The Konaheeta Club held its October Meeting, Thursday night, the 15th, in the Shell Dining Room at 6:45 p. m. The Education Committee, which consists of Mrs. Ruth C. Pullum, Chairman, Mrs. L. B. Nichols, Co-Chairman, Mrs. Zeb Conley, Mrs. H. H. Enloe, Miss Pauline Hicks, and Mrs. O. A. Reschke were in charge of the program for the evening. Miss Phyllis Snyder reviewed the book "Miracle in the Hills" by Dr. Mary Sloop. Miss Snyder made a very interesting review which was followed by an open discussion. A lovely gift was presented to her by the Committee. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. A. B. Chandler Jr., Mrs. S. J. Gernert, Mrs. Olen Stratton, Mrs. James Ferebee, Mrs. Margaret Anne Watry, Mrs. W. A. Reece and Mrs. James Baer.

BERKSHIRE PICNIC

The Berkshire Knitting Mills held an all day picnic, Saturday October 17th, at the Andrews-Murphy Air Park. All employees and their families were guests. Joe Mintz served as Master of Ceremonies directing games and conests which included basketball game softball game, horse shoe pitching, sack races, relays, tug-of-war, bubble gum blowing and peanut scramble. More than 100 prizes were awarded.

An electric corn popper was won by Buster Conley for the largest family present. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers received an electric percolator for being married the shortest length of time and an identical gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hub Bryson for being married the longest time. Mrs. Ruby Younce won the grand prize, a "Dormeyer French Fryer" for guessing the closest number of feathers on a rooster.

Between 200 and 300 people attended. Tables were crowded with all manners of tasty foods which failed to disappear after the third round of serving. It was a very successful picnic and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

MRS. BARTON FETED

Mrs. Ruth Roper and Mrs. Helen Axley were hostesses at a Stork Shower Tuesday Night honoring Mrs. Audrey Barton, at the home of Mrs. Axley. The traditional pink and blue baby colors were used for

ROTARY CLUB

The Andrews Rotary Club will have its regular meeting Thursday Oct. 22nd at 12:00 noon in the Shell Dining Room. Edwin Bristol will be in charge of the program and will present a film on Hawaii.

FIRST EDITION

The first edition of the Andrews School Paper, "Wildcat Scream" was published about two weeks ago and has created much excitement and interest among the students and faculty. This is definitely a Students paper and will include all types of school news.

The Journalism Club, which consists of thirty charter members will be a co-operative club between the faculty and students, all of which will be working for the interest and progress of the school paper. The next edition is planned for Friday, October 23rd.

The football team is still talking about what a wonderful time they had in Atlanta, Saturday, where they attended the Georgia Tech and Auburn Football Game. Transportation for this trip was furnished by members of the Lions Club.

If you should have the opportunity to visit the High School I am sure that the new improvements in the Science Class Room will be of interest to you. The room is furnished with new modern science equipment made of acid resistance materials. This will enable the instructors to teach more thoroughly thru demonstrations and experiments the science subjects.

The ninth grade, which has home room classes under Miss Ruth Hamilton, Miss Meredith Whitaker and Mr. Joe McKeldry are sponsoring the annual Curtiss Magazine Sale. This is the first progress toward raising money for their senior trip of 1957.

LIONS LADIES NIGHT

The Lions Club will have "LADIES NIGHT" Wednesday, October 28th at the Shell Dining Room. The regular meeting for Thursday Night has been postponed due to the Harvest Sale to be held at the High School.

We extend our best wishes to BURT WOOD for a speedy recovery who underwent an appendectomy at the local hospital Sunday. Don't worry Burt, because Betty Sue is doing a fine job in your place behind the meat counter.

EDGAR AND EVA WOOD flew to Chapel Hill Saturday to see the Carolina-Maryland Football game and they say the view of the mountains was really pretty with all the autumn colors. Also they could see all the traffic on the highway headed for the game and were glad they didn't have to be in the traffic jam.

The Leatherwood Mountain Property has been sold to THOMAS W. PERRIN of Augusta, Ga. His plans are incomplete as to his use of the property.

The Women of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. L. B. Nichols, Monday Night, October 26th at her home.

HENRY, DOES OUR AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE COVER EVERYTHING?

Just what does "everything" mean as applied to automobile insurance? Here are a few of the things it should include: protection against loss or damage by fire, theft, collision, windstorm, hail, flood, cost of emergency towing service and the liability imposed upon you by law for injuries to other persons or their property.

If you are in doubt as to whether your present automobile insurance is up to date, get in touch with this agency at once. We can give you expert advice on the subject.
