Navy Rep. To Be In Franklin
 Mrs. R. E. Moore, recruiting representative from the executive office of the Secretary of the Navy, will be in Franklin on Thursday and Friday to interview and test young men and women for civilian typist and stenographic positions in Navy Headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Salaries for the positions open range from $264 to $284 a month, according to the Navy announcement. Minimum requirements calls for a speed of 40 words per minute in typing and 80 words per minute in shorthand.

Benefits include liberal paid vacations and sick leave, yearly automatic salary increases, group hospitalization, low-cost government life insurance, and retirement rights. Housing arrangements are made for all new Navy Department employees before their departure from home.

Mrs. Moore will receive applicants in the Navy Recruiting Station in the Franklin Post Office Building, upon appointment, September 6 and 7.

Rats, mice, birds, and insects destroy as much as 10 per cent of the total crop of cereal grains.
