

Pembroke BPW Club to sponsor First Shamrock Ball

The Pembroke Business and Professional Women's Club will sponsor the first Shamrock Ball on Friday, March 11th, at the Pembroke Jaycee Club house. The event was a "sell-out" at the meeting of the Club on Monday, March 7th, at Mayor Manor in Pembroke. Proceeds from the Ball will be used for charitable activities and the Career Advancement Scholarship Project.

At the Monday night meeting, Ms. Mollie Briley, Secretary, read correspondence from State Legislative Chairman Sarah Gullledge of Monroe commending the Pembroke Club for an outstanding legislative portfolio which has been entered in the National Legislative Awards Program sponsored by the National Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc. Ms. Bertha Chavis serves as Chairman of the local club legislative committee with Ms. Grace S. Epps and Ms. Rose M. Lowry. Other correspondence was received from the Fayetteville Business and Professional Women's Club and the Monroe Business and Professional Women's Club endorsing Grace S. Epps as a nominee for appointment to the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina.

ENDORSEMENT FOR STATE OFFICES

During the business session, the Club endorsed the candidacy of Ms. Ruth Dial Woods for the office of Southern Piedmont Area Vice-President at the State BPW Convention to be held in June in Fayetteville. Also endorsed was Ms. Tessie Hunt who has been requested by President-elect Julia Hassell of Edenton to serve as State Chairman of the State Public Relations Committee.

OTHER BUSINESS

The District IX meeting scheduled for April 1 in Clinton was announced and the deadline for registration of March 25th. The Pembroke Club's Young Careerist, Ms. Sandra H. Strickland, will participate in speak-up competition at this meeting.

WOMEN OFFENDERS SERVICE PROJECT

As a community service project, the Club adopted a service project to the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. A list of area women was compiled and BPW members will serve as sponsors of these women by letter writing and social courtesies extended throughout the year. The
