What Is Our Most Important Asset?

IS IT:

- our bank building which protects your funds so efficiently?
- our cash reserves which enable us to pay you your money the moment it is needed?
- our deposits which increase steadily year after year? Surely these things are important.

Our finest asset was born the day this bank opened for business and has grown with the years. It is your good will that has given us the incentive for constant improvement, your confidence . . . hope in the future.
