Towns County To Celebrate Centennial July 7

On Saturday, July 7, Towns County will observe its 100th birthday with a Centennial Celebration in Hiwassee. Beginning at 10 a. m. with a fashion show featuring costumes of the 1850's, the program will include recognition of descendants of Governor George Washington Towns, for whom the county was named. Following this there will be an address by Georgia's Governor, Marvin Griffin.

At 3 p. m. a parade will include a number of floats depicting the early days, the early schools and churches, the ways in which families lived and worked, as well as modes of transportation. The crude tools of the 1850's will be on display, along with some of the home made furniture and hand made clothing. In contrast, the remaining floats will be modern in design.

Two queens will reign over the parade — Miss Centennial and Miss Towns County. These queens will be selected from six girls sponsored by the three Parent-Teacher organizations in Towns County. The six girls include Miss Janie Eller, Titus, Georgia; Miss Joeda Taylor, Presley, Georgia; Misses Claudine Presley and Janice Wilson of Hiwassee, and Ettie Sue Hunt and Betty Brown of Young Harris.

Valleytown Church In New Building

The attractive, new Valleytown Baptist Church, located in Valleytown near Andrews, was recently completed at a cost of $30,000, including free labor.

The church was organized in 1935 and had outgrown the old Church building before the present building was started July 1, 1955, in a new location.

The church, made of brick and electrically heated, is very modern and up-to-date in all appointments.

The pastor, the Rev. Ralph Matheson has served the church for the past five years. The church membership has now increased to 420.

The Board of Deacons are: H. G. Hogan, Lee Brown, Jake Brown, Clarence West, Clarence Hogan, Lawrence Anderson, Alder Purser, Elmo Mosteller.

Building Committee: Bronce Matheson, Alder Purser, Lee Bailey, A. V. West, Carrol Brown, Dee Mosteller, and Nathan Dockery.

Secretary and Treasurer: Frank Mosteller. B. T. U. Director: Joe Mosteller. Sunday School Superintendent: Clarence West.

of the beards will share honors with a square dance. An area will be roped off along the side of the public square for the dance, and mountain music will set toes to tapping.

The Centennial Calaboose has housed many an unsuspecting guest during the past few weeks, and as the time for the celebration draws nearer, more and more clean-shaven visitors will have an opportunity to add their names to the guest register.

For several weeks Centennial costumes have been popular attire for young and old, and pictures on display in Hooper's Drug Store show many Towns Countians in the styles of a century ago.
