Shoplifters Beware

Several merchants in the Murphy area have hired extra help to try and curb the current shoplifting breakout. One merchant told this newspaper that in his store alone there are two "clerks" who do nothing but watch for shoplifters.

One store manager report ed catching several teen-age girls in the act of stealing last week. Shoplifting is an offense punishable by imprisonment.

110 Attend Andrews Football Banquet

ANDREWS - The annual Lions' Club football banquet was held at the Andrews School cafeteria on Thursday night, December 8. The banquetis held every year, under the sponsorship of the Andrews Lions Club, to honor the Andrews High School foothall squad.

Lions Club President Herb Sheldy presided. The featured speaker of the evening was Norman Gilbert, assistant superintendent of Van Raalto Knirting Mills of Blue Ridge, Ga. Mr. Gilbert, a quarterback on the Pledmont College football team during his college days and a former high school football coach, stres sed the importance of sportmanship in all athletic contests. He was introduced by Cliff Huls.

Coach Bob Cooper recognized the boys on the Var-sity squad who lettered this year, and Coach Cecil Mashburn recognized the lettermen on the junior Varsity squad A film, "Highlights of Ga. Tech Football Games of 1959" was shown by Dr. C. O. Van Gorder.

vice to the Nantahala customers. Our position has not changed. Duke Power Company still wishes to purchase the Nantahala system "We have been asked why Nantahala applied for a rate increase instead of going ahead with the transfer to Duke. The answer to this question should properly come Nantahala Fower and Light Company,

However, we would like to point out that those op-posed to the transfer have raised the issue that the transfer will ultimately result in increasing the rates pold by Nantahala customers. Both the Nantahala and Duke officials have pointed out that Nantahala's rates are now inade quate to produce a fair return on its investment in electric property and that if Nantahala continues in business, its rates have to be raised.
