Mrs. Rachel Locklear

Mrs. Rachel Locklear, pictured above, entered the work experience component of the CETA program, which is administered by Lumbee Regional Development Association, in January, 1975. Mrs. Locklear was placed as a teacher's aide at Uptown Junior High School under the supervision of Mr. Earl H. Oxendine.

Senior Citizens Hear Of Status of Women

The Red Springs Senior Citizens Club is a member of the North Carolina Association of Senior Citizens Clubs.

The Honorable Earl A. Watson, Mayor of Red Springs presented the certificate of membership to the Red Springs Senior Citizens Club that is sponsored by the Four County Community Services.

The presentation was made on Wednesday, February 16, at the Red Springs Neighborhood Service Center which is operated by Four County Community Services, Inc.

The accomplishment of the certificate was through the assistance of Ms. Alice Kennedy of the Robeson County Department of Recreation, Senior Citizens Advisor. The Association is dedicated to the preservation of a person's dignity, and self-respect, regardless of his longevity through communication, participation, education and recreation. The membership association is sponsored by the Senior Citizens Committee of the North Carolina Recreation and Parks Society.

Guest speakers for the occasion were Clara Bryant, Regional Coordinator of the North Carolina Status on Women, and Ms. Alice Kennedy, Robeson County Recreation Dept. and Senior Citizens Advisor.

Ms. Bryant spoke on the subject: "What is the Status of Women?" Her speech follows:

"Basically we want to promote peace and understanding between the sexes. We are not a women's lib group and we are not out to threaten femininity or masculinity. Our program has nothing to do with who opens doors for whom, or who pays the restaurant check. What the program does involve is an effort to promote public awareness of the attitudes of women and of men toward women, and to find out in each county what the needs of women are.

"We are trying to fit the needs of each individual county. It is hard for the state to set up something for each county because each one is different and this is why each county should have its own coordinator and council to study the needs of women there.

"The council programs emphasize helping women find resources already available to enable them to help themselves. We try to promote self-sufficiency and the pride that goes with it rather than the state where I am philosophy. Some people need a good dose of ambition.

"So many times a woman has a problem and doesn't know where to turn. We are reaching out to these women. We want to let people know what the problems are on the local level, and help them cope with them. Our local offices receives numerous phone calls. My co-worker on the county council and myself help those that we can and refer the others to the proper agencies.

"We get lots of calls from women whose husbands have left them. We get calls from handicapped persons, and from women who feel they are being discriminated against in their jobs. Numerous calls come in from senior citizens who feel that they have been forgotten. We get calls on cases of child abuse, alcoholism problems, and women seeking employment. We serve men as well as women, and on several occasions have been successful in placing men and women on jobs.

"We are a statutory agency established by the General Assembly and we can not lobby for ERA. The Council has its purpose:

"To identify the status of women in each county by assembling existing information, conducting original research and other appropriate means;

"To disseminate information on the status of women;

"To serve as the official advisory body on the status of women to the County Board of Commissions, to prepare an annual report to the board and to recommend appropriate action regarding the status of women.

"To promote development of the potential of each woman and,

"To increase public understanding of the problems, needs and abilities of women and serve as a clearing house of information regarding the aforementioned.

"What would you do if you were suddenly left alone? This is a question the Council is trying to help women answer. Would you be able to carry on family business alone? Do you know whether you could write
