Woman Talk

By EMILY COSTELLO

I had barely realized that "Summer was a-cumin' in" until here it is half gone.

But there's been little lost motion in welcoming and entertaining summer guests hereabouts.

EMILY AND JERRY DAVIDSON, I'll just bet, are feeling just a little let-down about now, after son and daughter in law ANGELE and JERRY from Fort Worth, Texas, along with their two dark haired little daughters, have left after a perfectly lovely visit. (At least, I think they've left—Angele was saying they planned to get away Wednesday.)

Anyhow, they were gloriously entertained while here, with no parties being any more enjoyable than the two given by Mrs. D. herself the first of last week. Monday evening the Davidsons gave a bridge dinner party, and Tuesday another seven tables assembled for a card party.

Friday evening CLARA McCOMBS and EMILY SWORD began a series of card parties, not to end until this evening, when they entertain at Canasta.

Anyhow late Friday p. m. I frantically checked Culbertson out of the library and crammed for about 15 minutes on my rusty bridge. But a lot of good it did me. SIS DARNELL still won High.

At Friday's party ANGELE DAVIDSON was being honored, along with MARY SUE DUVALL and BETTY SUE DAVIDSON. Mary Sue and pharmacist-husband CLYDE are moving to Chattanooga, you know, as soon as they find a place to live.

And Betty Sue was here, with her father, W. E. DAVIDSON, visiting Clara as well as Miss Ella McCombs and Mrs. Ed Winchester. Clara, I believe, is a niece of W. E.

Now Don't make me try to remember everybody at the party—but I do remember the striking picture that JOYCE COLEMAN BRELAND (Mrs. Breese), made in the soft blue dress she wore.

Tuesday night Clara and Emily again entertained at bridge at the home of the former. I do have the guest list for that affair, but I must hurry on.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

A delightful little incident came to my attention last week. ELIZABETH K. BELL was remarking that her father and mother, REV. AND MRS. A. R. BELL, who were married Sunday, June 21 50 years ago, in the Presbyterian Church here, observed the golden day in an unusual way. The Bells have been living in Broadway for some years, but on the wedding anniversary Mr. Bell bought the Loren Davis home here, and is bringing his bride, the former Josie Cooper, back home to live.

Now, isn't that sweet? They will be established in their home here in late fall. By the way, they were married by the bridegroom's father, Rev. A. T. Bell, and the ceremony was held at the Presbyterian Church because the Methodist Church was under construction at the time. (The old Methodist Church, that is).

FROM WEDDING TRIP

And to switch from a golden Anniversary couple to a honeymoon couple, VELMA (Umphrres) and BUDDY BURCH have returned from their wedding trip and are making their home in the upstairs apartment of the CYRUS WHITE house.

HARSHAW HERE

It was nice to see JESSIE and ED HARSHAW a week or so ago.

at the Whitfields, where a small group had assembled for dinner and later charades. Jessie's niece and her husband were here at the time for a short visit before going on to Sea Island, Ga., for a stay.

YELLOW RATTLER

And to get off the party line for a while, MRS. GEORGE HAYES, from up at Peachtree stopped by and told us about a big yellow rattlesnake that her husband killed in a clear piece in their front yard last Thursday.

Mrs. H. noticed the chickens in the yard making a lot of fuss, and happened to see the snake coiled, ready to strike. Mr. H. killed it with a pole and in doing so knocked off the rattles. They found 8 rattles and a button, and thought there might have been more.

HOM MUCH CAN YOU BE SUED FOR?

Liability insurance is perhaps the most important of insurances, because there is almost no limit to the damages which can occur as a result of an automobile accident; or, if you are in business, as a result of injury to one of your employees or a member of the public.

When you buy liability insurance be sure too that you purchase adequate limits. For around Ten Dollars more on the year you can ordinarily get ten times the standard limits on bodily injury. If you are involved in an accident where someone is killed you can be sued for all that the deceased might have earned during his normal life expectancy, less only his personal expenses.
