The Adult Ladies Chorus participated on Sunday in special music at the Home coming which was held at the First Baptist Church in Pembroke.

Dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Nancy Jones Sunday were Mrs. Rockie J. Locklear, Mrs. Eunice Evelyn Locklear and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Jones and son, Mrs. Violet Locklear, and also Miss Sherlean Bullard of the Prospect area. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Foster Locklear, Mrs. Goldie Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Locklear, also Mrs. Velma McInnam.

Mrs. Martha Oxendine was able to be back in church Sunday after being out a long time due to illness. We were sure glad of her presence.

Little Miss Lumbie India Lowery participated in the parade last Friday which was held in Fairmont. The parade was the opening attraction of the Fairmont Farmers Festival.

Mrs. Violet Locklear and Mrs. Darlene Carter went up to McCain Hospital last Thursday. Mrs. Locklear had to receive medical treatment, but was later released.

I like what Billy Revels had to say about the increase in the cost of supplies. He said last year he could buy a bucket of material that he uses in his body shop that cost $4.00 per bucket, but today that same bucket of material cost $18.00 per bucket.

Carolina Power and Light Company increased their rates causing our light bills to double, but no one got up a petition against them, and you better believe, their financial condition is much sounder than ours.

You know, Town Business is Big Business-and, I will be glad when we start treating it as such; because too long we have taken fifty cents and spent a dollar to provide you with sewerage services that the Law requires us to give you. This is the reason our Town is in the financial condition it is in now- because we are not running our Town like a business. We need to start aiming at our problems so we can HIT them.

I spent the last two days in Raleigh checking on EDA money and some other problems we have. I found out that we will have to start helping ourselves before we can get help from them.

My sister Mary Helen Royal and her husband Mike would like for me to tell you that they have a new baby girl! Congratulations Mary Helen and Mike! The Royals live in San Jose, California.

On the Titanic they didn't see the iceberg until too late!

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Locklear and family, formerly of Robeson County, who have been living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin for the past ten years, has moved back. They now reside in Pembroke.
