4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

By MARY HENSLEY and L. B. MARSHALL, JR.

Hi 4-H'ers—We invite you to read this 4-H article which will be printed every week. It will be about 4-H'ers or what they are doing, have done, and plans for the future.

4-H CLUB WEEK—ANDREWS LIONS CLUB

At the April 10th meeting of the Andrews Lions Club, Edward Bryson, a member of Andrews Intermediate 4-H Club, and I, L. B. Marshall, were present to explain the 4-H Club Week, held annually on the campus of University of N. C., Raleigh. We told of the many benefits of 4-H club work and also of the good resulting from having attended 4-H club work. After the discussion there was a motion that the Lions Club give $25.00 to a 4-H'er for a trip to 4-H Club Week. The club member will be selected from the Andrews-Marble area by the Extension personnel in charge of 4-H Club Week. The club member will be selected on the basis of interest, achievement, and need, and will be announced sometime in June.

District Demonstration Day

Cherokee County will have five representatives at Western District Demonstration Day at Clyde A. Ervin High School in Asheville on April 26. These five outstanding 4-H'ers represent the tops in Cherokee County's demonstrators.

These demonstrators are based on a project that the 4-H'ers are carrying in Club work.

Following is a list of the contestants and their demonstration: John Van Horn, Beekeeping; Nell Battle, Tobacco; Jane Carver and Terry Slagle, Dairy Foods; Sue Waldroup, Electric; Jane Carver
