Mattox Attends WNC Education Meeting

Educators and community school leaders from 22 WNC counties met in Asheville last Tuesday, Sept. 13, to discuss ways to utilize citizen committees and other school support groups for the improvement of schools. H. A. Mattox of Murphy (second from left) re-presented Cherokee County. Mr. Mattox, County Board of Education Chairman and a member the N. C. Citizens Committee for Better Schools, told the group t' at Cherokee County present has no citizens committee. The lack of a program for future improvements at development was blamed.

Raymond A. Stone of Raleigh, executive secretary of the State Citizens Committee said that progress in education will be no greater than the community supporting it. He offered to supply interested groups with services and printed information.

The credit plan would be patterned after the system used by the major oil com-panies. The Credit Card Bureau would maintain a central office, staffed by a credit manager.

Credit cards would b e issued to those shoppers meeting the required credit standards, Application forms would be supplied to those desiring credit in Murphy stores. Credit risks would be checked by the Credit Card Bureau Office.

Wally Williams, president of the merchant group said, "A credit plan is needed in Murphy to create better business and better relationships between customers and retailers, The aim of the Merchants Association is to cre-ate goodwill. We think this step in the right diis a rection." Individual stores would han-

The Murphy Bulldogs made it three in a row last night by defeating the West Fannin Yellowjackets 40-14. The Bulldogs play Robbinsville away next Friday, Sept. 23. The Yellowjackets took a Iow, end-over-end kick by Van Horn and ran it John Van Horn and ran it back thirty yards to their own forty-five yard line. On the first play from the line of scrimmage the Bulldogs recovered a fumble on the fifty yard line. On the next play, David Thompson took a hand-off from Bobby Wea-ver and fought his way down field for thirty-nine vards.

field for thirty-nine yards, putting the ball on the West Fannin eleven yard line. Two plays later, Bud Killian drove across from the three, giving the Bulldogs their first touchdown. Killian also ran the extra point.

Murphy again kicked off to West Fannin, The Yellowjackets took the ball on their own fifteen yard line, Two plays later, West Fannin fumbled and Jerry Kephart recovered it, giving Murphy the ball on West Fannin's seventeen yard line. Then a powerful Buildog eleven moved the ball to the Yellowjackets' one. From there Bobby Weaver went across for the TD, The attempt for the extra point was no good leaving the score 13-0 at the end of the first period of play. West Fannin was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt from the Bulldog's forty-seven yard line as the second period progressed. The ball rolled dead on the Bulldogs' own seven and from they started their there march. Murphy moved the ball to the thirty-four and from there Bobby Weaver kept the ball until several West Fannin players were on top of him. Then he pitched out to Frank Hill who streaked fiftysix yards to the West Fannin ten yard line, Play after next, Hill carried across for the score, Bobby Weaver ran the extra point.

After the Bulldogs kicked-off to the Yellowjackets, Bob-by Wesver intercepted a Yellowjacket pass, giving Murphy the ball on West

From there the Bulldogs started a drive that ended hen David Thompson scored from the fourteen yard line. West Fannin's first tally came m Mike Harmess climaxed a sixty-six yard drive by going over from the one. Hartalso scored the extra Murphy's fifth touchdown came when Frank Hill ended a drive by scoring from four yards out, nearing the fourth period.

West Fannin ran the kick back to their own forty-five. The Yellowjackets were just across the mid-field stripe when they faked a punt and moved the ball to Murphy's twenty-four. Several plays later, Rene Godfrey scored West Fannin's last touchdown. Donnie Dockery made the extra point. The Buildogs started a drive from their own thirty-two that ended when John Van Horn passed to Sammy Duncan who went fourteen yards for the touchdown, Van Horn ran the extra point. Neither team was able to ore again, and the gar ded with the Bulldogsdow ing West Fallin 40-14,
