Miss Dottie Jordan Crowned July 4th Queen At Andrews

The annual Fourth of July celebration was viewed by hundreds of people and many expressed their opinion that it was the best ever for Andrews.

Miss Dottie Jordan was named Miss Fourth of July. She was crowned Queen by Mayor Percy B. Ferebee in ceremony held in Ball Park at 10 a.m. Her attendants were Sarah Rowland, Sandra Leford, Evelyn Morrow and Sandra Nichols.

The activities began at 8:30 a.m. with a band concert, followed by the Kiddie Parade. After the General Parade, prize winning awards were given to Kiddie Parade winners as follows: 1st prize-Gummy Hunters; Carol Hawk, Denny Hawk and Jean Hogsdad; 2nd prize-Scarecrow; Frank Jarrett, 3rd prize-God Bless America; El Khouri children. Float prize winners were 1st prize-Freeel Furniture Co., 2nd prize-First Baptist Church, 3rd prize-Lions Club.

The Little League Ball games began at 11 a.m. followed by Town Team Baseball game. A Square Dance held at 8 p.m. on the A. & P. parking lot ended the days events.

Mrs. E. U. Burch, general chairman, and her workers are to be commended on the outstanding job they did in making this a bigger and better July Fourth.

Annual Tour Sponsored by The H. D. Clubs

The Cherokee County Council of Home Demonstration clubs will sponsor their fifth annual tour to Asheville, July 20th, provided there is sufficient interest.

There are two choices: (1) those who would like to spend the day at Craftsman's Fair at City Auditorium or (2) a tour of Gerber Products Co. and Biltmore Country Market on Hendersonville Road.

The Gerbers Products Co. is a new industry and the guided tour will enable us to see the latest techniques used in processing canned foods.

The Biltmore Country Market is of interest to all in this area who are interested in crafts.

The cost of the tour is $3.50 per person and reservations must be made at Home Agent's office by July 10 so final arrangements can be made.

Plans are to leave Murphy at 7:30 a.m. July 20 from the Bus Station on Tennessee St. for Asheville and to leave City Auditorium at 4:00 p.m. for the return trip to Murphy.

The bus will accommodate 37 passengers and anyone interested in making the trip may go. We invite men, women and children.

Hurry and get your name on the list. We expect to have a good time.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Miller of Murphy announce the marriage of their daughter, Olivia Sue, to Charles H. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. West, of Andrews, N. C.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Waymatt M. Gilbert in the Baptist Pastorium in Hiwassee, Ga., June 10, 1961. The couple was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin.

ARE CHEAP PAINTS REALLY BARGAINS?
 NO, here's why...

Cheap paints don't cover as well ... and you use more paint. Also, they often crack, peel, and fade within a short while.

For True Economy use Top Quality PITTSBURGH PAINTS

Andrews. All WMS Circles of the First Baptist Church will meet Thursday night, 6:30 p.m., at Nantahala for a pot-luck picnic. In case of rain this meeting will be held at the church.

Monday through Friday is J. G. A. Week at Truett camp.

A Training Union Leadership Clinic will be held at Truett Camp, July 15, with State, and possibly south-wide leaders to direct the clinic. All Training Union workers plus prospective workers are urged to attend.

Three Injured In Two Car Collision Near Andrews

ANDREWS - Three persons were hospitalized Monday afternoon as the result of a two-car collision two and a half miles east of Andrews on U.S. 19.

State Highway Patrolman E. N. Hooper listed the injured as: Mrs. Henry C. Grant of High Point, a passenger in a car driven by her husband; and Mrs. Elmer Shadrick of Jasper, Tenn., and Deanna Henson of Chattanooga, both passengers in a car operated by Savannah Flora Shadrick of Chattanooga.

Hooper said the Shadrick car was traveling toward Andrews and entered the path of the on-coming Grant vehicle. He said he has charged Miss Shadrick with failure to grant right of way.

Laurie Babb Honored On 4th Birthday

Mrs. Jerue Babb entertained with a birthday party at her home last Friday afternoon, June 30, honoring her daughter, Laurie on her 4th birthday.

A table was placed on the front porch where the birthday cake was placed with four candles. Balloons were used in decorating the porch. After games were played the honoree opened her packages.

The hostess served ice cream and cake to the following: Nolan Wells, Tish Crawford, Price and Bill McKeever, Cathy Alexander, Mark Thompson, Coleman Breland, Catherine and Paul Hill, Lisa Warner and Wilhelmina Sneed.

Mae Perry Circle

The Mae Perry Circle of the First Baptist Church met at the church on Tuesday, June 27, 2:30 p.m.

The meeting opened with a song, "I Need Thee Every Hour". Mrs. Bessie Dewesse gave the devotional.

Mrs. Henry Hyatt presided over a short business session. A program on "Intercessory Prayer" was given by Mrs. Henry Hyatt. The thought was Teach Us To Pray and was given by different circle members. The meeting closed with responsive reading and prayer by Mrs. Henry Hyatt.
