By OPIE MCKEEVER

Welcome to JANE and ED REYNOLDS who are back home again with their handsome year-old son, EDWARD. Ed is a band teacher and Jane is also on the Murphy High faculty. They are now at the Pete Hill's but will move into their former residence on Peachtree as soon as the HOLLAND McSWAIN'S can move out and into their new home on Mauney Street.

MRS. CLAUDE FOWLER recently showed me a postcard from her son, JOHN, with a view of fabulous Corey Castle on Jersey Island off the coast of France where he and his English bride, were honeymooning.

JOHN and JEAN MARGARET WALKER were married in a double wedding at Isleworth, London, on August 9 with a reception at the King's Head Inn. John is stationed with the Air Force at Uxbridge.

H. C. BUECK is in Raleigh this week enjoying a whirl of social activities preceding the Terpsichorean Debutante Ball on Friday night. He will be chief marshal at the ball for his cousin, CAROL FAYE BRANHAM, daughter of MRS. J. WALTON BRANHAM and the late DR. BRANHAM. Faye, who is a Duke student, was a frequent visitor in Murphy when the Buecks lived here.

Mrs. Whisenhunt Hosts HD Meet

ANDREWS—Mrs. John Whisenhunt was hostess to members of the Valleytown Home Demonstration club Wednesday, Aug. 27, at her home at Sunny Corner on Whisenhunt Hill.

Mrs. T. C. Christmas gave an informative talk on "Pattern Types." She pointed out the new trends in pattern changes, with reference to the fact that all major pattern companies have now resized patterns to take care of basic measurements, each company has developed a pattern shape of its own.

She illustrated with basic pattern charts from a number of well known pattern companies showing variations in placing of darts, etc., emphasizing the importance of before buying a pattern, have complete measurements taken since patterns come today in figure types, based on height and on body contour.

Mrs. Glenn McGuire, president, conducted the business period, at which time announcement was made of the all-day craft workshop, to be held Sept. 24 in the basement of the First Baptist church with Mrs. Horner of Knoxville, Tenn., in charge of instruction. Mrs. Christmas, Mrs. U. E. Burch, Mrs. Kenneth Ledford and Mrs. Carl West were appointed on the Fair Booth committee.

During the social hour the hostess served a salad course, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Whisenhunt, who is an artist, conducted a tour of her new home, showing her paintings and various collection of art and handicrafts some from her native home in Casper, Wyo.

Guests were her niece Mrs. Robert Knaff (Marie Taylor) of Central America and Mrs. E. D. Meador of Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hampton, have returned to their home here from Mitchell, Neb.
