MISS JUDY SNEED

Hayesville HD Agent, Guest Speaker At Konnaheeta Meet

During the month of January the Home Demonstration Clubs of Cherokee County will be studying Social Security legislation according to Miss Thelma Wheeler, home agent.

The leaders of the various clubs met December 3 in the home agent office to hear Mr. Charles R. Pugh farm management specialist, State College, Raleigh explain the program.

In setting up the Home Demonstration program for the 1957 year the County Advisory Home Demonstration Council selected this topic because of its significance to all families and specifically in light of the new legislation. The leaders are finding it a rather difficult subject to cover in the time allotted to the lesson during a club meeting.

The interest aroused will undoubtedly result in more families which includes practically all professions and occupations.

Molasses Glazes Barbecued 'Ribs'

With pork supplies now bountiful at meat counters, many styles of this meat can be economically prepared in the months ahead. Here barbecued spareribs, topped with spicy apple rings, make for a very special and popular menu. Unsulphured molasses in the barbecue sauce adds a fine glaze and color to the spareribs. Unsulphured molasses, the concentrated juice of sugar cane, gives good spreading consistency to a barbecue sauce. Its aromatic and sweet flavor also offers interesting contrast to the nip of mustard, vinegar, Tabasco and Worcestershire included in the sauce. The sauce is ready to be used as soon as the ingredients are blended.

- Barbecued Spareribs
- 3 pounds spareribs
 - 4 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
 - 4 tablespoons prepared mustard
 - 3 tablespoons vinegar
 - 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
 - 2 teaspoons Tabasco
- Have spareribs cut in serving pieces. Place in shallow baking pan. Combine unsulphured molasses and mustard; stir in remaining ingredients. Brush spareribs with part of sauce. Bake in a moderate oven, (350° F.) 1 1/2 hours, brushing frequently with remaining sauce. Serve with *Glazed Apple Rings. YIELD: 6 servings.

Glazed Apple Rings

- 4 medium red apples
- 3 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Core apples; cut in approximately 1/4 inch slices. Heat unsulphured molasses and butter in skillet; add apple slices. Turn to cover with butter-molasses mixture. Simmer gently 10 minutes, turning and basting occasionally.

Ag. Conservation Program Keeps Farms Fit

Cherokee County farmers who make full use of the 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program to control erosion and to stockpile soil reserves will make a substantial contribution to the Nation's future security and well being. A. J. Barton, Chairman of the Cherokee County ASC Committee, points out that soils have to be kept in condition to respond when the need arises. Land that has been overworked and underfed the need arises. "Land that has needed."

"Although there is no need now to increase the acreage of grains and most other field crops, there is definite need to take advantage of this favorable food situation to continue stockpiling plant food reserves in the soil. Our farms then will be ready to meet expanded production needs when they come, if we don't stockpile these reserves now, there may come a time when it will be too late.

With this in mind, Mr. Barton, emphasizes that farmers who sign up their farms in the 1957 Agricultural Conservation Program will be entering into a partnership with the Nation's taxpayers for the benefit of all. The Conservation practices carried out will help to keep the farms in condition to respond when needed. Stockpiles of soil reserves can help to meet the needs of an ever increasing population, making possible a more abundant living for more people.

Navy Ensign Tommy Ferguson son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferguson of Sylva, and grandson of Mrs. Tom Evans, spent leave with his parents in Sylva and Mrs. Evans. Tommy graduated from University of North Carolina before entering flight training and is now stationed at ePnsacola, Fla.

A SIMPLE TREATMENT has been found for psoriasis, one of the oldest known and most prevalent of skin diseases. Psoriasis is marked by itchy, scaly lesions that sometimes cover up to 98% of the skin area. From 4 to 5 million people, in the U.S.A. alone, suffer from this stubborn, baffling disease.

Treatment consists of daily doses of a dried, defatted hog pancreas, known as Lipan, taken orally in capsule form. Dosage varies with the severity of the disease. Dr. Frank Combes and his associates at New York University Post Graduate School of Medicine report that Lipan cleared up skin lesions or brought marked improvement in about 65% of a test of 400 patients. Other doctors reported similar results. After the lesions are cleared up, a maintenance dose is used to prevent recurrence. Lipan controls but does not cure psoriasis. In spite of intensive research, doctors are still puzzled about the cause — or causes — of the disease.

Original guinea pig for Lipan was Louis Spirt, president of Spirt & Company, of Waterbury, Connecticut, makers of the preparation. Spirt, a victim of psoriasis from infancy, came upon the clue in desperate search for relief. Dr. L. R. Dragstedt of the University of Chicago had isolated a pancreatic hormone that was beneficial, but could not be produced in sufficient quantities to help the many sufferers. Work with Dr. Orpheus Bizozero in Waterbury led Spirt to the preparation of Lipan from whole pancreas. (AN)
