

Hiwassee Dam Seniors Spend Week In Florida

Many hours of ice cream, cake walks, talent programs, carnivals, class plays, ball games, repairs on the bus and other activities paid off for the enterprising senior class of Hiwassee Dam High School recently.

The class returned last week end from a week in Florida. They went on the "Blue Buzzard", pet name for the bus which they bought for the school and used for the trip to Florida. (The bus is actually named the Blue Eagle)

The seniors were accompanied by Hal M. Hale, principal; and Mrs. Alma Gaddis and Mrs. Lewis Williams, faculty members.

The group left April 1 and returned April 9.

Church Women To Meet In Hayesville

Presbyterian women of Cherokee, Macon, Clay, Graham and Swain counties will hold their annual district conference at the Hayesville Presbyterian church on Saturday, April 16, according to Mrs. M. C. Close, Bryson City, district chairman for this area.

Registration will open at 9:30 a. m. and the one day program will begin at 10 o'clock.

This is one of five such meetings scheduled in Asheville Presbytery, which covers ten western North Carolina counties, and is sponsored by the women of the presbytery, of which Mrs. R. E. McClure, Asheville, is the president.

World War II Service Files Be Disposed Of Soon

Colonel Thomas H. Upton, State Director of Selective Service, said today that he has received notice from the Director of Selective Service to proceed with the disposal of the individual files of registrants of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended.

He pointed out that any World II registrants needing information from his World War II selective service file should request it now before the loss of such information information must be requested by destruction of the records. The either in person or by letter signed by the registrant.

Colonel Upton also stated that the Director of Selective Service advises that the great majority of the World War II files have served all discernible administrative purposes in the operation of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, and that the Joint Committee of Congress on the Disposition of Executive Papers has approved of the disposal of individual files of registrants of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940. The only World War II files to be retained are those of registrants classified at any time in Class IV-C (Allen), which have been requested by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Files obtained under the current draft act will continue to be maintained by each registrant's local board.

CATHOLIC SEED CORN EASTER WEEK ON THE FARM

The early Christians used many things from the farm to remind them of Easter, because, first of all, the farm is filled with all kinds of life. And Easter and life — the new life, the Life of Christ — go hand in hand.

Let us just take a quick look around the farm to see Easter at its best. The Easter egg is the most common reminder we have of Easter. The unhatched chick turned the early Christian mind to Christ, in the tomb. And the breaking of the shell as the chick breathes air for the first time, is a sign of the resurrection of Christ as He came from the tomb. (Most city people never catch a glimpse of newly hatched chicks) The Easter egg then, cannot have its full meaning with them.

Isaias speaks of Christ as the lamb led to the slaughter (5,7). Paul speaks of Christ as the Paschal lamb—the Easter lamb, who rose from the dead. (City people only see dead lamb cut up in small pieces.)

It is still time for fires to keep the house warm. The early Christians pictured Christ as the light of the world — a flame shining out in the darkness of the night. So the warm glow of fires can remind us of the Risen Christ.

Water, too, reminded Christians of Baptism and our resurrection from sin. And our resurrection from sin is closely tied up with Christ's resurrection. For Paul says if we die with Him we will rise with Him. Thru the water of Baptism we rise to a "new life" in Christ.

So Easter is always around us on the farm. We see new life often—animals and plants, but children especially. This new life should remind us often of Jesus, the Risen Savior. God bless you now.
