

People You Know

MURPHY

Miss Elizabeth Bell of Raleigh spent a few days in Murphy last week visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. F. L. Asbury returned last week from an extended visit with relatives in Gainesville, Ga., Greensboro, Wilmington, Del. and St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton G. Ivie and children, Susanne and Grier, returned Saturday from a three week vacation in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Miss Addie Mae Cook of Murfreesboro spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mason, Jr., had as guests last week, Mrs. Mason's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. English, Jr. and daughter, Susan of Asheville. They were here Sunday for the christening of little Janie Lee Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mason, Jr.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Odom were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sweat, Sr. of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hampton attended the Farmers Federation Stockholders' meeting in Asheville last week. En route they visited Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newcomb at Candler, and Mr. Hampton's cousins, Mrs. Bessie Seaton and the Misses Mae and Minnie Parker at Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Forsyth of Andrews Sunday attended the christening of their grandson, Robert Ashley Forsyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forsyth.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoke Phillips of Robbinsville visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyatt Sunday to see their granddaughter, Mary Linda Hyatt go into the First Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burch and family of Elf, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow of Chattanooga were Sunday guests of Mrs. J. W. Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Breese Breland of Chapel Hill are spending the week with Mrs. Breland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coleman.

Mrs. J. W. Dyer and Mrs. J. Y. Allen will leave Thursday for Florida, Mrs. Dyer going to Winter Haven and Mrs. Allen to Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Henn had as week end guests, Mr. Henn's mother, Mrs. Preston B. Henn and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lutz and two children of Chicamauga, Ga. They were here to see Betsy Henn become a member of the First Methodist Church.

ANDREWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Candler of Villa Rica, is spending this week here as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nichols.

Miss Sue Crawford, student at Western Carolina college at Cullowhee, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lail have returned home after a stay of several months in Florida. Zeb-Conley Jr., student at Mars Hill College is spending the spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Conley.

Mrs. G. W. Cover and daughter, Mrs. Marion Ennis, and her young son, Giles, returned to Andrews Sunday from Fort Myers, Florida. Mrs. Cover has spent the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Jane C. Orr and Mrs. Ennis and son have been spending several weeks with them. They were met in Rex, Ga., by Mr. Ennis who accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rozendale of Look Out Mountain, Tenn., spent the week end here with Mrs. Rozendale's mother, Mrs. David Swan.

Miss Gladys Christy is spending several weeks in Winston-Salem with her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown accompanied by their son, Dr. Robert H. Brown of Kingsport, Tenn., left Monday for a stay of several weeks in Florida.

Mrs. C. L. Johnson has returned after a stay of several weeks in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Paul B. Owenby of Marietta, Ga. is spending several days of this week at the Owanby Plant here.

Churches Plan Holy Week, Easter Services

Russell To Speak Andrews Service

The Rev. William L. Russell, pastor of the Episcopal churches of Andrews, Murphy and Hayesville, will deliver the Easter message at the annual Andrews community Easter sunrise service Sunday at 8:15 a. m. at Valleytown Cemetery.

The Rev. L. B. Jackson, pastor of the Church of God, will lead the singing and the Rev. John Vilmont, pastor of the Andrews Free Methodist Church will lead in prayer.

The Rev. John C. Corbitt, pastor of the First Baptist Church will read the scripture and "Christ Arose" will be sung by a trio made up of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Carter. The Rev. Vitolds Gobins, Lutheran pastor, will lead the benediction.

Meanwhile other Andrews churches set these services:

PRESBYTERIAN

Dr. R. E. McClure of Asheville, executive secretary of the Asheville Presbytery of the Appalachia Synod, will conduct the services at the Andrews Presbyterian Church Easter Sunday at 11 a. m.

METHODIST

A special series of Holy Week services is being conducted in the First Methodist Church this week with the Rev. Edwin Carter leading.

Thursday (tonight), the Lord's Supper will be observed. Friday night baptismal services for children, youths and adults will be administered followed by a fellowship reception for all attending in the basement of the church.

Easter Sunday, 11 a. m., persons baptized will be received into the church.

LUTHERAN

The following services will be held at St. Andrews Lutheran Church: Maundy Thursday (today) 7:30 p. m., Holy Communion and meditation; Good Friday, 7:30 p. m., vespers with the bidding prayer and a meditation.

Easter Sunday, 11 a. m. with holy communion. The public is invited.

EPISCOPAL

Chapel of the Holy Comforter, Maundy Thursday, Holy Eucharist 10 a. m. and Good Friday, ante-communion, litany and meditation 10 a. m.

Easter Sunday, Festival celebration of the Holy Eucharist, 9 a. m. at which children will present their Lenten mite boxes.

OTHERS

The other churches of Andrews will hold their regular services with Easter music and scripture.

Noon, April 14 Is Filing Deadline For County Offices

A lot of folks seem confused about the time in which candidates may file for county offices ends, W. C. Stalcup, chairman of the Cherokee County Board of Elections, said this week.

Mr. Stalcup said the State Board of Elections reported that it has received numerous inquiries on the subject.

The State Board said the time is 12 noon, Saturday, April 14. A reason for the confusion, it said, may be that the time for filing to end used to be at 5 p. m., but the Legislature shifted it to noon.

Clean Up Week Is Announced

Mayor L. L. Mason declared the first two weeks of April as clean-up week for the city of Murphy.

The mayor said here's a fact that's important to you! Rubbish and litter caused twice as many fires in the past 10 years as they did during the preceding 10 year period. Are your attic, cellar and closets full of old papers, furniture and other things that will burn? There's no time like the present to make your spring clean-up count for fire safety. Clean them out today. Stop fires. Call City Hall or telephone 144 for speedy removal of trash when you have completed your spring cleaning. Please have trash in convenient place to be picked up.

MURPHY CHURCHBELLS Sunday, April 1, will call worshippers to Easter services commemorating the resurrection of Jesus Christ — ranking with the Christmas celebration as the most important events of the Christian calendar. Cherokee County's country churches as well as those of Murphy and Andrews will celebrate Easter along with Christians around the world. Pictured here are six of the major churches of Murphy, top left and right, First Methodist Church and First Baptist Church; center, Church of the Messiah, Episcopal and Free Methodist Church and bottom, Murphy Presbyterian Church and St. William's Catholic Chapel. (Scout Photos)

Murphy Churches Join For Early Morning Service

The Rev. A. C. Pounds, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, will speak at the annual early morning Easter service at Sunset Cemetery, Murphy, at 7:15.

Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Free Methodist churches are joining for the service which will be informal and last about 30 minutes.

Congregational singing of familiar Easter Hymns, prayer and Scripture reading will make up the service. Everyone is invited to attend.

Other Holy Week and Easter services include:

PRESBYTERIAN

Wednesday (yesterday), subject "Christ of the Silences." Music by the junior choir, Mrs. R. H. Beard conducting.

Thursday (today), sermon "The Garden and God's Will". Anniversary holy communion by candlelight. Music by Presbyterian adult choir and Edwin Hyde. During communion persons will come to the table in groups of 12.

Good Friday, sermon, "The Otherness of Christ" with special singing by Mrs. Doyle C. Durr.

CATHOLICS

Holy Thursday services, 6 p. m. After evening mass and holy communion, members of the parish will take turns at adoration and prayer until midnight in memory of the Lord's agony in the garden. Good Friday, 6 p. m. services. Everyone is welcome to spend some time in private prayer in the chapel every day — but especially on Good Friday.

Holy Saturday's Easter vigil service will begin at 7 p. m. The congregation will renew their baptismal promises before the mass begins.

Easter Sunday Masses will start at 8 a. m. in Murphy; 8:30 a. m. in Andrews; 11:30 a. m. in Fontana and 11:30 a. m. in Lance Cove.

The Rev. Joseph Dean will be assisted in Murphy and in the mission stations by the Rev. Jack Morrison of Cincinnati and Chaplain Thomas McGrath of Fort Benning, Ga.

FIRST BAPTIST

Dr. J. A. McLeod, professor of English at Mars Hill College, will preach at both services Sunday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. J. Alton Morris, who is ill. The choir will sing Easter music and the regular services will be held.

FIRST METHODIST

Thursday, 7:30 p. m. candlelight communion services. Good Friday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday morning worship, adults joining the church. Music by the adult and youth choirs.

EPISCOPAL

Church of the Messiah, Thursday, morning prayer, 7:15; holy eucharist, 7:30; evening prayer, 5:30; holy eucharist, sermon, stripping of the altar, 7:30.

Good Friday, morning prayer and ante-communion, 7:30; stripping of the passion, noon-3 p. m.; evening prayer, 5:30; stations of the cross, 7:30 p. m.

Easter even or Holy Saturday morning prayer and ante-communion, 7:30; evening prayer and Easter vigil, 5:30. (The sacrament of penance will be available after this service to all who desire it.)

Easter Sunday, holy eucharist, 8 a. m.; festival celebration of the Holy Eucharist, 11 a. m. at which the children will present their Lenten mite boxes containing their Lenten self-denial offerings for the church's mission work. Children's Easter egg hunt, behind the parish house, 4:30 p. m.

Other Holy Week services, morning prayer, 7:15; Holy Eucharist, 7:30 a. m. and evening prayer, 5:30.

St. Barnabas', Murphy, Thursday, holy eucharist, 6 p. m.; Good Friday, ante-communion, litany and meditation, 6 p. m.; Easter even; evening prayer; Baptism. Easter vigil services, 7:30 p. m.

Easter Sunday, church school (Continued on Page 25)

Chamber Of Commerce Membership Is 70 Per Cent Of Potential

The Murphy Chamber of Commerce, now fully organized, has signed up about 70 per cent of the potential membership as members C. R. Freed, Chamber secretary said this week.

Mr. Freed said the five committees are now ready to go to work with the first committee meeting set this week.

The tourist promotional committee with Ben Palmer as chairman and P. J. Henn as vice chairman, will meet Friday, March 30, at 7:30 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce office at the New Regal Hotel.

The committee has as new projects the publication of a new tourist pamphlet, relocation and repair of road signs and other important projects, Mr. Freed said.

The agriculture, merchants and industrial councils will call their members in a meeting next week and the week following.

Ideas from the general public will be appreciated and put to work if practical, Mr. Freed said. He said that anyone who has not been contacted about membership but who is interested in joining the Chamber of Commerce may get in touch with him.

Crippled Children's Drive Ends Saturday

The Crippled Children's drive being conducted through the Easter Seal Sale is progressing nicely according to announcement by W. D. Whitaker, Cherokee County chairman of the drive.

After contacting the various committees, Mr. Whitaker stated that the sale is moving forward, and the Lily Sale will continue through Saturday, March 31 under the direction of the Cub Scouts.

Becky Hoover is in charge of the lily sales on the streets of Murphy both last Saturday and next Saturday, March 31. Mrs. Roy Fuller, chairman of the drive in Murphy said.

2ND DEGREE RITES

Cherokee Masonic Lodge 148 will have a call meeting to confirm a second degree candidate Tuesday, April 3, at 7:30 p. m. in the Lodge Hall.

Dr. Holt To Supply During Pastor's Illness

Dr. Robert L. Holt, vice president and head of public relations at Mars Hill College, will preach morning and evening services at the First Baptist Church here three Sundays a month during the illness of the pastor, the Rev. J. Alton Morris.

The Rev. G. E. Scruggs, associational missionary, will supply on the second Sunday of each month.

Next Sunday, Easter Sunday, Dr. J. A. McLeod, professor of English at Mars Hill College, will preach at both services.

Dr. Holt filled the pulpit last Sunday, March 25.

RALEIGH—The Motor Vehicles Department's Summary of traffic deaths through 10 A. M. March 26:

Killed this year: 220
Killed to date last year: 220
Killed this year: 220
If Safety Is Worth A Life, Drive and Walk Carefully!

Schools, Bank, Others Take Holiday Easter Monday

Easter Monday, April 2 will be a holiday in all Cherokee County schools.

The Health Department will also be closed that day and the Post Office will be closed from noon the rest of the day.

The bank and courthouse offices also will take a holiday with the exception of the office of the clerk of the court which will remain open since Monday is the opening day of the Cherokee County April term of Superior Court.

Superior Court Term Starts Monday

A two weeks term of Cherokee County Superior Court will open here Monday, April 2.