lofton Mason Taken By Death

John Lofton Mason, 49, Murphy attorney, died in an Atlanta, Ga., hospital at 4:50 p. m. Saturday following a year's illness.

He was the brother of the late L. L. Mason, a former Cherokee County sheriff, and uncle of L. L. Mason, Jr., mayor of Murphy.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in Maggie's Chapel Methodist Church at Brasstown, where he was a member. Officiating were the Rev. C. A. Smith, the Rev. Alonzo Davis, the Rev. Ham Coffey, and the Rev. R. Delbert Byrum.

Burial was in the church cemetery. Ivie Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

He was a native of Cherokee County, son of Mrs. Omie Hampton Mason and the late John Richard Mason, members of prominent Cherokee County families.

Mason was graduated from Young Harris High School, Young Harris, Ga., in 1925, then went to Washington, D. C., where he served as supervisor for a training school for boys. He received a law degree from National University Law School and served in Washington for 20 years with the police department.

He joined the North Carolina Bar Association in 1934; came to Murphy in 1946 and opened a law office the following year, practicing till his health failed.

Mercury Reaches 95 On Three Days

During the past two days Murphy and vicinity has received some relief from the unusual heat which has prevailed in this area for the past two weeks. The maximum temperature reading Tuesday was 84. Area Engineer John Manthey of the Hydraulic Division of TVA said Wednesday would be fairly cool.

The mercury reached 95 three days since Friday. Readings since Thursday are as follows: Thursday 94, Friday 95, Saturday 95, Sunday 98, Monday 95 and Tuesday 84.

There was a trace of rain Saturday.

Negro Killed When Crane Dives Into Valley River

James Moore 37-year-old Negro, was killed at 4 p. m. Thursday when the crane he was driving broke away from the body of the truck and plunged into Valley River on Fairview Road about five miles south of Andrews. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Rodda-Van Gorder Hospital in Andrews.

Moore was employed by the Commercial Construction Company of Houston, Tex.

Patrolman L. J. Lance, who investigated the accident, said cause of death was a skull fracture and possible drowning. The body was examined by Dr. Harry Miller, County Coroner.

Lance said the break, gear and steering controls were four or five feet behind the cab on the body of the truck, and the crane was being operated from there at the time of the accident. Investigation showed the steering had come loose. Several parts were found about 150 feet behind the truck.

Lee Hobson, Negro, was on the crane but was able to jump to safety.

Revival Services

The Rev. E. L. Kirk has announced that he will conduct a series of revival services at the Oak Forest Methodist Church on the Hayesville circuit, beginning July 6 and continuing through the week.

A MOTORIST'S PRAYER

JULY 4, 1952

Our Heavenly Father, we ask this day a particular blessing as we take the wheel of our car. Grant us safe passage through the perils of travel; shelter those who accompany us and protect us from harm by Thy mercy; steady our hands and quicken our eye that we may never take another's life; guide us to our destination safely, confident in the knowledge that Thy blessings go with us through darkness and light... sunshine and shower... for ever and ever. Amen

N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles

Larry Power To Be Ordained

Larry Power, summer worker at Andrews First Baptist Church, will be ordained Sunday, July 6, at 3 p. m. in the church sanctuary. Participating in the services will be the Rev. Joseph Miller, pastor of First Baptist Church, Bryson City, who will preach the ordination sermon.

The Rev. J. Alton Morris, pastor of Murphy First Baptist Church, will give the charge, while the Rev. A. B. Lovell of Marble Springs Baptist Church will read the scriptures.

John Dean, assistant pastor of Bryson City First Baptist Church, will sing. The Bible will be presented by the Rev. J. A. Richardson, Jr., pastor of Andrews First Baptist Church, while the Rev. A. G. Brooks, Western North Carolina

Associational Missionary, will offer the ordination prayer. All Baptist ministers and deacons of the area are invited to be present.

Power of Greenville, S. C., but a North Carolinian by conviction, was graduated from Mars Hill College with the class of '52, and plans to pursue his education at Furman University this fall.

Bank To Close

Frank Forsyth, Citizens Bank and Trust Co. vice-president, announces that the bank will be closed July 4 and 5.

Mrs. Margie Witherspoon will leave today (Thursday) for Chicago to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown.

Andrews To Hold Bang Up Fourth

A real Bang-up Fourth of July Celebration is to be held in Andrews on Friday.

Chairman Bill Whitaker says that he can promise the people of Cherokee County and surrounding areas the biggest and best celebration ever.

Starting off in high gear at 9:30 a. m. will be the Kiddie Parade and the Big Parade. Mr. Whitaker says, "In a Kiddie Parade, anything can happen, and usually does." Some twenty or thirty entries are expected, excluding dogs and horses.

The Big Parade will feature many more entries than last year and with a year's experience to help them, the makers of the floats should turn out a really showy parade, says Mr. Whitaker.

At 10:30 a. m. the Andrews Baseball club will take on their old rival, Isabella, Tenn. The Andrews team has been turning in a creditable performance and baseball fans should find both the morning and afternoon games to their liking. The afternoon half of the double-header will be played at 3:30.

At 1:30 p. m. a beauty contest and swimming meet will be held at the Andrews-Murphy Airpark. The popularity of this event was evidenced last year, when even standing room was crowded.

Following the afternoon ball game there will be a break until 3:30 p. m. when a gigantic fireworks display will be shown at the airpark. Thousands of cars jammed the parking areas last year.

Following the fireworks display there will be dancing at the airpark pavilion for those who are hardy enough to resist going home and to bed after a day packed full of fun and amusement, says Mr. Whitaker.

Beauty Contest To Be At Airpark

A Fourth of July event that is creating considerable interest in Andrews and Murphy is the annual Beauty Contest to be held at the Andrews-Murphy Airpark Pool.

Entrants from Murphy have been included this year to increase the number of participants and to create more than local interest.

Approximately 25 sponsors from business establishments in both towns have announced their intentions of entering contestants.

From this field of entrants "Miss Smoky Mountain" will be picked by three impartial judges and awarded a defense bond. Second and third-place winners will be awarded substantial prizes in jewelry.

Participants from Murphy in these water events will include Gene Bates, Tommy Gentry, Irvin Green, Jim Ed Hughes, Gordon Darnell, and Johnny Graham.

Warren Deyermond will act as master of ceremonies for the program at the Airpark Pool, assisted by Miss Hildred Heaton, beauty contest chairman.

Further entries in the beauty contest are welcome, and can be made by contacting Miss Heaton in Andrews or Mrs. Frank Forsyth in Murphy.

Tourists Flocking Here For Fourth And Vacations

"No Vacancy" is a familiar sign to tourists and motorists driving by the tourist courts in Murphy and vicinity after dark for the past several days. Despite the fact that there are three new tourist courts here and a number of additions to old courts, there have not been enough rooms therein for tourists preferring this service.

Also hotels, tourist homes, and lodges have been filled to capacity, and many tourists are being accommodated in private homes. Eating establishments have been overflowing.

Tourists are coming in great numbers to the mountains to enjoy the beautiful scenery, fishing, boating, dramas, and cool breezes for the Fourth of July and also their vacations.

Attend Civitan International

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Williams attended the 32nd annual convention of Civitan International which opened at 8:30 p. m. Sunday, June 22, at Hotel Statler, Detroit, Mich.

The theme of the convention was for building good citizenship. Emphasis was placed on the training and encouragement of the Youth program in all phases of the Civitan Clubs from over the States and Canada, this being an international convention.

The next convention has been scheduled for Los Angeles, Calif. Arrangements were made at the convention by Mr. Williams for the North Carolina District Governor, Robert D. Holleman to visit the Murphy club at its next meeting, July 7.

Byrum Discusses "Entanglements"

"Foreign Entanglements" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. R. Delbert Byrum, pastor of Murphy First Methodist Church, at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Sunday School begins at 9:45 a. m. and the Youth Meeting at 6:30 p. m.

The pastor will speak on "The Peril of Being a Christian" at the 8 p. m. service.

James Chadwick will speak at the Midweek Prayer Hour on Wednesday, July 9, at 8 p. m. His message will be a continuation of the study on "Parables of the Bible".

Martin Attends Training Corps

Devero Martin, a student at North Carolina State College, is attending the Quartermaster Reserve Officers' Training Corps Summer Camp at Fort Lee, Va.

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps Camp consists of six weeks of field training including bivouacs, night problems, marches, weapons firing and demonstration of Quartermaster equipment and techniques. The purpose of this field work is to demonstrate by actual application the theory of Quartermaster supply and service which the cadet has studied in the classroom.

Devero Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin of Unaka.

West Liberty Association To Meet Monday

West Liberty Association pastors and leaders will meet at Ranger Baptist Church Monday, July 7, at 9 p. m. The Rev. Floyd B. Clark says, "This will be an important meeting. Please see that your church is represented." The Rev. Fred Stiles, moderator, will bring the message.

Eighteen Vacation Bible Schools were held in West Liberty Association during the past six weeks. Mrs. Calvin Thompson and Miss Dollie Martin assisted the association worker, Mr. Clark. "As a whole, the attendance has improved over last year's schools," says Mr. Clark.

Shuford And Two Parkers Nominated

Morris Announces Baptist Services

The Rev. J. Alton Morris, pastor of Murphy First Baptist Church, announces that his sermon topic Sunday at 11 a. m. will be "Knowing God Better". The choir will give special music at the morning service.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a. m. and Training Union at 7 p. m.

"God Guides A Girl" will be the topic of the pastor's evening message at 7:55.

The B. W. C. will meet with Mrs. Rae Moore Monday at 8 p. m. The Ruth Swann Circle will meet with Mrs. L. W. Shields Tuesday at 8 p. m. A Fellowship Supper will be held at 7 p. m. Wednesday, followed by the Church Night of Missions. All W. M. U. organizations and the Brotherhood will meet.

George A. Shuford of Asheville on Saturday's Democratic primary runoff for 12 District Congressman, received a total of 19,074 votes from all counties except Haywood compiled. Frank M. Parker, second, where official totals are not on hand in the first primary, received 14,035 votes. In Cherokee County Shuford was given 1,407 votes and Parker 602.

Dr. J. H. Crawford, candidate for the state senate from the 33rd Senatorial District, received 3,763 votes, and R. B. Morphew, 2,386. Cherokee County gave Dr. Crawford 1,469, and Morphew 550.

In the race for associate justice of Supreme Court Judge R. Hunt Parker has a slight lead over Judge William H. Bobbitt. Official election returns have been turned in from 55 counties, with 45 counties remaining to report. Unofficial returns for Parker gave him 98,856 votes to 96,440 for Bobbitt, a margin of 2,416 votes. In Cherokee County the voting was as follows: for short term, Bobbitt 1,185, Parker 355; regular term, Bobbitt 1,208, Parker 368.

Red Cross Blood Goal Is 100 Pints

Farm, Community Group To Meet

A meeting of the Martins Creek Farm and Home Community Development project will meet at the school Wednesday, July 9, at 8 p. m. Luther Martin, chairman, says he hopes at least 60 farm families will be present.

All interested persons living in Bellview, Martins Creek, Midway and Brasstown communities are invited. G. H. Farley, County Agent, and Miss Edna Bishop, Home Demonstration Agent, will be present.

J. L. Savage, County Blood Program Chairman for the American Red Cross, says he expects citizens from Murphy and vicinity to donate at least 100 pints of blood when the Bloodmobile is in Murphy July 11.

The unit will be in the basement of Murphy First Baptist Church from 12-6:30 p. m.

Mr. Savage urges all who can come and save a life, pointing out that some of the blood will be used for servicemen and some for civilians.

Murphy Regal, Junior Woman's, Lions and Civitan Clubs will recruit donors.

Baseball Games Planned For 4th

Murphy Baseball Club will open the season on July 4 with two games on the Murphy field. The locals will play Piedmont Mills of Atlanta in a game at 2 p. m. and another at 8 p. m. according to announcements by Managers Ed Townsend and Jack Crawford.

The first ball will be tossed by C. R. Freed.

On the mound will be Jim Ed Hughes and Shag Hunt. Behind the mound will be Dugger Cole and Ray Hefner. Other players will be: Crawford, Rogers, Kirkland, Posey, Beaver, Hemphill, Dockery, Keenum and Swan.

Brown Discusses "Mighty Stream"

The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of Murphy Presbyterian Church, will preach on "The Mighty Stream" at 11 a. m. Sunday. At the 7:30 p. m. service he will preach on "The Minister and The Family".

Sunday School will begin at 10 a. m. and Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p. m. "What Presbyterians Believe" will be discussed at a meeting at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Start Swimming Class Monday

A class in advanced swimming, under the direction of Jim Ed Hughes and Irvin Greene, will start Monday, July 7. This will be the regular American Red Cross course. Classes will be given on Monday morning, Wednesday afternoon and Friday morning of each week, running through the month of July. All those who are interested, please contact Jim Ed Hughes or Irvin Greene.

County 4-H'ers Leave For Camp

Twenty-seven boys and girls left Monday morning for Camp Schaub, Waynesville, accompanied by assistant agents Frances Puett and M. B. Wright.

The following boys and girls will be at camp for a week: Janice Crisp, Jo Ann Bradley, Clara Hughes, Madge Barton, Wilma Graham, Helen Graham, Jo Ann Simonds, Imogene Voyles, James Kilpatrick, Peter Gernert, Gene Allen Palmer, Eddie Spivia, Jerry Cole, Kent Laughter, Herbert Rice, Gene Stewart, Sonny Robinson, T. J. Logan, Bob Slagle, Jerry Pullium, Rex Suddorth, Russell Johnson, Gerald Crisp, Carroll Ledford, Don Peacock and Jack Coleman.

Red Cross Plans Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of American Red Cross will be held at Murphy Carnegie Library on Wednesday, July 9, at 2 a. m. announcements the chairman, Miss Addie Mae Cooke. Vacancies on the board of directors will be elected and new officers will then be elected by the board. Miss Cooke, who has been chairman for several years, has resigned, effective at this meeting.

The nominating committee is composed of J. L. Savage, Mrs. E. G. Elkins and Mrs. W. A. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Case in company with Mr. Case's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith of Marion, left Wednesday by motor for California.