

T. B. X-Ray Survey Promotion Underway

Dr. J. E. Donlan, District Health Officer, announces the arrival of Flay W. Sellers, Health Educator, with the North Carolina State Board of Health, to begin promotional and educational work for the mass x-ray survey.

He said that Sellers would remain in the Cherokee-Clay-Granham Health District until August 15, working with all civic organizations, churches, extension agencies, and other groups, to encourage everyone to get their free chest x-ray. The health officer requests the utmost cooperation of every individual and group to make this a successful program for the district.

Dr. Dolan disclosed that the three mobile units will begin work on August 5 and continue until September 3 in this district. The three mobile units arrived last Monday and will be parked near the Murphy High School while the x-ray technicians enjoy a short vacation.

Schedules giving the locations of stops in the Health District will be made available soon to every family and will appear in the newspapers. Further information concerning the x-ray survey will appear in this paper next week. "So, continue to watch for the time and place that you can get your free chest x-ray," says Dr. Donlan.

Street Paving Project Starts About August 1

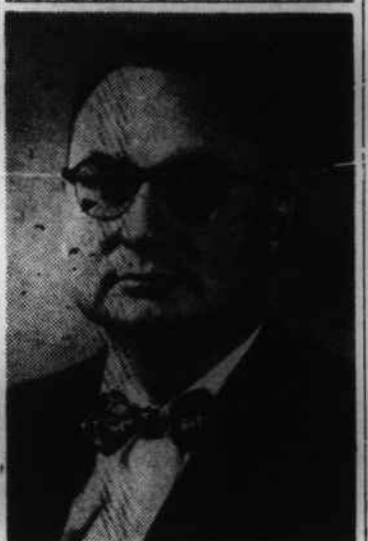

Property owners who desire to have the streets by their property paved are asked to get in touch with the Town of Murphy. The street paving company will be here with the paving equipment around August 1 to complete some work that is already contracted and what is signed before that time.

Among the streets to be surfaced are: Duke, Springdale, Spruce and an extension of Cherry.

Town officials state that possibly it will be three or four years before another paving project is undertaken, so they are anxious to have as many streets included at this time as possible.

Hayes Leatherwood is preparing the contracts for the work.

An engineer is now surveying the streets that are to be included.

A. D. Peacock Buys Interest In Funeral Homes

A. D. Peacock, local mortician, insurance agent, florist and nurseryman, announces that he has purchased an interest in the Lewis Funeral Homes in Chadbourne and Bladenboro. He will assume the management of the Chadbourne funeral establishment by August 1.

Mr. Peacock came to Murphy two years ago to be an embalmer at Townsend Funeral Home. He later went into the insurance business. He owns and operates the Nolla Nursery on Copperhill Road, while his wife owns and operates a florist place, The Blossom Shop.

Mrs. Peacock says she and the children, Don and Linda, will join her husband in Chadbourne as soon as she sells the florist shop. Wednesday the Peacocks moved their florist business from the shop on Valley River Avenue to a new building on Peachtree Street.

When they move to Chadbourne the Peacocks will reside in the apartment in the rear of the undertaking establishment.

Mr. Peacock is a veteran mortician. He first went to Chadbourne in 1940 when he opened and operated the Hawes-Peacock Funeral Home. A year later he bought out the Hawes interest and became the sole owner of the firm. In 1948 he sold the business to Ed Lewis, from whom he bought back an interest, and moved to Eastman, Ga., afterwards coming to Murphy.

Since coming to Murphy Mr. Peacock was instrumental in organizing the Civitan Club. While in Chadbourne he was a charter member and organizer of the Chadbourne Civitan Club and the Columbus County Shrine Club and was the first secretary-treasurer of the latter. He is a 32nd Degree Mason, a Shriner and a Past Master of the Chadbourne Masonic Lodge.

He organized and developed the Greenlawn Memorial Cemetery in Chadbourne and was responsible for the beginning of the Chadbourne Savings and Loan Association, serving as manager and secretary-treasurer of the Association until he left in 1948. He served as secretary-treasurer of the Chadbourne Chamber of Commerce and was a member of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Funeral Directors Association.

County Fair To Be September 8-13

Brief Cool Spell Followed By Heat

Temperatures in Cherokee County have returned to the low nineties after several days of cool weather. The coolest day was July 9 with a maximum reading of 79 degrees. The lowest reading during the past week was last Thursday morning when the mercury fell to 45 degrees. In July 1951 the lowest reading was 52 and in July 1950 the lowest was 49.

Maximum readings since last Thursday are: Thursday 82, Friday 87, Saturday 88, Sunday 91, Monday 90, Tuesday 91. At noon Wednesday the maximum reading was 90 degrees.

The total rainfall for July is .89 inches.

The Cherokee County Fair will be held in Murphy the week of September 8-13. This is much earlier than last year, and G. H. Farley, county agent, urges farmers and farm women to start working on their exhibits now.

The Nantahala Grade Dairy Show will be held in connection with the fair again this year. "This event means a lot to the dairy industry of this and surrounding counties. Let's make it the best show that we have had to date," says Mr. Farley.

An attraction for dog lovers has been added to the fair calendar this year. Friday evening of fair week there will be a dog show. An announcement concerning this show will be made later.

It is hoped that the fair catalogs will be ready for distribution by August 10," says Mr. Farley.
