

MUSTARD SEEDS

By REV. JAMES J. WILMES
The smallest of all the seeds; but when it grows up, it is larger than any herb.—Mt. 13: 31

THE LAW OF LIFE

High up in the Rockies, there lived a small boy and his mother. One day after he had been punished with a hickory, the lad ran to the edge of a precipice and shouted at his mother, "I hate you! I hate you!" Across the ravine came the echo, "I hate you! I hate you!"

Frightened, the boy ran back to his mother and sobbed, "who is the bad man over there who shouted 'I hate you!'!"

Taking the boy's hand, his mother led him back to the edge and said, "Now, sonny, call out I love you!" When the lad did so, he heard the clear voice sweet echo, "I love you!" "My child," said the mother, "that is the law of life: what you give, you get."

One reason many people get so little out of life is because they give so little of the most necessary virtue of patience. Our Lord reminded us, "In your patience, you shall possess your souls. (Lk. 21, 19.) And again in the parable of the Sower, the seed that "fell upon good ground, these are they who with a right and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bear fruit IN PATIENCE." (Lk. 8, 15). Without patience, we cannot be a real Christian, one who "takes up the cross of Jesus daily and follows Him" (Lk. 9, 23-; for patience is the virtue which helps us bear with peace of soul all physical and moral sufferings for love of God and in union with Jesus crucified.

A common example of impatience is had when a car stalls on a busy street, holding up a line of other drivers behind it. In one such case, the flustered driver was investigating under the hood of his car, the driver behind honked his horn without letup. Finally, the unsuccessful troubled driver straightened up, walked to his impatient critic and, said, "If you'll fix my car, I'll be glad to keep blowing your horn for you." (Was your reply as kind?)

Impatience over trivial annoyances often makes matters worse. Considered, thoughtful action is the best guarantee of quick, profitable results.

RESOLUTION: Patience with others when they hurt us, by silence and a prayer. "Father, forgive them; patience with self in failure, as the Publican prayed. "Lord, be merciful to me a sinner; Patience with God in suffering, "Father . . . not my will but thine be done."

PRAYER: Jesus, help me "reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience" (2 Tim. 4, 2). "Be patient towards all men." (I Thes. 5, 14)

ASC's Conservation Program Now Being Formulated
A meeting will be held next week at which the ASC State Committee and other Agricultural Leaders will review next year's conservation reserve program and will formulate the State ACP for 1937. Zeno O. Ratcliff, Jr., ASC Chairman announced that persons attending this meeting will include the State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service Officials, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, as well as the entire State ASC Committee, including the State Director of Extension, who is a member of that committee.

According to Ratcliff the six and half million dollars that has been allocated for next year for the Agricultural Conservation Program will be used to provide "cost-share assistance" to farmers who carry out needed conservation practices in this state. He explained further that this "cost-share assistance" is matched at least equally by the farmers' money as his share of the cost carrying out long range conservation work that will benefit "not just the farmer" but all people. In addition to furnishing his share of the cost the farmer furnishes all labor involved in carrying out needed conservation practices.

The ACP operates under a "concurrent" program in this state, for that reason farmers will now be able to sign up to take part in this year's or next year's program in any county in the state. Ratcliff urged farmers who have a conservation need which cannot be met with their own resources to visit their ASC county office to look into the possibility of participating in next year's ACP or the program that is in operation at this time.
