

People You Know

MURPHY

E. E. Stiles, Murphy businessman, underwent a serious operation in an Atlanta hospital Wednesday. His condition is reported improving nicely and he is expected home by the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Case and Frank Mauney spent the week end in Athens, Tenn., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huber.

Mrs. E. M. Dunning of Atlanta is the guest this week of Mrs. G. W. Candler.

Mrs. John W. Brandon of Atlanta spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton G. Ivie and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brandon.

Miss Kay Burgess of Atlanta was here for the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Burgess.

Mrs. Tom Mauney left Tuesday for Raleigh to spend some time with her son, Richard, Mrs. Mauney and daughter, Kathy.

Mrs. Mauney had as her luncheon guest last week, Mrs. Ellen Tjersland of Oslo, Norway, who is now employed at Fontana Dam. She accompanied Mrs. Tjersland to Nantahala Inn for the meeting of the Konnaheeta Club of Andrews, where she was guest speaker at the club and showed films of Norway.

Mrs. J. H. Hampton has as her guest this week, her cousin, Mrs. A. J. Rasmussen of Omaha, Neb. who was former State Regent of the DAR of Nebraska. She left here Tuesday for Clarksburg, West, Va. where she will be speaker on the State DAR Convention program next Tuesday.

ANDREWS

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reid have returned to their home in Pittsburgh, Pa., after a three week visit with their sister, Mrs. Gus Ledford.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady McGuire of Maryville, Tenn., visited Mr. McGuire's uncle, J. M. (Joe) McGuire Sunday. They also visited Mrs. McGuire's brother, Dee Witt Kimsy at Vengeance Creek, and other relatives in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delaney had as their guest over the week end, Mr. Delaney's brothers, W. C. Delaney, Donald Delaney and Mrs. Delaney and their nephew, Bob Easley, all of Bristol, Va.

Miss Ada Mae Pruette spent the week end in Ellenboro with her sister.

Walter Whitaker of Oak Ridge, Tenn. is spending this week here at the home of his father, H. M. Whitaker.

Mrs. W. L. Moore and daughter, Miss Vera Moore, spent several days of last week in Asheville.

Rev. John Christy Jr. and Miss Martie Burton of High Point were guests of Mr. Christy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Christy Sr., over the week end.

Miss Frances Cover has returned to her home after a month's visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Beah in Waterford, Va.

Mrs. W. T. Fisher had as her guest for the week end her sister, Mrs. Margaret Rogers and daughter, Miss Letha Rogers of Birmingham, Ala.

Dr. Robert H. Brown of Kingsport, Tenn., spent the latter part of the week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Brown.

John Henry Davis and son, Glenn, of Franklin and Mrs. Zeigler his mother-in-law, of Nutley, N. J., were guests of Mr. Davis' parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis Sunday.

Miss Vera Moore, Miss Gladys Christy and Miss Erilyn Glenn made a tour of the Scenic Parkway via Roanoke, Va., over the week end.

Roy Wheeler and children, Becky and Al, of Elizabethton, Tenn., spent the week end here with Mr. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wheeler.

Voters To Elect New County Slate Next Week

Homecoming Is Set Friday In Andrews

Andrews High School will observe homecoming, Friday night, Oct. 29. The game will be played on the Andrews home field between the Andrews Wildcats and Robbinsville Blue Devils.

Special activities at the half-time include crowning of the queen who is selected by the football squad. The queen's attendants are chosen by the student body.

The parents of the football players will be honored guests and will receive special recognition at half-time.

The Wildcats have made a fine record during this year.

The Wildcat coach, Hugh Hamilton, was recognized by the Asheville Times as "Coach of the Week" of the conferences in Western North Carolina. This is Coach Hamilton's fourth season with the Andrews Wildcats.

Fine support has also been given this club by the cheering squad under the leadership of Miss Ruth Hamilton.

This will be the last home game of the season and the Wildcats are determined to give a good account of themselves.

The Andrews P. T. A. in cooperation with the Monogram Club of the Andrews High School has planned a party for the High School student body and the teachers of the Andrews Unit in the High School gym immediately following the game. Mrs. Margaret C. Watry, Pres. of the P. T. A. and Doris Teas, Chairman of the Monogram committee will be in charge of activities.

Wright Receives C. L. U. Award

Announcement was made this week that Kenneth C. Wright, former principal of Murphy High School, was recently awarded the C. L. U. degree by the American College of Life Underwriters.

The designation "Charter Life Underwriter" is considered to be the highest professional attainment available to men engaged in life insurance work.

Mr. Wright and his family lived in Murphy from 1933 to 1944. During most of this period he served as high school principal, and was active in Boy Scout work, civic club, professional and church activities.

In 1944 he resigned his position to enter life insurance underwriting as a career; and since that time has held positions with the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co. in Morganton, Durham and Dallas, Texas. His present position is manager of the Dallas Agency.

While managing the Durham Agency, Mr. Wright was instrumental in organizing the first C. L. U. study group ever taught at the University of North Carolina. He completed the final examinations in New York last summer, and received the C. L. U. designation at Boston Sept. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, with their son Kenny, were visitors in Murphy during the past summer.

What Have You? Sale In Andrews

Members of the Konnaheeta club will sponsor a "What Have You Sale" Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29-30 in the store building on Main Street next door to Herbert Dry Cleaners in Andrews.

Various articles will be on sale for $2.00. Proceeds will be used for benefit towards the South West District hospital fund.

Supt. Byers To Speak At NCEA Meet Here

J. W. Byers, superintendent of Asheville City Schools, will speak to the Murphy, Andrews, Cherokee County and Hayesville NCEA on the legislative program for NCEA, next Thursday, Nov. 4 in the Murphy School Auditorium. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

Mr. Byers is a member of the state NCEA legislative committee and Walter Puett, chairman of the Murphy legislative committee is in charge of the program.

Andrews Lutheran Church Celebrates Birthday Sunday

The 30 Year Anniversary of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Andrews will be celebrated on Reformation Day, Sunday, Oct. 31, by a special service at 11 a. m.

The Rev. John Hall, D. D., of Hickory, will deliver the anniversary sermon. The choir of St. Andrew's and Mrs. J. G. Carrier, organist, will provide the special music. Also, the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be administered.

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church was organized in October, 1924, with 10 charter members and is greatly indebted to the late Mrs. F. P. Cover, who was one of the charter members, for her efforts to help the growth of the church. All friends and members of St. Andrew's are most cordially invited to share in this worship service.

American Legion To Have Turkey Shoots Here

The Joe Miller Elkins American Legion Post 96 of Murphy will sponsor three all day turkey shoots and a half day shoot next month.

The first all day shoot will be Saturday, Nov. 6, the second Saturday, Nov. 13, and the third Saturday, Nov. 20. All three will start at 9 a. m.

On Thanksgiving Thursday, Nov. 25, the shoot will start at 8 a. m. and end at noon.

All four shoots will be held at Murphy Recreation Park. Ammunition will be furnished but those participating must bring their own fire arms.

Films On Violinist Be Shown Tonight

The second of the AAUW sponsored music nights at the library will be held Thursday, Oct. 28, at 7:30 p. m.

Two films featuring Jascha Heifits will be shown. The public is invited to attend.

Esso Men Honored

Sam Davidson and J. B. Mulkey of Murphy recently were awarded 20-year service plaques from the Esso Oil Co.

The awards were made in Asheville during a special luncheon. At the same time, J. P. Coleman of Hayesville, father of Walter Coleman of Murphy, was honored as the man with the longest service. He has been associated with Esso for 46 years.

SOME 14 MURPHY SCHOOL children had a taste of "singing in opera" last week when they made up the gingerbread chorus for the Grass Roots Opera Co. performance of Hansel and Gretel. A portion of the chorus is pictured above during the production given in the afternoon for Murphy School Pupils. Local children in the chorus were: Bobby Weaver, Grace Townson, Beth Bailey, Sue Miller, Virgil Decker, Kay Davidson, Susan Maxwell, Lynn Whiteley, Patricia Cole, Jimmie Kimsy, Johnny Snow, Barbara Townson, Sarah Varner Singleton and Jarry Decker. (Murphy School Photo)

Sponsor Andrews Halloween Carnival

The Andrews Rotary Club will sponsor a Halloween Carnival on the Andrews Athletic Field, Saturday night, Oct. 29. An evening of fun has been planned for young and old.

Parents are invited to come and bring the entire family and enjoy a good wholesome evening of fun. There will be a costume parade, games and refreshments, a real gypsy fortune teller, who has a secret; bingo, ponies, and cake walks.

BULLDOG CAPTAINS, Jimmy McCombs, left, and Eddie Joe Elliott, tomorrow night will lead their team in the game against the Franklin Panthers that will determine Murphy's standing in the conference. Murphy now has five conference wins and one loss. Andrews is on top in the Smoky Mountain Conference with an undefeated season. Murphy and Andrews will clash again in Murphy next week, Nov. 5. Andrews defeated Murphy in the season opener, 19-0. (Scout Photo)

Murphy Beats Cherokee

BY IDA BRUMBY

The Murphy High Bulldogs out-fought, out-played, and out-scored the Cherokee Indians 39-13 for their fifth conference victory of the season here Friday night.

At 7:15 Miss Betty Lou Dockery was crowned football queen by Captain Eddie Joe Elliott. Anne Kilpatrick, maid of honor, carried the queen's crown onto the field and then was escorted off by Captain Jimmy McCombs.

The Bulldogs took command early in the game when Eddie Joe Elliott sprinted for a touch-down. Minutes later Burke Moore ran over for Murphy's second touch-down. Elliott made the extra point. Whitin 4 plays Burke Moore again scurried 20 yards for another touch-down. The extra point was completed by Elliott. The half-time score was 29-0.

The Murphy High School Band displayed an excellent program under the direction of Edward Reynolds at the half.

Andrews Girl Scouts Selling Cookies

The annual cookie sale sponsored by the Andrews Girl Scout group No. 14 began Wednesday following the meeting held in the Andrews Park and will continue through out the week.

Saturday, Oct. 30 the group will sell the cookies on Main Street.

Following the meeting held in the park refreshments, prepared on the out door furnace grill Girl Scout style, were served. Mrs. Jimmy Baer, leader of the group, was in charge.

Wild Hog Leads A Dog's Life

A confused wild boar from the Snowbird Mountains Tuesday had a fling at living a dog's life, before he died of a shot fired by Ralph Lovingood.

Dogs chased the boar out of the mountains at Marble and he stayed by their way by Lovin' good's home for some 15 minutes. The hog lunged at passing cars several times, an observer reported, like a car-chasing dog.

The boar was an old fashioned brindle backed wild hog and weighed some 175 pounds.

Mrs. Tjersland Is Konnaheeta Club Speaker

Members of the Andrews Konnaheeta Club received a treat in the person of Mrs. Ellen Tjersland, native of Oslo, Norway, who presented a program of lecture and films of her native land.

Mrs. Tjersland was presented by Mrs. D. E. Pullium, club president, at the regular club meeting held at Nantahala Inn Thursday evening.

Sponsored by the International Relations Committee Mrs. Tjersland wore a native costume for festive occasions that featured brightly colored embroidery. She told of experiences in her native land during World War II and sketched briefly the history of Norway.

She also told her impressions of America and American people since coming to Fontana a year and a half ago. Mrs. Tjersland was high in her praise of American hospitality but stated that the people of Norway do not work nearly so hard nor so continuously as do the American people.

She explained that the Norwegians relax at the close of working hours but that Americans seem to keep right on working day and night.

The films portrayed the majestic beauty of Norway and its cultural and industrial progress.

Guests at the club meeting included Mrs. Ramsey Buchanan of Sylva, district president, of N. C. Federation of Womens clubs, Mrs. Tom Mauney of Murphy, Mrs. James Bowers of Reading, Pa., Mrs. Carl Killian and Miss Walker of Cullowhee, Mrs. Paul Jordan, Mrs. Vera Tarkington, Mrs. Frank Swan, and Miss Polly Hicks.

Hostesses were members of the International Relations Committee

Voters To Mark 3 to 5 Ballots

Cherokee voters will mark from three to five ballots each when they go to the polls in the General Election Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Election of county officers takes top interest locally. Voters will also mark ballots for state positions constitutional amendments, and township officers and, in some cases school trustees.

Polls will be open from 6:30 a. m. until 6:30 p. m.

The county ticket includes the following: Democratic; solicitor, Thad Bryson; state senator, H. M. Moore; county representative, Ed Brumby; clerk of court, Neil Sneed; register of deeds, Kate Padgett Hensley; sheriff, J. L. Hall; coroner, Harry Miller; judge recorder's court, Herman Edwards; county commissioner, first district, Sam Jones; second district, Bill Brandon.

Republicans are: state senator, Ray Wright; county representative, Virgil O'Dell, clerk of court, Kellis Radford; register of deeds, J. E. Graves; sheriff, Claude Anderson; coroner J. C. Townson; county commissioner, first district, W. A. Hyde; second district, E. L. Townson, third district, W. B. Dockery.

On the state ticket W. Kerr Scott Democrat against Paul C. West, Republican, for U. S. Senator, heads the list.

Andrews and Marble voters will also vote for Andrews School Unit trustees. All townships, except Shoal Creek, will vote for constables or justices of the peace.

Meanwhile the bank and court-house offices will be closed on election day, Nov. 2.

Andrews Cub Pack Gets Charter

Andrews Cub Pack 2 held a pack meeting Tuesday night, October 19, in the Andrews School Auditorium.

The Cubmaster, Charles O. Frazier, was in charge of the meeting and, in the absence of Tom Speed, made the presentation of the charter. The charter was accepted by Mrs. Gertid Almond.

Registration cards were presented to Mrs. C. O. Van Gorder, Mrs. Walter Brown and Mrs. Grady Barlow, who served as Den Mother since the organization of the pack.

Members of the pack committee who received registration cards were Dr. C. O. Van Gorder, Walter Brown and James Bryson. Jim Wood is assistant cubmaster.

Den 3 presented a musical skit which was based on the Cub Scout theme.

Miss Gray Presides At JWC Meeting

Miss Elizabeth Gray, newly elected president of the Murphy Junior Woman's Club, presided at the meeting of the club last Thursday at the Primary School auditorium.

A number of new members were present.

The club voted as projects for the year hot lunches and clothing for underprivileged children. The club will also have a float in the Christmas parade.

A film on North Carolina was shown followed by refreshments served by the hostesses who included Miss Gray, Mrs. Herman Edwards, Mrs. Peyton Ivie and Mrs. W. V. Costello. The refreshments table was centered with a large fruit arrangement and other appointments in a harvest motif.