Murphy Man Enjoys Deep, Dark Caves But Can't Stand New York Subways

ed recently that subways confused him.

The bat hunter, Jesse C. Nicholls Jr., of Murphy undertook his struggle with New York subways while selling specimens of bats and salamanders to scientists.

more confusing than caves. In a cave I can feel a wall ten feet a- his voice steady.

Hayesville Man Dies After Struck By Car

Frank Newall Reynolds, 23, of Hayesville Route 3, was killed Sat- lost his sense of direction. urday night when he was struck by an automobile in Towns County, Ga., near Hayesville.

The Georgia Highway Patrol a car driven by Jerry Ashe of Towns County.

The highway patrol said Ashe carried Reynolds to a Hiawassee, Ga., hospital where he died about 2 a. m. Sunday. He was struck at about 10:30 p. m. Saturday.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reynolds of Hayesville Route 3; and one brother, Carl of Greenville, S. C. Funeral services were conducted Church by the Revs. Jack Thomas and Boyd Hufsteler. Burial was in the church ceme-

Ivie Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Plane Makes Safe Emergency Landing Near Martins Creek

A two passenger Ercoupe plane made an emergency landing last Wednesday in a pasture about six miles from Murphy in the Mar- to the problems of polio and intins Creek section.

No one was injured and the plane was not damaged.

The pilot, W. L. Swanson said he landed the light craft because the motor was getting hot and the oil pressure was dropping. The motor had begun to miss.

Mr. Swanson, of Copperhill, on business.

about 1 p. m.

rews for mechanical help. He re- This experience will be helpful in paired the plane and attempted our new work." to fly it out of the field several up sufficient speed.

from the craft and carried it back years of age. to Copperhill on a truck Wednesday night.

ed ship, the 3,000 ton submarine gram. Nautilus, was commissioned Sept.

A man whose sense of direction; way in the dark. But in the subis almost flawless during hunts ways here everything is constantly for bats in strange caves confess- curving, it's so noisy, it just batters at your brain."

EDITORS NOTE: This article

his 50 years and walks firmly, "Subways," he said, are far with long stride, in laced woodsman's boots. His tan is deep and

He rattled off types of salamanders and the scientists for whom they had been acquired. Yale, Coumbia, Fordham, Princeton and Amherst figured prominently. One professor was on the list to receive 100 bats a month for research on skin grafts.

Mr. Nicholls generally ventures into caves alone. Only once has he

"One time in the Daniel Old Cave, in Trenton, Ga.," he said, 'I was exploring for rare bats. You enter this cave through a said Reynolds was lying on the waterfall. On the way back somehighway when he was run over by how I passed a turn-off. I thought to myself: "Good Lord, I may (Continued on back page)

Local Polio Chapter Elects Officers, Endorses Program

The Cherokee County Chapter of the National Foundation of Infan-Monday at 2:30 p. m. at Bethel tile Paralysis met September 3 to elect a new slate of officers and to learn more about the new health program which was announced on July 22.

John Yates, state representative of the National Foundation of Charlotte met with the chapter members to outline and acquaint them with the new program.

The Cherokee County Chapter endorsed the oganization's new health program and pledged their full support of the broadened objections.

This means continued attention cludes virus diseases, arthritis, birth defects and extended investigations of central nervous system disorders as initial targets.

"We discussed all phases of the program and what it will mean to our communities," W. F. Forsyth, Cherokee County chairman said. "For 20 years the National Founand a passenger, Harry Turner of dation has fought polio and Asheville, were flying to Atlanta brought about a preventive vaccine. With the encouragement and sup-They left Andrews about 12:30 port of the American people, phyp. m. and landed in the field sicians also made great advances in helping repair the damage done Mr. Swanson returned to And- by polio through rehabilitation.

The chapter will continue to assist local polio patients who need About 1,000 feet long, the field help, the chairman added and in teer Gray Ladies in Andrews who was too short for the plane to get time will develop a patient aid Mr. Swanson removed the wings and birth defects through 18 hospital.

The chapter will continue to conduct the March of Dimes campaign in January to assure finan-The world's first atomic-power- cial support for the enlarged pro-

The officers for 1958-59 are: 30, 1954 at Groton, Conn., and as- Mrs. Francis C. Bourne Jr., counsigned to the Atlantic Fleet. The ty chairman; James Howse, vice-Nautilus made the U. S. Navy the pesident; John T. Gill, treasurer; first military service to utilize Mrs. Gertrude Worthen, secreraising chairman.

THE CHEROKEE SCOUT Dedicated To Promoting Cherokee County

VOLUME 68 NUMBER-7

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1958 TEN PAGES THIS WEEK

County Fair To Open Monday County Fair To Open Murphy Library County Fair To Open Murphy Library

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES were held at the Andrews Presbyterian Church Sunday. Beginning operations for the new church educational building are starting this week. L. B. Nichols. ruling elder, and Mrs. C. A. Brown, oldest member of the church present, turned the first shovel of earth for the construction. (Photo by Smiley Studio)

First Class Of Gray Ladies Capped In Ceremonies At Methodist Church

ies for nine local members of the the area division. active corps of Gray Ladies of Methodist Church.

This is the first class of volun-

Prior to the ceremonies, Mrs. Edwin Carter presented a program of organ music. The Rev. Edwin Carter gave the invocation. J. E. Rufty, chairman of the Andrews Chapter of the American Red Cross presided.

Mrs. M. H. Strain of Asheville, volunteer field consultant of the American Red Cross who connuclear energy for propulsion tary; Paul Ridenhour Jr., fund ducted classes for the group of volunteers, brought greetings

ANDREWS- Capping ceremon-, from the National Red Cross and

She stressed the importance of South Western District Memorial working together and stated that Hospital in Andrews were observ- 113,000 volunteers workers gave ed Sept. 2 at 7:30 p. m. at First 80,000,000 hours of service in hospital facilities during the past the post office will be considered

Also on the program were Per- Applications must be received or are serving an average of four cy B. Ferebee, chairman of the post marked on or before Oct. program for victims of arthritis hours a week each in the local hospital board; Harry E. Shaw, 2, 1958. administrator of the hospital, and Dr. C. O. Van Gorder, who spoke is $2.00 per hour. Applicants must for the doctors and staff of the hospital.

> Mrs. Ann Winfrey chairman of pins and gave the assignments and creed.

records presented the caps. The benediction was given by Father Dean of Murphy.

It was announed that a second October. Enrollment is open to all 3, Georgia. interested women in the district.

Members who received caps and pins were: Mrs. Ann Winfrey, Mrs. Louise Taylor, Mrs. Ardith Hay, Mrs. Helen Akley, Mrs. Marie Jones, Mrs. Sarah B. Dewar, Mrs. Lula Matheson, Mrs. Aline Burch and Mrs. Doris Teas.

Murphy Firm Sets Formal Opening have its formal opening Friday parking problem in Murphy. and Saturday of this week.

in sewing needs, is located on ing to ask a solution to the prob-Tennessee Street in the old Post lem-Office Building.

Mrs. F. O. Bates.

been redecorated. Seamtress as autos. services will be available at the Fabric Shop three days a week. for a truck driver to see a car will be sold at the shop.

launched a heavy carrier air raid always been very helpful in solvthe Philippine Islands.

ty Fair will open Monday at Murphy Fair Grounds.

Sponsored by the Cherokee County Mutual Fair Association, Inc. it will last six days.

Capital City Shows has been selected to provide rides and other amusements on the midway The midway will open Monday at 1 p. m. Exhibits wil be in place Monday at 8 p. m. Judging of entries will begin Tuesday 9 a. m. and the exhibits will be open to the public Tuesday at 3 p. m. Wednesday will be given over to a dairy cattle show at 8 a. m. and the judging of sheep at 3 p.

Admission to the grounds will be 50 cents for adults and 20 cents for children. Thursday has been designated as school day at the fair.

Swine will be judged Thursday at 10 a. m. and poultry will be judged at 3 p. m.

The beef cattle show will be held Thursday at 8 p. m.

Friday will also be a school day and all exhibits will be on display. Competition for exhibit awards is open to Cherokee, Clay, Union, Towns and Fannin Counties.

Ribbons and cash awards will be given for animal, youth club, educational, field crops, horticulture, dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, flowers, home products, pantry supplies, home furnishings clothing arts and craftsand science exhibits.

Examination Set For Murphy Post Office Jobs

The Fifth U. S. Civil Service Regional Office, Atlanta, has announced an open competitive examination for career or temporary appointment to the positions of substitute clerk and subtitute carrier in the Murphy Post Applications will be accepted from persons who live in the delivery area of the post office named or who are patrons of such office. Persons employed in bona fide patrons of the office.

The beginning basic rate of pay have reached their 18th birthday on the closing date for acceptance of applications. This age limit the local Gray Ladies presented does not apply to persons entitled to veterans' peference.

Necessary forms and further in-Mrs. Louise Taylor chairman of fomation may be obtained at the post office, or from the Fifth U.S. Civil Service Regional Office, Peachtree-Baker Building, 275 Gray Ladies' class will begin in Peachtree Street, N. E., Atlanta

Three-Day Workers Training School Planned At Murphy Methodist Church

A Training School for Christian | local churches. Workers sponsored by the Methodist churches in Cherokee, Clay and Graham Counties will begin North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

Working With Children

Teachings Of Jesus

Miss Louise Robinson, director of children's work in the Western Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at Murphy Methodist church will offer a course on working with children Courses offered are planned to in the local church. This course strengthen the leadership of is planned for teachers and par-

> Miss Robinson is a graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and Scarritt College.

> A course on the teachings of Jesus will be offered by the Rev. Courtney B. Ross. This course is planned for all adults who are interested in a Bible course.

> Mr. Ross is pastor of the First Methodist Church of Brevard and has had experience in the religious education program of the Methodist Church.

> The Rev. Teague Hipps, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Newton, N. C., will offer a course entitled "What It means to Be A Christian." The course is planned for young people ages 15 through

> Mr. Hipps has served as Dean of the Conference Youth Assem-

Miss Laura Wells who is county rural worker and Methodist Deaconess in Clay County, will teach a course for Intermediates, ages 12 through 14, entitled "Becoming Persons."

A course on the work of the local church will be taught by the Rev. R. T. Houts, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Murphy. This course is planned for all members of the official boards in the local chuches. It is planned to meet the need for giving practical help in the program of the local church.

The training school will run for three nights, Sunday through Tuesday. Hours will be from 7:30 until 9 p. m.

Taxi Driver Charges Night Policeman 'After Me Like A Big Sheppard Dog"

A taxi driver appearing before Murphy Board of Commissioners Monday night had a shaggy dog story to tell.

He felt he was in the dog house with night policeman W. O.

"That night policeman is like a big sheppard dog after me," the taxi driver said.

bothering him about petty traffic violations. The driver also claimed that the night policeman let a drunk driving Murphy business man pass without a warning.

He claimed he could not park in town without Mr. Williams

"I just want to be treated like the rest of the public," the man said, "but that policeman is after me like a collie dog."

The commissioners told the driver that the matter would be investigated.

Commissioners Ask Study Of Truck Parking Problem

The Board of Commissioners | Previously, trucks have been engineers complete their study. Monday night decided to ask for parking in the center of streets. A new Murphy business will state aid in solving the truck

A delegation of about 10 truck The Fabric Shop, specializing drivers attended the regular meet-

Bergan Moore, speaking for the It is owned and operated by drivers, said the present parking arrangement is dangerous. Trucks The interior of the building has park toward the curb the same

Mr. Moore said it is impossible Sewing needs as well as cloth passing in rear of the truck when parked in this manner.

Acting mayor Cloe Moore said On Sept. 21, 1944, the Navy the State Highway Engineers have

This practice was discontinued by the Board after regular cars discussed.

began parking in the center lane.

be in touch with the engineers as soon as possible to ask them to come to Murphy to study the situ- the direction of Texana school if the streets behind other cars is limits to the school. not satisfactory. They claimed they were asked to move too often by drivers of passenger cars.

The engineers are expected to arrive late this week to begin a study of the traffic situation.

The Board considered issuing

The possibility of making certain streets one way was also

In other action by the commis-Cloe Moore said the Board would sioners Monday night, they decided a four inch water main would be laid to the city limits in and when the county was ready Truck drivers said parking in to continue the line from the city

> The board also discussed purchasing a used garbage truck. No decision was reached. The possi-bility of purchasing a tar kettle and spreader to patch Murphy

Town Clerk Charlie Johns against Japanese shipping and air ing such problems in the past and permits to commercial trucks and instructed to find out if such a fields on the Island of Luzon in would probably be available to allow them to park in the center. This plan was shelved until the city and how much it would cost

Taylor, Mrs. Ardith Hay, Mrs. Helen Axley, Mrs. Marie Jones, Mrs. Ann Winfrey, Mrs. Sarah B. Dewar and Mrs. Lula Matheson. Not present when picture was made were Mrs. Doris Teas and Mrs. Aline Burch.