Glenn W. Brown Seeking Solicitor Post

Glenn W. Brown, 32 year-old solicitor of Haywood's Recorder Court, will seek the Democratic nomination as Solicitor of the 20th Solicitorial District.

As a native of Clyde he attended school there, later finishing at Mars Hill College. He then entered the service and served for two years in the Air Force. After his honorable discharge from service, he entered Wake Forest College where he received his law degree. Thereafter, he came to Waynesville and became a member of what is now the law firm of Morgan, Ward & Brown.

Mr. Brown has always been active in political, civic and church affairs. He served two terms as President of the Young Democratic Clubs of Haywood and has been Chairman of the Haywood Board of Elections.

He is former superintendent of Sunday School, First Baptist Church and is presently chairman of the Board of Deacons. Brown is a Mason, member of the Lions Club, and has served in the capacity of president and secretary of the Haywood County Bar Association.

SQUARE DANCE TO BE HELD HERE SATURDAY NIGHT IN OLD GYM

MR. BROWN candidate

At present he is president of the United Fund, and in 1953 was given the honor of "The Man of The Year."

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have two sons. Mrs. Brown is the former Evelyn Davis of Webster.

Murphy's Heart Fund Campaign will get underway here Saturday night with a dance at the Murphy gymnasium in the ball park.

Beginning at 8, the event will feature both round and square dancing with music by Glenn Ellis and his Band.

This will be the first in a series of special events planned by the Heart Fund leadership to highlight the annual drive which will continue through Feb. 28.

"Highlights of the dance will be the Children's Square Dance Team from the Murphy elementary school, cake walks, and other interesting dances," said Mrs. Kathleen Haggard, Murphy Campaign Chairman.

The campaign will reach a peak Heart Sunday, Feb. 23, with a door-to-door collection by an army of Heart Fund volunteers. Each volunteer will collect from the homes of his or her neighbors.

The proceeds from these Heart Fund activities will be used first to support the scientific research needed to discover the unknown causes of heart and circulatory disease, and to develop new means of treatment and prevention. Mrs. Moore and Dr. Hill said in announcing details of the drive. Some of this research is being carried on in our community, Dr. Hill pointed out.

Murphy Dentists Awarded Hinman Diplomas

Dr. Harry Dickey and Dr. J. N. Hill, local dentists, have been awarded the Thomas P. Hinman Post Graduate Diploma after attending sessions of the annual clinic held in Atlanta each spring. The Hinman Clinic, established 45 years ago by the late Thomas P. Hinman, one of the South's most progressive dentist and educators, is known as one of the nation's most outstanding dental science clinics.

The diplomas points out that Dr. Dickey and Dr. Hill participated in the meetings of the Hinman Dental Clinic, and by such participation, joined with their colleagues in advancing the dental health and well-being of the region, and in developing professional knowledge and skills necessary to that end.

They were among more than 2,000 dentists from all over the United States who have attended these clinics which have brought to Atlanta as Clinicians some of the nation's foremost dental authorities.

REFORESTATION STRESSED BY VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE DEPT.

Working as a team and individually the 97 students enrolled in the Vocational Agriculture Course here are playing a big role in protecting this county's greatest farm income—forestry.

These young men are getting the know how of reforestation and at the same time learn how to control soil erosion by planting steep lands in trees.

In the past two years, since the school acquired 215 acres, Vocational Agriculture students have set out approximately 15,000 pine seedlings. All trees were planted on school property.

Most are white, short-leaf pines but approximately one acre of balsam firs and red cedar was planted for the Christmas Tree Project.

Group projects center mostly around tree planting. However, classroom work also includes animal study and crops but particular emphasis is placed on forestry. Classes are conducted in a room in the gymnasium.

Seven Places Hit By Intruders Over Week-End

Seven break-ins in this area Sunday night or early Monday morning are under investigation by Sheriff Claude Anderson's Department.

The sheriff said most of the places entered were only ransacked.

Dockery's Texaco Station was robbed of about $1.50 in pennies, two boxes of candy and a pistol.

The intruders helped themselves to ice cream and cokes at White's Esso Station in East Murphy.

Nothing was reported missing from the following places entered: Sheryl's Restaurant, Murphy High School and Library, Miami Restaurant and a Sinclair Station in E. Murphy, the sheriff said.

Three-County Delegation Sets Talk With Washington Officials

A delegation from this area next week will discuss with Washington officials the possibilities of locating in this vicinity an Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles plant.

The delegation will be made up of approximately 20 men from Cherokee, Graham and Clay counties. Delegation members will leave Sunday and Monday.

They will meet in the office of Sen. Ervin in Washington Tuesday morning. To meet with the local group are Con. George A. Shuford, Sen. Kerr Scott and Sen. Ervin.

No spokesman for the group had been named Wednesday morning but W. Frank Forsyth of Murphy is heading the delegation. The Washington meeting was set up by Con. Shuford with Mr. Forsyth handling the local arrangements.

Con. Shuford has been working for industry and other promotional progress in Western North Carolina, Mr. Forsyth said.

Mr. Forsyth, executive vice-president of Citizens Bank and Trust Co., said: "At the time when the government is spending billions of dollars on different projects we feel this area is strategically located for a plant of the Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles Project."

He pointed out that the government is decentralizing these types of plants.

"We certainly would be worthy and desirous of having such an industry located in the 3-county area," Mr. Forsyth added.

The local delegation will also touch on federal spending for roads, additional government orders for existing plants, federal buildings such as post offices and Federal Housing Projects. "This area has been virtual eliminated in the Federal Housing Project because of its population" Mr. Forsyth asserted.

The Washington meeting will come on the heels of an announcement this week by the President that two-billion dollars will be sought to modernize the physical plant of the postal service. The White House has described it as a

C of C To Give Courtesy Tickets To Tourists

Tourist visiting Murphy will soon be extended the courtesy of free parking while in the town.

Murphy Chamber of Commerce, in an effort to stimulate tourist trade, will soon begin issuing to out-of-state visitors a windshield card for their autos. They will be allowed to park free for the day.

Neal Barnes, executive secretary of the local Chamber, said this will apply only to those visitors that come to the Chamber office seeking information.

Mr. Barnes appealed to everyone to make special efforts to be courteous to visitors that display the cards. He said, "It behooves all of us to try and encourage visitors to come back to see us. A great many times the first impression is lasting."

Free parking visitors' cards will read as follows:

"VISITORS

IF YOU SEEK INFORMATION. . . if we don't have what you want, we will get it for you.

IF YOU SEEK SERVICE . . . our sole reason for existence is to be of service, to make this area a better place in which to live and earn a living.

IF YOU HAVE A SUGGESTION . . . we are glad to have it—the beginning of progress is ideas.

OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS . . . because you have been traveling and are from another city, we expect to learn something from you so your are welcome.

USE A TELEPHONE . . . here, if you want to, and if you need a desk and a typewriter for awhile to make notes on this call and others, we'll arrange it.

THANK YOU FOR VISITING US! . . . and if there's any other way we can help make your day more pleasant and more productive, let us know.
