Apparent Suicide, Officers Report

Sheridan Stiles, 52, Murphy taxi service owner, was found dying in his home Tuesday from an apparently self-inflicted wound, police reported.

He was found by Robert Hampton and Jack Moore, who went last year than they did if they to the Stiles home to install a had paid the national average telephone. They saw blood on the rates.

porch and then discovered Mr. Stiles on the bathroom floor with these facts:

Mr. Hampton and Mr. Moore called an ambulance and Mr. Stiles was rushed to the hospital. He died shortly after being taken there, about 4 p.m.

Mr. Stiles owned and operated the Safeway Taxicab Co. Before coming here, he was a mail carrier in Gainesville, Ga. He lived with his father, J. Patton Stiles. Sheriff Claud Anderson reported that an inquest jury concluded that the wound was self-inflicted. Serving on the jury were Jimmy Howse, Arnold Dalrymple, Loyd Ramsey, D. M. Reese, Perry Hatchett and Everette English. Surviving are: his father; three brothers; Jake and Bass Stiles of Murphy; and Cecil Stiles of Helen, Ga.

Pallbearers were Wayne Crisp, Vincent Stiles, Clyde Gladson, Leonard Stiles, Tommy Phillips, Grant Stiles, Cliff Elliott and Hadley Dickey.

Honorary pallbearers were Walt Mauney, Dave Moody, Fred Johnson, E. E. Stiles, Joe Ray, Howard

Of this, residential customers used ers, 4 million; industrial consumers, 8 million. Lighting Murphy's streets took 120,000 kwh.

The report said that residential consumers last year paid just over one cent a killowatt-hour for electricity used in the home. This is the lowest in the history of the city electric system and, according to the report, is less than half the national average cost of electricity for home use.

Savings last year by all consumers reached an estimated $112,000, the report stated. This figure is based on the average national rates as compared with the rates in Murphy. People served by the Murphy Power Board would have paid $112,000 more for electricity

The report also brought out his throat cut, they told officers. Electric Plant Value: The Murphy Electric System is now valued at $353,400. Debt: The system is almost debt free. Debt now stands at only $5,000. A total of $5,000 plus interest on Taxes Paid: The Murphy Power child and will reside in Waynes-Board is one of the biggest tax ville. payers in the city. Last year the system paid into the city's general fund a total of $11,741, an average of almost $1,000 a month. Consumers served: The system now delivers electricity to 1,401 meters in and around Murphy. The Murphy Electric System is city owned and directed by a Power Board. Board members are W. Frank Forsyth, J. H. Duncan, and Noah W. Lovingood. John H. Bayless is the system manager.
