The wedding of Miss Donna Lane Chavis and Samuel Locklear was solemnized Sunday afternoon, September 19, at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride on Hwy. 711 west of Lumberton. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Coolidge Cummings. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose L. Chavis Jr. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Alma Gertrude Locklear of Rt. 2, Rowland and Doyle Buck Locklear of Shannon.

The bride was escorted to the improvised altar formed of blue and white flowers and tapers by her father. Her wedding gown of sheer organza was trimmed with reemboilered lace. The bodice was designed with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and shepherd's sleeves, and a deep border of lace accented, the A-line skirt and chapel train.

Her three-tiered elbow-length mantilla was edged with matching lace, and she carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Gail Lynnette Chavis, sister of the bride. She wore a blue print gown of organza fashioned with a flounced flared skirt and ruffle. She carried a colonial nosegay of blue and white mums with ribbons and streamers.

Buffy Revels of Pembroke, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue chiffon dress featuring a high neckline and a ruffle around the hem. She carried a basket of flowers. Rev. Chavis, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride was graduated from Pembroke High School and Robeson Technical Institute. She has been employed as a clerical aide at Green Grove Elementary School.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Magnolia High School and is employed with Brown and Root Construction Company in Southport.

Since return from a wedding trip to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Locklear are living on Rt. 3, Lumberton.

RECEPTION

A number of other relatives and friends joined wedding guests for a reception given by the bride's parents at Old Foundry Restaurant following the ceremony.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Thomas Ross, and Mrs. Juddie Revels Jr. invited them to register.

Presiding at the gift tables were Mrs. Ralph Neville, Mrs. Willie Smith and the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Leslie Riley of Fayetteville, Mrs. Ray Chavis and Miss Linda Locklear.

Mrs. Richard Sheppard served the wedding cake, and Miss Hannah Revels poured punch. Both are aunts of the bride.

BRIDAL SHOWER

The bride was honored at a floating miscellaneous shower recently at the First United Methodist Church in Pembroke. Hostesses were Miss Hannah Revels, Mrs. Richard Sheppard and Mrs. Juddie Revels Jr.

The bridal table was decorated with an arrangement of blue and white mums and carnations. Guests served themselves a variety of party delicacies and punch.

Special guest was Mrs. Nancy Revels of Pembroke, the bride's great-grandmother, who is 98 years old.

Home coming Sunday

Homecoming will be held Sunday, October 10, 1976 at Harkers Ferry Baptist Church. A special invite goes out to all former members and all friends. Sunday School will begin at 9:45; Worship at 11:00; Dinner at 12:30; and Singing will be held in the afternoon. Rev. T.M. Swett will deliver the message.

First Female Commander of ROTC

Cadet Lt. Col. Geraldine Holmes

For the first time in the four year history of the Pembroke Senior High School Junior ROTC, a female has been named as Battalion Commander.

Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Geraldine Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holmes of Rt. 4, Lumberton, has assumed command of the battalion which consists of four companies.

Last year Cadet Lt. Holmes served as Executive Officer of Company "C" which was selected as Honor Company for two of the four grading periods as well as being named Honor Company for the school year 1975-76.

In her two years as a cadet in the JROTC program at Pembroke Senior High School, Cadet Lt. Holmes has received the Department of the Army Superior Cadet Medal, Superior Drill Proficiency-Battalion, JROTC Academic Achievement Badge (3), Marksmanship Badge Small Bore Rifle. She received the following ribbons: JROTC Academic Achievement (4), Special Achievement (2), Meritorious Achievement (2), Good Conduct (2), Honor Cadet (3), Distinguished Cadet (5), Best Cadet Captain Debbie Hammonds, 54, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Hammonds.

Cadet Captain Lawrence Malcolm, Information Officer, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Malcolm. Commander of the Drill Team is Cadet Captain Vickie Oxendine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Oxendine. The top enlisted person in the battalion is Cadet Command Sergeant Major Ricky Oxendine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dial.

Three of the four company commanders, as are many of the higher ranking officers in the battalion, are females. They are Debra Maynor, Company "A", wife of former battalion commander Lonnie Maynor; Juanita Strickland, Company "B", daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Strickland; Rodney Locklear, Company "C", son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Locklear; Myra Jill Maynor, Company "D", daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Maynor.

The battalion has grown immensely over last year. This year there are 154 students enrolled as compared to approximately 116 last year. The Firing Range, completed last fall, is used as a classroom as well as a firing area. It also contains a storage room and office.
