

First Recreation Program Now Underway At Robbinsville Gym

Wiles-Long Are Directors

Robbinsville's first summer recreation program got underway here last week for an eight weeks program of recreation for all ages.

Hours for supervised sports and games are 8:30-11:30 a. m.; 1:30-4:30 p. m.; and 6:00-8 p. m. at the gym.

The association listed its goal as designed to appeal to all ages and afford wholesome recreation as well as to develop leadership, citizenship and character of the young people.

The program was financed by support from civic organizations and individual citizens.

Tournaments will be conducted in the sports and the schedule also includes a pet and doll show, instruction in arts and crafts, movies, both quiet and active games and picnic outings.

Meeting Set At Fontana Church

A series of evangelistic meetings will be held at the Fontana Community Church June 28-July 9 with the Rev. L. G. Meadows of Springfield, Mo., preaching.

The church is now working on enlarging its auditorium and adding Sunday Schools rooms. The project is expected to be completed around the end of July.

Fontana Group At Luncheon

Mrs. S. R. Miller entertained at a luncheon at the Fontana Village Cafeteria Thursday honoring Mrs. Harry Fronheiser of Philadelphia, Pa. and Miss Hilda Weng of Drexel Hills, Pa.

Mrs. Fronheiser and Miss Weng are the sister and cousin, respectively, of Mrs. George Schultz. They were the houseguests of Rev. and Mrs. Schultz last week.

Guests, in addition to the hostesses and honorees were Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Conley Nelson, Miss Sarah Sutherland, Mrs. William Bush and Mrs. Joe Dyer.

Swimming Pool Being Made At Fontana

A large swimming pool is now under construction at Fontana VII lake.

The pool will be located between the village and the dam—not far from the power house.

There will be a smaller pool for children next to the large pool, it was said.

Snowbird Mountain Lodge

Located on a mountainside 12 miles N. W. of Robbinsville, N. C., at an elevation of 2500 feet.

A beautiful rustic, yet entirely modern American Plan Mountain Lodge with a breathtaking panoramic view. Excellent meals in our beautiful dining room. In addition to our regular guests we welcome individuals, families or club groups for luncheons or dinners. A wonderful place to spend a week end. New owners & managers. WRITE

SNOWBIRD MOUNTAIN LODGE Joyce Kilmer Road Robbinsville, N. C. Season April 15 - Nov. 1st

GRAHAM PERSONALS

BY JO DEANE PHILLIPS

Donald Gregory of the U. S. Navy was discharged on June 16. He visited friends and relatives here last week end.

Ross Crisp of the U. S. Navy visited friends and relatives in Robbinsville last week end.

Joe Wiggins, who is employed in Cleveland, Tenn., spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wiggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith and family of Swannanoa visited friends and relatives here last week end.

Miss Ann Costner has returned home after visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Costner of North Wilkesboro for the last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Modeal Walsh and Miss Janice King visited in Robbinsville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Modeal Walsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Collins and family, Jo Deane Phillips and Eugene Walsh enjoyed a picnic Sunday.

Dr. Parks, John, Martha and Peenie, have returned home after attending the graduation exercises of James from medical school at Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowers are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farley.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Bryson have received word that their son, Raphael, has returned to the States after spending six months in Korea. He will get a leave August 1.

Mrs. Rebecca Odom, Miss Christine Norris and Miss Christine Bridges made a business trip to Mrs. Bob Bell, and friends in Asheville Monday.

Max McMonigie visited his sister, Atlanta, Ga.

Harper Carpenter and Harold Crisp, who are employed in Cleveland, Tenn., visited friends and relatives here this week end.

Little Ben Daniels has returned home after visiting his aunt in Danville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Watson of Morganton visited Mrs. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wiggins.

Mrs. Ora Massey and daughter, Judy, of Alcoa, Tenn., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen and family here.

Mrs. Christine Corpening is in Lumberton with her brother who was injured in an automobile accident recently.

Mrs. E. Paul Livingston and daughter, Bee of Savannah, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Livingston's mother, Mrs. Edith Carver.

Mrs. Doris Roberts is employed with the Auto Finance Co. in Asheville.

Mrs. Barbara Jean Fox visited her grandmother, Mrs. Sally Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCall and Kitty Ann from Waynesville visited Mrs. Lois Jones and family last week.

Carl Phillips made a business trip to Chattanooga, Tenn., Thursday.

Mrs. Faye Davis of Danville, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ben Daniels here this week.

Miss Nellie Mae Stewart is now employed with GSI at Fontana Dam.

Miss Marcelle Stewart is visiting Mrs. O. L. Randall in Okala, Fla.

Mrs. Marie Wright and Anna, from Cleveland, Tenn., are visiting friends and relatives in Robbinsville.

Patricia Tatham is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McGaha in Franklin.

Mrs. M. P. Davis attended the decoration at Tuskegee last Sunday.

Frieda Rattler Is Dress Revue Winner

BY ROSEMARY JONES, 4-H REPORTER

The Graham County 4-H Dress Revue was held Saturday afternoon under the direction of Miss Nellie Joe Carter, Home Agent, in the Robbinsville Courtroom with approximately 125 persons attending.

Betsy Orr and Rosemary Jones had charge of the music for the program and Betsy rendered piano selections during the judging of the dresses.

Before the style show, Nora Lynn Elzey and Camille Childers gave a demonstration on "Tomatoes on your Table", and Joan Wilkey and Jo Ford gave a demonstration on "How to Dress Up Milk". Both of these demonstrations will be given at the district elimination contest which is to be held at the Biltmore High School in Asheville on June 29th.

Some 24 girls entered dresses, skirts or other articles of clothing in the contest and he following were adjudged winners in the senior dress division; Frieda Rattler, first place winner received a $4.00 merchandise coupon from Sniders Dept. Store, and Estella Waldroup 2nd place winner, who was awarded a 4-H charm bracelet.

Winners in the Junior Dresses were: Patricia Holloway, first place winner. Her prize was a $3.00 merchandise coupon from Snowbird Supply Company, and Margaret Walker, 2nd place winner, whose prize was a 4-H charm bracelet.

Carolyn Deyton was winner in other articles of clothing, which was a sunsuit. Her prize was a $1.25 merchandise coupon from The Style Center Store.

Winners in the skirt and blouses were: Loretta Corbin, first place winner. Her prize was a $1.50 merchandise coupon from Campbells Dress Shop and Antoinette Corbin 2nd place winner, whose prize was a 4-H charm bracelet.

Judging was done by Miss Pansie Deal, Swain County Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Lola Harwood of Bryson City. They were assisted by Mrs. David Riddle and Mrs. Barney Walters, Home Demonstration Council officers.

Kay Stone was the only entry in the speaking contest. She spoke on the subject "What 4-H means to me, my home, and my community." She received a 4-H billfold for her efforts.

The following 4-H'ers participated in the Dress Revue:

Senior Dresses: Mildred Jordan, Estella Waldroup, Lavinia Lovin, Polly Moody, Nancy Bridges, Frieda Rattler and Jessie Dillard.

Junior Dresses: Camille Childers, Margaret Walker, Clarabell Phillips, Birdell Phillips, Patricia Holloway, Mary Crisp, Wanda Crisp, Christine Crisp, Velma Ledford, Ann Wiggins and Unita Hyde.

Skirts and other articles of clothing: Carolyn Deyton, Betty Garland, Faye Millsaps, Antoinette Corbin, Loretta Corbin and Mary Williams.

Barbara Huscusson and Kay Stone assisted with the registration.

Mr. Flake made colored pictures of all the girls entering the dress revue. These will be made into slides and shown in 4-H club meetings in the fall.

Stecoah Church Proj. Are Completed

Stecoah Missionary Baptist Church recently completed the beautifying of its grounds and the addition of more pews to the auditorium.

I. H. Green is pastor of the church.

BIBLE SCHOOL Some 176 pupils were enrolled in the Vacation Bible School at Robbinsville Baptist Church last week.

New Graham Co. Tourist Folio

A new two-color Graham County tourist information folio was released last week by the Graham County Highlanders and co-sponsored by the Highlanders, and the Lions Club of Robbinsville and Fontana Dam.

Containing a picture on front of Fontana Dam, highest dam in the TVA system, the folio further contains information on the "land of the Great Smokies", Cheoah, Fontana and Santeelah Lakes and the Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest.

The inner part of the Folio is a

County To Quit Paying For Caps

Graham County will discontinue paying for wildcat, fox and hawk caps on July 1, C. P. Sawyer, county accountant said last week.

After July 1 the county will not pay for wildcat, fox and hawk caps.

Legion Square Dances Held Twice Weekly

The American Legion Post is sponsoring two square dances weekly through the summer.

The dances are held each Wednesday and Saturday at the Legion Hall. Admission is 50 cents per person.

Joe Dickey Allen and Guy Roberts are the callers. Thus far good attendance has been noted at the dances.

Info Booth Now Open On Square

The tourist information booth, sponsored by the Graham County Highlanders, is now being manned on the courthouse square for some seven hours daily.

Mrs. Cecil Rice is at the booth from 1 p. m. until dark giving information.

The little white frame building was used for the first time year before last, but last summer was not operated as an information booth. It returned to the square a few weeks ago.

THE LONE RANGER :: By Fran Striker

Comic strip panels for 'THE LONE RANGER' by Fran Striker. The story follows the escape of 'The Killers' from Bluefield Prison and their subsequent actions, including a confrontation with Slim Norton and a plan to break out the rest of the gang.