

Ed O'Herron knows how to get things done.

Come and Meet

Ed O'Herron

Democratic Candidate

For Governor

Thursday, July 29, 1976

4-5 p.m. at

Village Shopping Center

(In Front of Lumbee Bank,

Woods' Family Center and

Piggly Wiggly, Pembroke)

Ed O'Herron is a successful businessman who made it on his own. He wasn't born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

As a boy, Ed delivered newspapers to earn spending money. His first full-time job was in the stockroom of a small drug store. During World War II, he volunteered for the Marines, and sent his paychecks home for house payments.

Ed knows the value of an honest day's work. It was the key to his success during his 30 years in business and 14 years in government. And it will be the key to his success in providing the firm, mature leadership needed to get North Carolina moving forward again.

Ed knows the value of a dollar, too. He'll see that we have an efficient state government—one that will provide a dollar's worth of service for every dollar of the taxpayers' money. He will put people ahead of politics. His team will be chosen for what they can do for you, not for what they have done for politicians.

Ed hasn't made any political promises. And, he won't. When you elect Ed O'Herron governor, the only debt he'll have is to you.

Mrs. Charles W. Maynor, Mrs. Earl S. Ransom, Mrs. G. Willard Locklear, Mrs. Governor R. Barnes, Mrs. A. Carl Lowry, Mrs. Betty Lou H. Bell, Mrs. Susan Locklear, Mrs. Christine H. Oxendine, Mrs. Earle B. Maynor, and Mrs.

Lewis Barton; standing from left: Charles W. Maynor, Earl S. Ransom, G. Willard Locklear, A. Carl Lowry, Earle B. Maynor, Sanford Locklear,

Andrew N. Ransom, Margolous G. Sanderson, Gov ernor R. Barnes, and Lewis Barton. Those attending not pictured were Mr. and Mrs. Z.R. "Zeke" Chavis of Crestview, Florida.

Jimmy Locklear, Off to Med School

Jimmy Locklear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Locklear, of the Union Chapel Community will begin studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill this fall in the field of medicine.

Jimmy is a graduate of Pembroke Senior High School and North Carolina State University with a B. S. in chemical engineering. He is married to Jo Ann Locklear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Neal Locklear of Pembroke. His plans are to obtain an M. D. in medicine.

There will be a meeting August 3, at 8 p.m. at Magnolia High School of the Indian Education Act Parent Committee and parents concerning the IEA 1976-77 budget.

Look at those Bass!!
