

Ledford To Conduct Revival In Clay

The Rev. Blaine Ledford of Ellijay, Ga. will conduct a series of revival services in the court house in Hayesville, beginning Monday night, June 8. Mr. Ledford is a former pastor of the Little Brasstown Baptist Church.

Richard Powers of Hayesville, who is known throughout the mountain region of Western North Carolina and North Georgia as a great song leader, will lead the singing. Everyone is invited and those who can sing are invited to come and join in the song services.

Pastor's Assistant

J. L. Bell of Hamlet will begin his work as assistant to the pastor of the First Baptist Church Andrews, June 7 through the summer months. J. L. is a graduate of Mars Hill College. Rev. John C. Corbitt is pastor of the church.

Singing, Revival Set At Shady Grove

An all day singing will be held at Shady Grove Baptist Church June 7 with dinner on the grounds. Everyone is invited to come and bring a picnic basket.

Rev. Marcus Drake of near Atlanta will preach at the 11 a. m. hour and the evening service. Rev. Dranke will also hold a two weeks meeting in the absence of Rev. Freed Townsend and the Rev. W. E. Ward who will not be there because of illness.

Attend OES State Meeting June 7-12

Four Murphy women will be in Durham next week to attend the Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star of North Carolina meeting in Durham from June 7-12. The party includes Mrs. Howard Moody, Mrs. Ann Phillips, Mrs. E. Browning, and Mrs. Clyde Sneed. Mrs. T. W. Kindley of Bryson City will also accompany the group.

Morgan Be At Churches Sunday

DR. MORGAN

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan of Franklin, who recently received the honorary degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology from General Theological Seminary in New York, will conduct the services at the Chapel of the Holy Comforter in Andrews and the two Murphy Episcopal Churches Sunday, June 7.

The local Episcopal minister, the Rev. Rhett Y. Winters Jr., will conduct services in the churches of Dr. Morgan's area on that day. The services will be in Andrews at 9 a. m.; Church of the Messiah, 11 a. m.; and St. Barnabas, 8 p. m. Dr. Morgan has served 11 Episcopal missions in this area for the past 12 years and is now living in his home residents, Nona, outside of Franklin.

Morgan is active in Boy Scout and Girl Scout work and was awarded the Silver Beaver award, the highest honor given in Boy Scout leader work.

He still maintains 15 miles of the Appalachian trail.

WOOD TO PREACH
The Rev. U. J. Wood, returned Methodist minister in Andrews, will be guest speaker for the Sunday morning services, June 7 at Andrews Presbyterian Church. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Neville, is away for Army Reserve training.

BIBLE SCHOOL ENROLLMENT
An enrollment of 216 was reported on the third day of Vacation Bible School at the first Baptist Church here. The total enrollment last year was 225 and Miss Sarah Perry, educational director at the church, said she expects this year's enrollment to exceed that number. The faculty is composed of 33 members.

During his service to churches in this area, he was responsible for the establishing of new missions at Cherokee, Andrews and Murphy.

He started the Southern Rural Training Institute at Valle Crucis for training ministerial students in town and country work.

In recognition of his work the National Rural Workers Fellowship of the Episcopal Church listed him as one of three outstanding workers in the rural field in the nation.
