THE CAROLINA INDIAN VOICE

PSHS Footballers Say Thanks

In last weeks issue of the Carolina Indian Voice, the Pembroke Senior High Jayvee footballers forgot to mention a couple of patrons who helped sponsor a victory dinner given them for winning the Three Rivers Conference Championship.

Overlooked during the accolades last week were Dial's Insurance Agency and Nationwide Insurance Agency, Willie Von Lowry.

The footballers asked us to say "thanks" to both and to apologize for the unintentional omission in last weeks article.

Boston Common

Boston Common got its name, in 1634, because cow pastures were once an important part of any town's urban development. In fact, most of the early colonial towns were laid out with a village green to provide pasturage for the "common" good.

Vegetarianism

Most vegetarians fall into one of three different categories: (1) the lacto-ovo-vegetarian, who eats no meat, fish or poultry; (2) the lacto-vegetarian, who eats no meat, fish, poultry or eggs; and, (3) the strict vegetarian, who eats no foods of animal origin whatsoever.

A program of Christmas music games, and food was offered. Each senior citizen was given a fruit basket as a Christmas gift from Pembroke Housing Authority. Recognition goes to the managers of BO'S FOOD LAND OF PEMBROKE and
