TRADE AT HOME: IT PAYS

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA.

VOLUME 63-NUMBER 32

Crawford Announces Candidacy For Office

M. G. Crawford, Cherokee Co-> unty sheriff, this week announced his gandidacy for county sheriff New Elections and has filed with the County Board of Elections. He will enter Board Nominees the Democratic primary May 29.

Crawford was appointed by the county commissioners March 4, Are Announced 1953 to fill out the unexpired term of his uncle the late Frank G. Crawford. Frank Crawford was killed March 3 while serving a State Board this week after they warrant in the Hanging Dog Community.

Sheriff Crawford, 34 years old, is the son of George Crawford, his position at Oak Ridge, Tenn. accept the appointment last to year.

He served in the Navy for three years during World War II. He was a school teacher before going to Oak Ridge.

Crawford is married and has one son, Stephen, T.

H. Bueck Loses Father Wed.

School Supt. H. Bueck died yesterday morning at his home near Annual Dinner Fri. Lawrenceville, Va. He was 22 years old.

10 years.

Survivors include the widow, Fannie Hall Bueck of the home; two sons, Robert H. of Norfolk Va. and H. Bueck of Murphy; and four grandchildren. Funeral arrangements were in-ties. Thad Bryson, Jr., of Bryson

lley, was born in Webster Feb.

local schools of Webster and Way-

City, is the present solicitor,

North Carolina.

complete yesterday.

Democrat and Republican nom inations for the Cherokee County day Board of Elections were sent to the were announced by the parties' executive committees.

Democratic nominees, of which Cherokee County. two will be approved, are Carl W. Murphy policeman. He resigned (Pete) Stalcup and Noland Wells of Murphy and L. L. Love of Andrews according to James Bryson, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. R. A. Dewar and D. M. Reese of Andrews, and O. L. Anderson of Murphy have been nominated by Miss Axley Gets the Republican Executive Committee of the county, John O'Dell, Republican chairman said.

The new board will be approved BAFromWeslevan by the latter part of March, it was said.

Howard Bueck, father of Murphy Legion And Auxiliary,

The Joe Miller Elkins Post, No. 96, American Legion, and the Mr. Bueck, a retired Southern Legion Auxiliary will hold their Railroad machinist, had lived on annual Dutch Dinner at the Regal his farm in Virginia for the past, Hotel, Friday, Feb. 19, at 7. P. M. The Rev. Asmond L. Maxwell will speak on Americanism after which two short films will be shown A social hour will follow when bridge and canasta will be played.

All members of both organizations are urged to attend.

Door Prizes Offered At Farmers Meet Next Week

Murphy businessmen are lending later date-will be included in the talked in the afternoor their support to the agricultural three day discussions led by some meetings to be held at the court- 50 State College extension special-; will be tobacco, followed at 11 a. house Tuesday, Wednesday and ists.

Thursday, Feb. 23, 24 and 25, Coun The sessions begin at 9 a.m. afternoon Wednesday animal hus-ty Agent G. H. Farley said here to-and adjourn at 4 p.m. with an bandry will be the topic at 1 p.m., Farley said he attributes the Mr. Farley stated the "farmer is m. an dforage crop diseases at 3:30 businessmen's interest to their now feeling a squeeze" and he ad- p. m. realization of agriculture as one vises all county farmers to attend

Businessmen are offering door farming in which he is engaged. prizes daily to persons attending the sessions. The prizes will in-cludes a discussion of the outlook and small fruit production, dis-cludes a discussion of the outlook ing mash, baby chicks and others, for farmers; fertilizer, economics ease and insect control, fruit and All phases of farm life-except of fertilizer, and weed control. vegetable marketing and irrigation dairying, which will be held at a Agrictultural engineering will be of gardens and vegetables.

with the

these clubs.

Arts.

m. by farm management. In the hour lunch period allowed. followed by forage crops at 2:30 p.

of the main sources of income in all of the sessions or at least the ones pertaining to the phases of Tuesdays morning schedule in- cial vegetable production, garden

Thursday morning poultry will be discussed at 9 a. m.; poultry marketing at 11 a. m.; and a 1 p. m. horticulture, including commer-

THURSDAY, FEB. 18, 1954

S. M. Benton Succumbs Fri.

S. M. Benton, 64, of Cornelia Ga. died Friday, Feb. 12 in Duke University Hospital.

Wednesday mornings first topic

He was born in Hall County, Ga. Miss Mary Frances Axley, daugh and was married to Miss Mae Savter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Axley, was recently graduated from age in 1912.

He was a member of the Corne Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga, lia Methodist Church where he degree of Bachelor of served as secretary-treasurer of the Sunday School for 18 years. Miss Axley, a major in art, plans He was a charter member of the to teach art. In college she was a Cornelia Kiwanis Club, and the member of the Art Club and Macon Art Association, and her work Cornelia Masonic Lodge of which he served as Worshipful Master was often displayed in exhibits by for two years, and as secretarytreasurer for 27 years. He was student government and was a secretary-treasurer of the school

Scribe, highest literary honor giv-He was a retired Southern Rail way agent having been employed by the Company for 45 years, and was a member of the O. R. T. C. by's art works-largely pastels, Funeral services were held at charcoals and water colors-are on 3 p. m. Sunday in the Cornelia Methodist Church. The Rev. C. C.

Cliett, pastor officiated, assisted by the Rev. John Ellis. Burial was in school and was founded in 1836. It, Toccoa Level Grove Cemetery, with Masonic rites at the grave, by the Cornelia Masonic Lodge.

Pallbearers were Olin McNeely, Ben Crow, Bill Hunnicutt, Don Hughes Pope Ellard, Bill Hogsed, Cliff Kimsey and Calvin Stovall. Honorary pallbearers were em

Surviving are the widow: sons, William J, and C. R. Benton Miss Adams, a first year student, of Louisbury, Elby G. of Warrenis taking the general business and ton, Walter G. and Tom S. of Tarsecretarial science course. She is boro, and C. Jack Benton of At-

Also one sister, Mrs. C.

Federal Tax Rep. Be Here Next Week A representative of the Federal

Moore Files For N.C. Senate

H. M. MOORE

H. M. Moore. Democrat of Hayesville, was the first candidate to file with the Clay County Board of Elections recently as a candidate for State Senator from the 35rd Senatorial Dis-

Moore served on the Clay

County Board of Commissioners

1930-34 and 1938-46. He is currently representative of Clay in the N. C. General Assembly.

and also serve two previous terms, 1947 and 1951.

trict.

Internal Revenue Service will be at Murphy in the office of the Register of Deeds in the courthouse Feb. 24 and 25 to give advice or assistance to citizens in preparing their Federal Income Tax Returns. There is no charge for this service.

KEEP YOUR

MONEY IN

YOUR COMMUNITY

EIGH' PAGES THIS WEEK

Most taxpayers receive blanks by mail and are requested to save and use these blanks, extra blanks will be available to those who have not received them.

Taxpayers whose income is from wages and salaries must attach their original Form W-2. With holding Statement, to their Income Tax Return.

Individuals in business for themselves who have at least $400.00 net earnings are required to file a return and pay self employment tax, Social Security, even though no Income tax is due.

Self employed persons should keep complete records of all receipts, purchases and inventories as well as all expenses of the business and bring such records with them when asking assistance with their returns.

Rev. Morris Loses Brother Tuesday

Ervin D. Morris, brother of the Rev. J. Alton Morris of Murphy, died Tuesday morning in Flordia after an extended illness.

Rev. and Mrs. Morris left Murphy today to attend the funeral in Hartwell, Ga., where the body will be interred.

Jim Ed Hughes Heads Red Cross Drive

The Cherokee County Chapter ber of the firm of J. M. Hughes of the American Red Cross met and Son building contractors, and with Miss Ruth Lockman, Western dealers in building supplies. North Carolina field represenchairman. The Rev. J. Alton Mor- held on March 4, were made. ris was elected chapter chairman. James E. (Jim Ed) Hughes, who the meeting were Mrs. H. G. Elkins has been water safety chairman for home service chairman: Mrs. Don the past three years, was appointed chairman of the Fund Drive.

service chairman: H. Bueck, disas-High School and attended Western ter chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Hendrix Carolina College, Cullowhee, two and Miss Leila Hayes, board mean-

A round table discussion was tative, Thursday afternoon at the held and plans for a kick-off dinhome of Mrs. F. V. Taylor, chapter ner with an outside speaker, to be

Committee members attending Witherspoon, home service seeretary; Mrs. Dale Lee, volunteer

Parking Meters Favored

The theme of the meeting will Hill Dean's List on the Dean's List for the first semester at Mars Hill College.

his candidacy for solicitor of the assistant collector of internal rev-, 20th judicial district. He will enter enue for the state. He served in the Democratic primary May 29. that capacity for two years and in The 20th district is composed of 1943 was appointed as an attorney Haywood, Cherokee, Clay, Graham in the General Accounting Office, Jackson. Macon and Swain Coun- Washington, D. C. He was in the Washington office Alley, a son of Judge Felix E until Sept. 1, 1952, when he return vin Hampton and Kenneth Wooded to Waynesville to re-enter prac- ard. . 1900. He was educated in the tice.

Alley was judge of the Recordnesville and at the University of er's Court at Jackson County 1924-ratic presidential elector in Ray Bennett Mrs. Charles Messer low C. This honor also represer

Felix E. (Gene) Alley Jr., Way-, in Waynesville and Sylva until nesville attorney, has announced 1941. That year he was appointed i tist Association will meet February

Church at 7:30 p. m.

Persons taking part on the pro-Corbitt, the Rev. A. B. Lovell, Mar-

Departmental conferences will esville and at the University of er's Court at Jackson County 1924-forth Carolina. On receiving his license to prac-wood County 1932-34. He was a Edwards, Mrs. Carl West, Mrs. Direction of Mrs. Christine Painter, Miss Dorothy Edwards, Mrs. Carl West, Mrs. De under the direction of Mrs. To be entitle to a place on the quality credits with no grade be-be-thidren.

At Marble Springs The Western North Carolina Bap

19 at Marble Springs Baptist be "Light The Church Houses". gram will be the Rev. John C.

be under the direction of Mrs. a graduate of Murphy High School lanta, and a dughter, Mrs. C. E. years. He is married and is a mem bers.

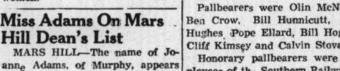

buted to the school, magazine The Weslevan'. At present a group of Miss Ax-exhibit at the Murphy Carnegie Library. Wesleyan College is a Methodist n Wesleyan students having con-is the world's oldest college for women

Miss Adams On Mars

ployees of the Southern Railway. six

Hughes is a graduate of Sylva office to his father and practiced 1940.

For District Solicitor

and Carl Corbin.

good campus citizenship. of Columbia, S. C.

10th Grade Raises Bobby Cobb Featured By FF $96 For Polio Fund News As Dairyman Of Month

The 10th Grade of Murphy High Patsy Hancock, Barbara Hughes, School, under the leadership of Christine Hughes, Clara Hughes, Rt. 1 Culberson was featured av its President, Steve Hembree, and Patsy Jones, Mary Lepscier, Nancy the Dairyman of the Month in the Chairmen Sue Hubbard, June Sales, Georgia Sampson, Marcella February Farmers Federation Sneed, Eunice Stiles, Polly Ann News. Crawford and William Lee, contributed $96.12 to the Polio Fund Stiles, Eloise Taylor, Roma Taylor, Sara Jean Underwood, Imajean Each of the students of the class volunteered to be responshile for Voyles, Mary Ruth Donley, Josea project and turn the proceeds of phine Kilpatrick and Kenneth Led tle; mostly Guernsey, and is now that project into the Fund.

Such projects as washing cars, baking cakes, candy and cookies, popping corn, doing housework. auctioning comic books, etc. brought in money to increase the Fund.

Some students even brought handbags, canned goods and frozen meets form home to be sold to the highest bidder.

Those most active in this worthy activity were: Kathryn Amos, Emmogene Bryant, Dorothy Burgess lore, Judy Cook, Mary Alice Cook ine Crawford, Carolyn Scruggs William Lee, Ruth Logan Mary Mc

Burke James Stalcup, Jackie Wilson. Jack of Murphy.

ford. Last year this same group raisd $85.00 for Polio and has worked and, except for seasonal extra tirelessly in its efforts this year. help, they do all the work themed the hope that they may do even better in 1955.

W. Carringer Program Enjoyed

Walter Carringer, tenor of Mur- now." They also keep a bull which phy and New York, last week sang has a fine Quail Roost breeding Frankie Chastain, Mary Alice Chas a completely enjoyable, and easy background: tain, Betty Clonts, Catherine to listen to program to a large au- Further information from the Clonts Helen Clonts, Josephine dience of home town guests and story related that in 1951 Bobby some out of towners here. The tenor was accompanied at which now contains a DeLaval milthe plano by Barton Cantrell of ker that has streamlined milk pro-

Donald, Ann Martin Helen McMil- New York, who also played a group duction on their farm. lan, Billy Davis, Billy Hughes, of plano solos. The program was Charlie Mills, Marvin Painter, sponsored by the Lions, Civitan, Polytechnic College at San Luis Moore, Bobby Stalcup, Regal and Junior Woman's Clubs Obispo. Calif., where he majored is Beaver, H. C. Bueck, Ray Crisp. Meredith Decker, Louise Dockery. Mary Ruth Donley, Ann Eiliott, Shirley Erod, Virginia Powler,

Robert Tyrus (Bobby) Cobb of

The feature article reported that Cobb is "an enterprising young dairyman who has 28 head of catmilking 20 of them. He runs the farm with his father, John Cobb. beby-sitting, working in offices. The President of the Class express- selves. This involves raising most of their own hay and corn lover 3,500 bushels of corn raised last year). Their winter cover crops consist of oats, barley and rye. The article quoted Cobb as saving, "We've had good results from artificial breeding and have four artificially bred cows in our herd and his dad built a dairy barn

A graduate of California State in Dairy Husbandry. Bobby and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cobb ar, pictured above with one of their herd of 28 cows. Mr. Cobb was featured in the February Farmers Federation Magazine as the dairyman of the month

By Merchants In Voting

Murphy Town Council during a Hardware.

recent meeting postponed action, During a running discussion of on parking meters after 75 mer- parking meters which has lasted chants on the main streets voted for several months in Council for the meters, 24 voted against meetings, the panel decided to and 15 were neutral. A total of vote on the question. 115 businessmen voted.

After Chief Sneed's The poll taken by Police Chief council decided to vote Neil Sneed, ranged from Stiles Produce to the Blossom Shop and parking meter question at their from Acme Hardware to Hampton next meeting.

Hayesville Takes Double Header

BY ADIR ARONSON Murphy leaving only the pieces to with 9.

be picked up as they won 76-34. Birder Coffey scored 7, Ray Hayesville had a tough time beat- Amos scored 6, Bobby Stiles and ing Murphy's boys but they won Pearl Johnson scored 4 apiece out 39-32.

he game as Wanda Garrett, and In Ledford led their team to vic-

orv. Miss Garrett was high scorer 11 29 points. Miss Ledford was School Party second with 27. Alice Lovingood Betty Palmer scored 10 for Murphy Laura Bailey made 4 Josemade 2 points each.

"monthla picked up the lead Murphy in the final minutes folk dances and community singing and won going away. Harold Dean Jerry Ruth Smith accompanied Long was high scorer with 12 some of the dances on the accor-points. Ray McBrayar, Long's team dion.

mate made 11 for second place Hayesvilles girls stormed over honors. Ed Lovingood led Murphy report, on the

while Jimmy McCombs wound up

Murphy's girls weren't even in scoring with 2.

ed Murphy with 13 points.

annual March of Dimes benefit the John C. Folk School phine Garrett mede 3, and Ann man en 25 cleared was divided be-Kilpstrick and Katrene Gentry meen the Cherokee and Clay Coun ty pollo campaigns. Both young and old joined in the

175 Attend Folk

175 persons attended the