IN MEMORIAM

In memory of mother, Erie Clonts, who passed away April 9, 1944.

Why God, did you take her? To us she was so dear. We know there was a reason. Because she was needed so bad here.

To us she was our sunshine. But now the sky is gray. To others she was a friend. Helping everyone along the way. We know that she is resting. Out of her sickness here below. Enjoying the beauty of heaven. In the city made of purest gold. Up there with sisters and brothers. How happy they must be! No trials sickness or death. She will never more see. In our sweet memories she will remain from year to year. In everything we do, she will always be near.

We never say Goodbye. For that makes us all too sad. So we will just say, so long. And God bless you. To the best pal we ever had.
