

TEEN SCENES

By BETTY WEAVER

(This is the second in a series of two articles on Murphy High School senior class trip to Washington recently.)

Seniors visited the Library of Congress where they saw the Guexenberg Bible, The Mainz Bible and Jefferson's rough draft of the Constitution. The beautiful Italian Renaissance interior and a lovely Mosaic of Nunerva entranced the seniors.

The Supreme Court Building with its famous spiral staircase and expensive tapestries was most magnificent. The young people were told they might observe the court in session but time did not permit this.

The Archives Building housed the Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, and many other historically important documents. On display that day were a number of North Carolina documents such as our ratification of the Constitution and our proposed Bill of Rights.

The group was privileged to see the Marine Memorial, one of the newest additions to the city. The huge statue of the Iwa Jima flag raising on Mt. Surabachi was awe-inspiring. The inscription read UNCOMMON VALOR WAS THEIR COMMON VIRTUE. At the base of the statue was a list of all the marine campaigns in chronological

Tomotla Softball Team Take Two From Nantahala

Tomotla softball team defeated Nantahala in a double header Sunday, April 13 at Tomotla.

The scores were 15 to 2 and 12 to 6. Fred Keener was on the mound for Tomotla in the first game and Bill Jones was pitcher for the second.

Others on the Tomotla squad are Bill Crawford, catcher; Walt Palmer, first; Holt Palmer, second; Dale Price, short stop; Bill Jones, third; J. D. Decker, left field; Bill Brandon, center field and Mickey Burchfield right field.

The Tomotla team welcomes all takers and teams interested in exchange matches may contact B. C. Dewese at Burley's Garage, Tomotla.

The group was on hand for the 10 a. m. changing of the guard at the tomb of the unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery. They saw the many beautiful memorials to their country's military heroes there. The Lee Mansion was also an interesting sight.

Later in the day they drove through Embassy Row and saw the only Mohammedan mosque in the Western Hemisphere.

They also passed through the zoo and saw many exotic animals.

The National Cathedral (Episcopalian) was a special treat. A guide explained the historical significance, the architecture, the religious symbolism, and the human element of its construction. The seniors visited the bay housing President Woodrow Wilson's Body.

The Smithsonian Institute was for many the highlight of the trip. The First Ladies' gowns, the Spirit of St. Louis, the Wright Brothers plane, the telephone display, the Museum of Natural History, and other things too numerous to mention captured their fancy.

The last stop was at the National Gallery of Art. This beautiful building housed the world's finest paintings from Renoir to Picasso.

The chaperones, well-loved and much-appreciated by all, were Mrs. T. A. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray, Mrs. Ed Brumby, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Palmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Holland McSwain.
