Six Local Civitans Awarded Medals For Observer Work

Six Murphy Civitan Club members received medals for their work in the local Ground Observer Post at the club meeting at the Henry House July 22.

Air Force Sgt. Glenn Duckett and Lt. Wilford Cooze presented the awards to John Smith, post supervisor, Hugh Brittain, Lillard Walker, Wilson Palmer, Ben Ragsdale and Howard Martin.

Sgt. Duckett and Lt. Cooze, who are in charge of posts in this area, praised the Civitan Club for its work in keeping the Murphy post active.

An Air Force film, "Aerial Attack", was also shown at the meeting. This film showed several types of planes the U. S. has ready in case of enemy attack.

Sgt. Duckett told the Civitans that members of the other local clubs who manned the post would also receive awards.

Civitan President Ben Palmer presided at the meeting.

They count on Dad to know the answers

When they need a lift on their homework, children usually turn to Dad. In their book, he knows the answers! With equal confidence they count on Dad (with an able assist from Mom) to see to it that they get the college education that will give them a good start on the road to success.

First Aid Tip: Sterile Gauze Pads A Medicine Chest "Must"

Almost one-third of all wounds incurred in the home are too large to be covered by ordinary adhesive bandages. Yet many medicine cabinets lack the most reliable first-aid weapon that can be used in treating such injuries—the sterile gauze pad.

The fact is that most persons don't realize the vital need to use a sterile bandage as an underdressing for wounds. Knowing that practically all bandages are supplied in sterile form, they take it for granted that such a bandage is always sterile and ready for use in the home. This is not so; once a roll bandage is opened, for example, the unused portion that is stored away for future use is not protected against contamination from handling, dirt and bacteria. Therefore, once opened, it's no longer safe to use in direct contact with the wound.

One safe bandage that is guaranteed sterile until the very moment it is used—no matter how long it is stored in the medicine chest—is the STERI-PAD sterile gauze square.

STERI-PAD sterile gauze pads, which are made by Johnson & Johnson, are packed individually in envelopes, each of which has a double seal. This means that the pads are insured against contamination and are sterile whenever and wherever used. This is the only type of covering that should be used in direct contact with a wound. The roll bandage should be used only over the sterile gauze pad to hold it in place. Adhesive tape can also be used for this purpose.

STERI-PAD gauze pads come in several sizes, which makes it very convenient and easy to apply in self-treatment. Soft and gentle to raw and injured tissues, the gauze squares are excellent for protecting cuts, burns, and abrasions. Their softness and sterility make them ideal in the nursery—for applying oils, lotions, and cream—as well as ointments—as well as for use as a compress and for washing eyes. And for adults, they have dozens of uses as a health and beauty aid, such as application and removal of cosmetics.

Adv.

TO MY 37,052 FRIENDS

In the 12th Congressional District, half of whom (18,526) voted for me May 31 and the other half who would have voted for me had they known the true extent of Mr. Shuford's illness.

I received approximately 4 out of every 10 votes cast on May 31. Even though I was one of the few persons in the district who knew the true extent of Mr. Shuford's illness, I could not inform the people at that time about his condition. We had given each other our word of honor to wage an absolutely clean campaign, and I did not feel it was clean to talk about his illness if he himself did not feel it necessary to inform the voters.

This Thursday the nominating committee for the 12th Congressional District will meet in Bryson City to name a successor to Mr. Shuford, who resigned. (This is an open meeting which takes place at the Bryson City Court House at 2 o'clock in the afternoon). This committee has been elected at the state convention in Raleigh, and consists of two members from each county, each having one vote, so that no county can dominate any other county or the whole district.

Here is the list of the Committee members:

Mr. Francis J. Heazel, Chairman, Asheville, N. C.
Mr. Thomas Eller, Jr., Secretary, Brevard, N. C.
Mr. C. W. Dermid, Asheville, N. C.
Mr. H. A. Mattox, Murphy, N. C.
Mr. Richard Mauney, Murphy, N. C.
Mr. T. C. Gray, Hayesville, N. C.
Mrs. William Carter, Hayesville, N. C.
Mr. Ray Carver, Robbinsville, N. C.
Mr. M. Walsh, Robbinsville, N. C.
Mr. Richard Queen, Waynesville, N. C.

Mr. Ernest Messer, Canton, N. C.
Mr. Charles Freeman, Hendersonville, N. C.
Mr. M. M. Redden, Jr., Hendersonville, N. C.
Mr. Harley Buchanan, Route 2, Sylva, N. C.
Mr. Charles Fisher, Route 1, Sylva, N. C.
Mr. W. C. Burrell, Franklin, N. C.
Mr. Jess Shope, Route 1, Franklin, N. C.
Mr. McKinley Edwards, Bryson City, N. C.
Mr. Charles R. Crawford, Whittier, N. C.
Mrs. Fred McCall, Brevard, N. C.

Their decision, under the North Carolina Election Law, is final. I am convinced that a large majority will nominate the man who received the largest vote ever cast in a primary in our district for Congress until May 31 of this year.

I am convinced that a vast majority of the members of this committee fully endorse what an editor of the Asheville Times wrote as recently as July 8:

"It is when the so-called 'professional politicians' who may be in the 'game' for personal glory and/or profit, dominate our political campaigns and run the 'show' that our democracy breaks down."

Our nominating committee will want to nominate the man who will represent everyone in this district without fear or favor. They will want to nominate a man who knows that this job calls for representing 340,000 people and not any special interest groups.

With this, I rest my case in the hands of the 20 committee members and God.

Respectfully,

HEINZ ROLLMAN
